PRESS COMMUNIQUÉ.

Fort St. George, March 22, 1920.

No 86.—The Government for some time past have had under consideration the question of dealing comprehensively with the situation which has arisen out of the increase in the rates of house-rents and the scarcity of suitable houses in the City of Madras for all classes of the population.

2. The question has been examined on previous occasions, but action has been postponed partly on account of want of funds and partly in the hope of the passing of the Town Planning Act, which, however, has been delayed pending disposal of the District Municipalities Bill.

3. Meanwhile, the situation has become so serious that the Government have come to the conclusion that they must take such action as they can pending the passing of the Act, and with this purpose a conference of officers concerned was convened on the 12th February 1920 under the presidency of His Excellency the Governor to discuss the question.

4. A question which was placed in the forefront of the discussion by the medical authorities was that of the advisability of taking the opportunity afforded by the acquisition of sites to improve the health of the city by getting rid of wet cultivation within the municipal limits. Great stress has been laid on this point on many occasions in the past and the Government feel that there can be no doubt that the stoppage of wet cultivation will have a great effect in improving the health of the city, which may at any time be very seriously affected by the mosquito-breeding grounds afforded by the paddy fields. Now, therefore, that it has become essential to acquire further sites for building houses, it seems obviously the better course to render available sites within the city limits, already served by roads and other conveniences, which are only prevented from being used for house-building by the fact of wet cultivation, than to leave wet cultivation within the city limits and go farther afield for house-sites. The conference, therefore, decided that the first step to be taken was the acquisition and drainage of the Mylapore and Nungambakam tanks.

The beds of these tanks are nominally under the control of shrotriyamdars who, however, do nothing for their repair and derive no water-rate on the ayacut. The Government propose, in the first place, to acquire the whole of their beds and to establish means of draining the tanks into the Cooum and Adyar rivers. The question of the acquisition of the ayacut will depend on the attitude of the ayacutdars. These people pay no higher rate of revenue for paddy lands than they pay for other quit-rent lands within the city and the effect of the acquisition of the beds of the tanks will be to enhance very largely the value of their sites, which will then be rendered available as house-sites. The Government have as a measure of protection issued a notification under section 6 of the Land Acquisition Act announcing their intention to acquire the whole of the ayacuts. They have no wish to do this, however, so long as the ayacutdars accept the situation as above stated and are prepared to make no claim for compensation on the ground of the stoppage of the supply of water. If, however, they are not willing to accept the situation, the Government believe that it will be for the benefit of the tax-payer generally to acquire the lands and resell them as house-sites.

5. The beds and ayacuts of these tanks will render available approximately an area of about 2,000 acres for town extension and the Government hope that the owners of the lands under the tanks will co-operate with them and with the Corporation in laying out the lands concerned in a way which will be for the benefit of the city as a whole. The general plan to be followed is indicated in map No. IX attached to Mr. Lanchester's 'Town Planning in Madras.' The Government, however, propose, subject to the Secretary of State's sanction, to appoint a Town Planning Expert who will be available for the working out in detail of all necessary schemes.

6. Another direction in which the Government think that sites may be rendered available at comparatively small expense is by opening up the area to the west of the city. While the area covered by buildings runs to something like 12 miles north to south of Fort St. George, on the west the area covered is little more than three miles. One main reason for this is that there is no means of communication westward north of the Poonamallee Road and south of the road to the Red Hills. The intention of the Government is to open a large main road from a point somewhere in Kilpauk to the village of Ambattur in the first instance. This road will pass through a large amount of land which is suitable for extensions. In particular, there is a site of high ground near the Ambattur station itself which is exceptionally favourably situated for the purpose. The Government propose to acquire a broad belt of land adjacent to the new road for the establishment of a colony of menial Government servants and to offer to assist the proposed Government Servants' Co-operative Building Society and other Co-operative Building Societies in the establishment of other colonies in this direction. In this connexion may be mentioned the fact that a sum of Rs. 4,75,000 has been entered in the budget for loans to co-operative societies for building.

7. In addition to these main schemes, certain further decisions were recorded at the conference arising out of the report of the committee appointed to deal with the general question of sites for public offices. The following is a brief summary of the decisions arrived at:—

If and when the Penitentiary is moved outside Madras, as has been recommended by the Jails Committee, the Government Presses will be assembled together on the present site of the Penitentiary. The Lawrence Asylum Press being thus set free, the buildings will, if they are adequate, be made available for the Survey office. On the removal of the Engineering College to Guindy, the Commissioner of Income-tax, the Chief Conservator of Forests, the Census Commissioner and the Department of Fisheries will be accommodated in the buildings of the present Engineering College. As it is not intended to utilize the Newington building any longer as a residence for young zamindars, it will be made available for the accommodation of the offices of the Surgeon-General, the Sanitary Commissioner and the Deputy Sanitary Commissioner. The present Surgeon-General's office will be allotted for use as a Tuberculosis Hospital and the proposed X-ray Institute will be established in Fallowfield in Peter's Road. The present offices of the Sanitary Commissioner will, as a temporary measure, be handed over to the Director of Industries who will vacate Jarrett's Gardens. Ultimately, if and when the Secretariat is established in the Madras Government House, the present Secretariat buildings will be allotted to the Directors of Industries and Agriculture and other development departments, and the Council Chamber will possibly be made over for use as a Commercial and Industrial Museum. Meanwhile, the Chamber will be fitted to accommodate the enlarged Council, and temporary structures will be added to ensure that all necessary conveniences are provided for Ministers, Council Secretaries and Members.

It is proposed to allot the area occupied by and adjacent to the farm at Saidapet for the construction of residences for Indian and European officers. A commencement will be made with five residences in 1920-21. The old bungalow at Homes' Gardens now used as an office by the Collector of Chingleput will be reconverted to its former use and a new office built for the Collector opposite the offices of the Deputy Collector and Tahsildar at Guindy.

BOUNDARIES

North.—Starting from the south-west corner of survey No. 132 of Midapanda village, the boundary follows the southern boundaries of survey Nos. 139, 476 and 477 of the same village to the north-west corner of survey No. 478 of the same village.

East.—Thence the boundary follows the western boundaries of survey Nos. 478, 475 and 480 of the said village to the south-west corner of last mentioned field.

South.—Thence the boundary runs in a straight line to the south-east corner of survey No. 170 of the said village.
West.—Thence the boundary follows the eastern boundary of survey No. 171 of the same village to the starting point.
Brief description.—The area consists of scrub growth of very little value.
Soil.—Is stony on the surface but the subsoil is chocolate coloured loam.
Reasons for dissatisfaction.—To remove the inconvenience caused to the villagers of Rajakantapalle hamlet owing to the close proximity of the reserve line to the village site and to the drinking water well.

SAMPLES.

An open general licence has been issued which permits the free export of all bona-fide samples of prohibited goods to all destinations with which trade is now permitted. Samples exported under this licence may be used only for genuine sample purposes, i.e., for obtaining orders from foreign buyers, and may not be sold except with the written consent of the Export Licence Department, but such consent may be dispensed with when it is desired to sell the articles in the country of destination after they have fulfilled their purpose as samples. Exporters will be required to satisfy the Customs Authorities that the goods presented for export under this licence are bona-fide samples, and to make a declaration to that effect on the relative shipping documents.

This notice only applies to samples of goods which require licences for export to the particular destination concerned.

In addition, the consent of the Export Licence Department is not required for the sale of samples which, though within this scheme at the actual time they were exported, could be exported outside the scheme at the actual time of the proposed sale.

OPEN GENERAL LICENCE FOR COAL EXPORTS.

An open General Licence has been issued, with effect from Thursday, 1st January, 1920, permitting the export of coal, coke and manufactured fuel to all destinations abroad except Russia, Germany, Hungary, Austria, Turkey and Bulgaria, subject always to the approval, previously obtained, of the Controller of Coal Mines or his duly authorised representative, and subject to shipment being made in a vessel approved by the Commissioners Customs hand Excise or their Officers.

The Customs Authorities will require pre-entry to be made in all cases; and at ports where there is a duly authorised local representative of the Controller of Coal Mines (see list below) the approval referred to above will be signified by his endorsement on the pre-entry form, which must be presented to him for the purpose before shipment.

Where a shipment is proposed to be made from a port not included in the list given below it will be necessary for application for the Controller's approval to be made to the Export Branch of the Coal Mines Department in London. Shipments from all ports in the United Kingdom to the destinations excluded from the purview of the general licence must still be covered by an export licence from the Coal Mines Department.

The following are the ports shipments from which will be covered by the local representative's endorsement on pre-entry:—

District.	Controller's Representative.
All Scottish ports	Mr. W. B. Fuller, 4, Dunlop street, Glasgow.
From Amble to Middlesbrough inclusive.	Mr. W. R Fisher, Guildhall Chambers, Quayside, Newcastle-on-Tyne.
Humber ports (Hull to Grimsby inclusive).	Mr. A. D. Upton, 120, Alfred Gelder Street, Hull.
Mersey ports	Mr. J. Melrandi, Dock Board Offices, Liverpool.
From Barry Port to Newport inclusive.	Mr. L. R. Lewis, Cymric Buildings, Cardiff

OPEN GENERAL LICENCE FOR THE EXPORT OF INDUSTRIAL EXPLOSIVES, SMOOTH-BORE GUNS AND MUNITIONS FOR USE THEREWITH.

An Open General Licence has been issued for the export of industrial explosives, smooth-bore guns and munitions for use therewith, to the destinations given below, to which, therefore, exports may be made subject to the usual Customs formalities without applications for specific licences to the Export Licence Department:—

British Possessions and Protectorates (see note below).
French Possessions and Protectorates (see note below).
United States of America.

South America.
Japan and Korea.
Asiatic Russia.
France, Belgium, Spain, Portugal, Greece, Italy, Serbia, Roumania, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Holland, Switzerland and Iceland.

In accordance with article 6, Chapter 2, of the 'Arms Convention', all destinations in the prohibited areas set out in article 3 are excepted from this open general licence and will still require a specific export licence for all arms and ammunition.

Open General Licence for the Export of Aircraft, etc.

An open General Licence has been issued for the export of the undermentioned goods to all destinations except Russia, Germany, Hungary, Austria, Turkey and Bulgaria. Applications are no longer to be made to the Export Licence Department in respect of the export of these goods to countries other than those mentioned:—"Aeroplane engines and their component parts. Aircraft, other than balloons of all kinds, and their component parts, together with accessories and articles suitable for use in connexion with aircraft."

Open General Licence for the Export of Parcels containing Miscellaneous foodstuffs.

An Open General Licence has been issued for the export by parcel post of parcels containing one or more varieties of foodstuffs (for the personal use of the addressee and not for trading purposes) to all destinations with which trading is allowed, provided that any such parcel may not contain more than two pounds of sugar or more than one pound of butter. Applications need, therefore, no longer be submitted to the Import and Export Licensing Section in respect of the export of such parcels by parcel post.

URGENT ORDERS.

The Board of Trade, Import and Export Licensing Section, announces that, in collaboration with the Department of Overseas Trade, an arrangement has been made whereby firms receiving orders which require immediate acceptance may telegraph details of any such order to the Department of Overseas Trade in order to ascertain whether a licence will be granted for the export of the goods if the order is accepted.

In the event of an applicant being promised a licence he will be enabled to deal with the order straightaway with the knowledge that upon application being made in the proper form to the Export Licence Department the licence will be granted.

The telegrams should be addressed to "Orders, c/o Advantage, Stock, London." They should give in each case in addition to the name and postal or telegraphic address of the applicant the quantity and description of the goods comprised in the order and the name and address of the ultimate consignee if the goods are destined for a neutral country. In the case of orders from Allied or British Territory or from territory in the occupation of troops of the Associated Governments, the consignee need not be stated; and it will be sufficient merely to give the country of destination. A reply of 24 words (1/3) must be prepaid.

Applicants are requested in their own interest to confine their enquiries to orders needing a very urgent decision, since the fewer the enquiries the more promptly can answers be given.

Any subsequent correspondence that is necessary in connexion with the telegraphic enquiries should be addressed to the Comptroller-General, Department of Overseas Trade (Export Facilities Section), 35, Old Queen Street, Westminster, S.W.1.

TRANSHIPMENT IN THE UNITED KINGDOM.

The provisional approval of the Import and Export Section, Board of Trade, should be obtained before the following goods are brought to this country for transhipment:—

No. 113.—Under section 4 of the Madras Planters' Labour Act, 1903, the Governor in Council is pleased to authorise Mr. Thomas Arthur Kinmond, Manager of Mayfield Estate, Gudalur taluk, to attest the execution of labour contracts.

Fort St. George, March 16, 1920.

No. 109.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 3, clause (a) of the Madras Agricultural Pests and Diseases Act, 1916, the Governor in Council hereby declares that bad rot caused by the fungus Pythium palmivorum is a plant disease in respect of palmyra and coconut palms. In order to eradicate and to prevent the spread of this plant disease, the Governor in Council directs, under section 3, clauses (b) and (c) of the aforesaid Act, that for a period of one year with effect from 1st April 1920, the following remedial measures shall be taken in respect of palmyra and coconut palms attacked by the said disease in the districts of Kistna and Godavari:—

(1) The crowns of dead palmyra and coconut palms should be cut off, immediately the central leaf becomes pale yellow.

(2) All spotted leaf bases and four more healthy looking ones should be cut off from every outwardly infested palm that has one or more leaves with a row of disease spots, immediately the spotted leaf becomes visible.

(3) All diseased crowns, leaf-bases, leaves and other diseased material so cut off should be burnt in the field at once so that the fungus may be roasted to death.

(4) All palmyra and coconut palms within a radius of 50 yards of a diseased tree should have 10 to 15 leaf-bases cut off. If any one of these leaf-bases is found to have the typical spots of the disease, the tree from which they were cut should be treated by cutting off and burning all the diseased tissue in the manner prescribed for trees whose leaf has the disease spots.

NOTIFICATION.

Fort St. George, March 18, 1920

No. 25.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 6, sub-section (1) of the Indian Ports Act, 1908 (XV of 1908), and in supersession of previous rules on the subject the Governor in Council is pleased to issue the following revised boat rules for all the Minor Ports in the Madras Presidency :—

The draft of the revised rules is published hereunder as required by section 6, sub-section (2) of the Act, for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby and notice is hereby given that they will be taken into consideration on or after the 25th April 1920.

2. Any objection or suggestion which may be received from any person with respect to the revised rules before the date fixed as aforesaid will be considered by the Governor in Council.

REVISED BOAT RULES FOR MINOR PORTS IN THE MADRAS PRESIDENCY.

Rules made by the Government of Madras under section 6, sub-section (1) of the Indian Ports Act, 1908 (XV of 1908), for licensing and regulating catamarans plying for hire, and flats and cargo, passenger and other boats plying, whether for hire or not, and whether regularly or only occasionally, in or partly within and partly without any port in the Madras Presidency other than the port of Madras, and for determining the quantity of cargo or number of passengers to be carried by any such vessels.

Note.—These rules do not apply to boats coming from any system of inland navigation into a port.

Boats plying within a port to be licensed.

1. No person, either as owner or servant, shall use any boat (other than catamarans not plying for hire) to carry goods or passengers, whether for hire or not to or from any ship or vessel at the port, or from place to place within the limits of the port as defined for the time being, unless such person shall hold a license in the form—Appendix A—granted by the registering officer—vide Appendix C—and unless the boat so used shall have been registered. For purposes of registration, the owner or owners of a boat shall cause the boat to be brought to such place as the registering officer may appoint for the purpose. Nothing in this rule shall apply to boats forming part of the equipment of a ship or steamer or boats maintained solely for purposes of pleasure, but the registering officer may, if he sees fit, withdraw this exemption from any such boat.

Minor or female owners.

2. Should the owner of a boat be a minor, the license may be obtained by the guardian of the minor. Should the owner of a boat be a female, who owing to the custom of the country cannot appear in public, the license may be obtained on her behalf by her duly constituted agent. In such cases, the guardian or the agent shall be deemed to be the owner for the purposes of these rules.

Licence to be produced when demanded.

3. Owners of licensed boats shall supply the tindal of each of their registered boats with the boat's license which shall be produced at any time when demanded by any duly authorized person. A printed copy of these rules, and any written directions issued by the registering officer for carrying the same into effect shall be supplied by the owner to the tindal, and shall be shown by such tindal to any consignor or passenger by such boat who shall demand to see them. Owners of registered boats shall be responsible that the tindals of their boats understand the boat rules and any written directions issued by the registering officer in connexion therewith, and shall obtain a declaration from them to that effect and shall produce such declaration to the registering officer when required.

Steam launches

4. Every boat being a steam launch having engine of under 50 nominal horse-power shall, when plying, whether for hire or not, have on board in charge of her engines a person possessing a certificate of competency as an engine-driver granted under the Indian Steam Ships Act, 1884, or under the Inland Steam Vessels Act, 1884. When application is made to the registering officer for a licence for a steam launch, of which the owner or master does not hold a certificate of survey under the Indian Steam Ships Act, 1884, or the Inland Steam Vessels Act, 1884, the application shall be accompanied by a fee of Rs. 32 for surveying the vessel.

5. Every boat having engines driven by oil or petrol shall, when in use, whether plying for hire or not, have on board in charge of her engines a person experienced in his work and able to prove to the registering officer's satisfaction, by starting, stopping, reversing and slowing the engines, that he is competent to be in charge; and a second person who has had some experience and understands how to handle a boat in a seamanlike manner. The owner or owners of such boats shall keep them clean and free from oil refuse.

Licensing of fishing boats.

6. Every boat used for the purpose of fishing, not being a catamaran, used exclusively for fishing, shall be registered, and the owner or owners of every such boat shall obtain a licence, and every such boat other than a catamaran shall carry on one of its sails and on each of its sides a number to be assigned to it by the registering officer at the time of registration, together with the name of the port at which it was registered, and no person shall use any such boat for the purpose of fishing until it has been registered, and a licence obtained for it, and in the case of a boat other than a catamaran, a number and port name have been placed upon it as described above. Provided that the owner of a boat which has been registered and licensed under the boat rules for the time being in force in any port in the Presidency of Madras shall not be required to register it and take out a licence in any other port.

6-A. Registering boats plying at the port of Tuticorin are prohibited from fishing coral stone in the restricted areas, particulars of which will be specified by the registering officer in all the boat licences issued by him.

Distinctive num bering of boats

7. Every owner of a registered boat, other than a catamaran used exclusively for fishing, shall paint or cause to be painted upon a black ground, in white English figures, not less than six inches in length, on a conspicuous part of the bow of such boat on one side, and of the quarter on the other, the number of such boat mentioned in the register and in his or her licence. No person shall paint or cause to be painted or counterfeited upon any boat not duly registered any such figures as aforesaid or other mark likely to induce the belief that such boat has been registered.

Change of ownership or control of a boat to be registered.

8. No boat which has (a) changed ownership, or (b) been mortgaged or been out of owner's control, shall ply without, in case (a), obtaining a fresh licence, or in case (b), having the licence endorsed by the registering officer within six days after the change of possession.

Change in crew or carrying capacity of boat to be reported

9. Whenever the tindal of any registered boat shall be changed, or any alteration in the boat shall be made so as to affect any of the particulars contained the licence granted for it, such change or alteration shall, within 48 hours after it has occurred, be reported by the owner or owners of such boat to the registering officer, who will amend such licence, except in cases in which such alteration affects the carrying capacity of such boat in which cases, the boat shall be remeasured and the original licence held by the owner or owners thereof shall be cancelled and a fresh licence be issued, and no such boat shall ply until such fresh licence shall have been issued. If a boat is absent from the port at the time when such change takes place, the change shall be reported to the registering officer within 48 hours of its return to the port.

Registration of boat's tindals.

10. In the month of January, or a date to be fixed by the registering officer, the owner of every registered boat shall produce before the registering officer the tindal of his boat with a view to his being registered in a book to be kept for the purpose (Appendix B).

Provided that if the boat is absent from the port on the date fixed, the owner shall produce the tindal within 24 hours after it has returned.

Annual and special inspection of boats and crews

11. All owners of registered boats shall submit their boats together with their licenses for inspection by the registering officer every year during the month of January at such place as the registering officer may appoint for the purpose. In addition to the January general inspection, special or partial inspections may be held by the registering officer, or by any person duly authorized by him at any times he may consider necessary. At these inspections each boat shall have its full complement of crew and equipment, and no person who, in the opinion of the registering officer, is unaccustomed to the use of boats or is inefficient shall be employed or registered either as a tindal or as a boatman.

Repairs of boat ordered on inspection

12. Owners of registered boats shall execute such repairs to their boats as the inspecting officer shall direct in order to render them efficient, and no owner or other person shall use any such boat until such repairs shall have been duly executed thereto and the registering officer shall have granted permission for their use. For the purpose of such repairs, boat owners shall cause their boats to be hauled up to such place or places on the fore-shore as the registering officer shall from time to time direct and to no other place. If any such boat be used before such repairs have been fully executed or the registering officer has granted permission for its use, the owner of such boat will be liable for the infringement of this rule.

Boat to ply with full complement of crew upon tindal responsible for marking of boat.

13. The owner or owners of a registered boat shall provide the boat with such full complement of crew and with such equipment as may have been determined upon by the registering officer and noted in the licence. The tindal of the boat shall have on board the full crew prescribed in the licence and shall not have more or less than the number so prescribed for fine and rough weather according as the boat plies in fine or rough weather and shall not carry passengers or goods in excess of the number or quantity entered in the licence for the boat and shall be held responsible for full delivery of the cargo entrusted to him.

Obstructing boat traffic.

14. No tindal or boatman serving in any registered boat shall, without reasonable excuse, obstruct or hinder the loading, discharge or service of such boat or of any other boat or obstruct or hinder the steamers working in the port or the boat traffic generally.

Refusal to ply without lawful excuse.

15. Should either the owner or the tindal in charge of a registered boat plying regularly for hire, without reasonable excuse, of which the registering officer shall, subject to the appeal provided in rule 26 be the sole judge, refuse to allow such boat to ply for hire when required to do so, the licence of such boat shall be liable to be withdrawn.

Working of boats at night and in bad weather.

16. A registered boat shall not ply within the limits of the port between the hours of 6 p.m. and 6 a.m., without the previous permission of the registering officer, and no registered boat shall ply when flag S by day or one red light by night, indicating bad weather or high sea is displayed from the port flagstaff. When either of these signals is hoisted at the port flagstaff, all boats shall return to the shore at once and shall not ply again, without the special permission of the registering officer, until the signal is hauled down.

Permissible load of boats in fine and in bad weather.

17. No person shall overload or cause to be overloaded any registered boat with passengers or cargo beyond the number or quantity specified in its licence by the registering officer and no such boat other than a steam boat shall be allowed to carry both passengers and cargo at the same time to or from any ship or vessel at the port.

Power of owner or tindal to prevent overloading.

18. Whenever the number of passengers or the quantity of cargo on a boat exceeds the number or quantity entered in the licence, the tindal or the owner shall, before starting from the vessel or from the shore, require any passenger to leave the boat or any consignee, consignee or shipping or landing agent concerned to remove from the boat the whole or any part of the cargo.

Attention to certain signals required of tindals.

19. Owners of registered boats shall instruct the tindals of such boats to pay immediate attention to the following signals of the Commercial Code when displayed from the port flagstaff, viz:—

Flag S.—All boats to return at once to the harbour or landing place,
Flag K.—Surf is impassable,
Flag M—Communication with the shore dangerous,
Flag N—Boats can leave the harbour,
Flag F.—Boats can come the harbour, and also, when it is hoisted at the port flagstaff, to the boat muster flag—a square blue flag with four parallel red bars running across-wise—which will be displayed on the Port Offices desiring to carry out rule 11.

Boats interfering with moorings or with vessels before they anchor, prohibited.

20. No tindal or other person in charge of or navigating any registered boat shall attempt to make such boat fast to any mooring buoy, or shall take it alongside of a vessel approaching an anchorage before such vessel has come to anchor or moored to a buoy.

Fishing boats or catamarans not to go near a cargo boat or alongside a ship or steamer.

21. (1) No tindal or other person in charge of or navigating a registered cargo boat shall allow a fishing boat or a catamaran to be within ten yards of her when such cargo boat is plying between the ship and shore.

(2) No person in charge of or navigating a fishing boat or a catamaran shall allow such boat to go alongside a steamer or ship while discharge or shipping of cargo is proceeding.

(3) Any tindal who is found, by the registering officer, to have contravened the provisions of clause (1) or (2) of this rule may be prohibited from further employment in any capacity in any licensed boat and any owner employing such tindal in contravention of such prohibition shall be liable to withdrawal of all licences issued to him.

(4) The licence of any boat which is found, by the registering officer, to have contravened the provisions of clause (1) or (2) of this rule shall be liable to be withdrawn.

Compounding for fines.

22. Offences under clauses (1) and (2) of rule 21 may, at the discretion of the registering officer, be compounded. Such fines shall be credited to the Minor Ports Fund.

Landing and shipping of passengers and goods to be within port limits.

23. All passengers and goods shall be landed or shipped within the limits of a port as determined by Government and in such places as the registering officer may appoint and no person shall ship or land passengers or goods beyond such limits unless the sanction of the Port and Customs Officers at the port shall have been previously obtained.

Rates of boat-hire.

24. No owner of a registered boat licensed to ply for hire, or person deputed by any owner of such registered boat to carry any cargo or passengers for hire, shall demand a rate beyond that sanctioned by Government for the carriage of any such cargo or passengers. No owner or tindal or any other member of the crew of such boat shall demand or accept any gratuity or present from the passengers therein during the course of her trip between ship and shore or from place to place within and without port limits.

Withdrawal of licence.

25. The registering officer may cancel the licence or licences held in respect of any or all of his boats by a boat-owner who has been convicted of a breach of any of the foregoing rules, and the registering officer may also require a boat-owner, on pain of cancellation of his licence, to dismiss from the charge of a boat a tindal who, or any member of whose crew, has been convicted of a similar breach.

Appeal from registering officer's decision.

26. An appeal shall lie from the decision of the registering officer upon any matter in connexion with these rules to the Collector of the district, provided that such appeal be preferred in writing within seven days after the decision of the registering officer shall have been communicated in writing to the party or parties concerned, and the decision of the Collector shall be final.

No. 61.—IN THE MATTER OF THE CHARITABLE ENDOWMENTS ACT, 1890, AND IN THE MATTER OF THE "SUBRAHMANYAM SCHOLARSHIP ENDOWMENT FUND" AT KUMBAKONAM.

It is hereby notified that the Governor of Fort St. George in Council in exercise of the powers conferred by section 5 of the Charitable Endowments Act, 1890, has settled the scheme set forth in the schedule hereto for the administration of the securities and money vested in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments by Notification No. 80, dated the fifteenth day of March 1920, and that such scheme shall come into operation on the 1st day of April 1920.

The schedule above referred to

1. The Director of Public Instruction, Madras, for the time being and the Principal for the time being of the Kumbakonam College shall be the administrators of the said fund.

2. From and out of the interest accruing on the said Endowment Fund shall be provided annually two new scholarships which shall be called the Subrahmanyam Scholarships.

3. Of the said scholarships one shall be awarded to a student who seeks admission to the Junior Intermediate class in the Kumbakonam College and the other shall be awarded to a student who after passing the Intermediate examination seeks admission to the Junior B.A. class in the said Kumbakonam College.

4. The said scholarship shall be awarded to poor and deserving students on the results of an open competitive examination to be conducted by the said Principal and the College Lecturers in the subjects chosen by the said students for the University examination.

5. The said scholarships once awarded will be continued to the Senior Intermediate and the Senior B.A. classes if the holders thereof in the junior classes are in the opinion of the said Principal considered deserving in every way.

6. The said scholarships shall not be held along with any other scholarships.

7. The scholarships for each half-year shall be Rs. 33-3-4 for each of the students of the two Intermediate classes and Rs. 36-10-10 for each of the students of the two B.A. classes.

8. The holders of the scholarships shall sign a declaration in the following form before the scholarship is first drawn, viz.: "I hereby acknowledge that I fully understand that the Subrahmanyam scholarship held by me was founded with the express object of assisting students who on account of their poverty would be unable to prosecute their studies for their University course and I promise that in keeping the benevolent intention of the founder in view I shall do all that lies in me to help in the establishment and management of similar charities."

9. Any unspent balance of the said interest remaining in any year may be given to other students as funds permit in a year or be added to the corpus according to the advice of the said Principal.

10. The scholarships are liable to be increased or decreased if funds increase or decrease according to the discretion of the said Principal.

No. 62.—IN THE MATTER OF THE CHARITABLE ENDOWMENTS ACT, 1890, AND IN THE MATTER OF THE "CHENNALAVAGUSLAPALLE CHENNA REDDI SCHOLARSHIP ENDOWMENT" FUND AT ANANTAPUR.

3. The said scholarship will be awarded to a student studying in the junior Intermediate class of the said college and who is considered by the said Principal to be the most deserving from among the applicants for the scholarship.

4. The scholarship shall be awarded by the said Principal and applications for the scholarship shall be submitted to him.

5. The scholarship shall be tenable for the full term of two years required for the completion of the course of studies in connexion with which the scholarship is awarded provided that the conduct of the holder and his progress in his studies continue to give satisfaction to the said Principal.

6. The said Principal may withdraw the scholarship at any time if the scholar in the opinion of the said Principal fails to make due progress in his studies or is irregular in the attendance or fails to secure a promotion to the senior class or is guilty of misconduct.

7. The scholarship shall not be held along with any other scholarship

8. If the scholarship becomes vacant before the expiry of the term mentioned in rule 5 above, it can be awarded in accordance with these rules.

9. If in any year the scholarship be not awarded, it may be awarded the next year instead of biennially.

10. All interest on the said endowment that may not be required in any series of more than two years for the said scholarship shall be accumulated and such accumulations shall from time to time be invested in the securities of the Government of India and be added to the principal of the endowment.

11. The amount of the scholarship to be awarded is liable to be increased or decreased in accordance with the increase or decrease of the interest receivable from the abovementioned fund.

The college affords theoretical and practical instruction in subjects appertaining to the veterinary profession with the object of training men for service under Government, municipalities, local board or private employers. The staff of the college consists of a Principal, an Assistant Principal, three lecturers, two assistant lecturers and a subordinate establishment. The responsibility for the discipline and management of the college is vested in the Principal who is under the control of Government in the Revenue (Special) Department. Full clinical and other facilities are afforded to meet the education requirements of students preparing for the diploma in Veterinary Science. A veterinary hospital, museum, library, shoeing forge and students' hostel are attached to the college.

2. Candidates are eligible for admission without distinction of caste or nationality. They must not be under 18 years of age at the commencement of the term for which admission to the college is desired. In ordinary circumstances, no person over 22 years of age will be admitted as a free student. Students are admitted to the college by selection which will be made by the Principal. Applications for admission should be made in writing in the prescribed form printed at the end, and they should be submitted so as to reach the Principal not later than the 24th June of each year and should be accompanied by the following certificates :—

(b) of physical fitness and moral character,

(c) that the applicant has passed the Matriculation Examination of an Indian University under the old regulations or that he has obtained 45 per cent of marks in English and 35 per cent in other subjects in the School Final Examination, except in the case of Europeans and Eurasians who may be admitted, though unpassed, at the discretion of the Principal. In the case of Muhammadan students, 30 per cent of marks in English and 25 per cent in Mathematics and a Vernacular in the School Final Examination will be accepted as sufficient for admission,

3. In the event of a candidate being selected, he will be served with a special notice informing him of the particular day and hour when and the place at which he should present himself for personal selection. Candidates when admitted will be considered to be on probation for the first two months of the course and may be removed if found to be not satisfactory.

4. Course and study and curriculum of instruction.—The course of study for the diploma ordinarily extends over three years. The students of each year's course form a separate class. The number of students in each class is ordinarily limited to 30. Government have temporarily raised this number to 40 for five years commencing from 1918. Promotion from one class to another is made with reference to the results of the annual examinations. A student of the second or third year class who fails in the annual examination for two consecutive years and a student of the first year class who fails in the annual examination at the end of the first year shall be dismissed.

The curriculum of instruction is as follows:—

(i) First year—

(1) Anatomy (up to Arthrology); (2) Elementary Chemistry; (3) Elementary Botany; (4) Materia Medica; (5) Handling of animals; (6) Pharmacy (Theoretical and Practical).

During this year students are given practical instruction in nursing, dressing, handling, casting and shoeing animals as well as in the names of the instruments and appliances used in ordinary practice.

(ii) Second year—

(1) Anatomy (the whole, including Comparative Anatomy), (2) Physiology; (3) Hygiene (including Breeding and Rearing); (4) Principles of Horse-shoeing; (5) Theoretical Veterinary Medicine and Surgery; (6) General nursing and instructions in the use of instruments and appliances.

During this year students are required to attend hospital practice and receive clinical instruction. They are also required to attend at the Forge and Pharmacy, to carry out dissections and to perform operations on the dead subject.

(iii) Third year—

(1) Veterinary Medicine; (2) Veterinary Surgery; (3) Diseases of dogs; (4) Operative Surgery; (5) Therapeutics (including Toxicology); (6) Meat and milk inspections; (7) Soundness of horses and ageing of domesticated animals.

During this year students are required to perform the duties of clinical clerks and dressers, to perform operations on dead subjects, and afterwards on living animals, to conduct post mortem examinations and generally to carry out practically all the duties appertaining to their profession. Students who hold the diploma in Agriculture are not required to attend the first year's course of study, but are examined in the subjects of both the first and second year courses at the end of their first year of attendance at the Veterinary College.

Students who have passed in Chemistry or Botany in the Intermediate or B A. Examination need not attend the course in Elementary Chemistry or Botany, as the case may be at the Veterinary College.

All students are required to undergo a course of equitation and gymnastics. A student absenting himself without leave from a lecture or from a practical gymnastic or riding class is liable to be fined.

5. The tuition shall be free to all students who execute an agreement binding themselves to serve Government for five years, if required, after completing their course in the college satisfactorily. All others will be required to pay tuition fees in advance of each term at the rate of Rs. 400 per annum. A fee of Rs. 5 per term is also payable by each student, whether free or paying, to meet the cost of sports.

6. Government ordinarily allot thirty scholarships in each class annually, two of the monthly value of Rs. 20 each, which will be reserved for graduates of a University preferably those who have taken a Science course, and the remaining twenty-eight of the monthly value of Rs. 15 each, but they reserve the right to decrease the number or alter their value, if necessary. The number of scholarships on Rs. 15 per mensem has been temporarily raised from 28 to 38. Five out of the 40 scholarships will be reserved for Muhammadan students. Scholarships in the first year will be awarded by the Principal on the results of the first three monthly examinations. Scholarships tenable in the second and third years are ordinarily allotted on the results of the monthly and annual examinations. A student already in the enjoyment of a scholarship from a local body or a private person is not eligible for a Government scholarship. All scholarships are conditional on the good behaviour of the holders. Students who are in the enjoyment of the Government scholarships are required to refund the amount which they have received as stipends and also to pay tuition fees at the rate of Rs. 480 per annum, if they leave the college without sanction or are expelled for misconduct.

7. Terms and time-table.—Each year comprises two sessions—an autumn one from July to December and a spring session from January to March. Tables of the times and subjects of lectures to which both teachers and students should adhere will be posted on the notice board at the commencement of each term.

8. Vacations and holidays.—(i) In addition to the miscellaneous public holidays, the students are allowed the following vacations and holidays:—

Midsummer vacation (three months).
Michaelmas holiday (one week).
Christmas and Easter holidays (gazetted).

Students are required to attend hospital cases in turn during vacations.

(ii) Leave of absence is granted by the Principal only. Scholarship-holders may, at the discretion of the Principal, be granted casual leave, with allowances, for not more than five days at a time or ten days in the year, but no casual leave will be granted in continuation of other holidays with allowances. Any further leave to scholarship-holders except sick leave for a month will be subject to stoppage of scholarship. Leave of absence in each case of illness will be recognised only on the production of a certificate from a duly qualified medical practitioner.

9. Examinations.—Examinations are conducted orally and are held annually in March in all the classes. For admission to the examination candidates must have studied at the college for such times as may be prescribed and have attended at least three-fourths of the year's lectures and have done practical work in their respective classes.

10. Diploma and certificate.—A diploma as graduate in Veterinary Science is awarded to students who have gone through the full course of three years' study at the college and have passed the final examination.

Such of the students as are elected clinical clerks and pressmen and perform their duties satisfactorily are, in addition, awarded special certificates on passing the final examination.

11. Mandiveness.—The hostel attached to the college provides accommodation for 41 students. Students are at liberty to make their own arrangements as to their board and lodging. A monthly rent of Rs. 2 for a single room in the new extensions and Rs. 1 for a single room and As. 12 for a double room (i.e., a room accommodating two students) in the old block will be charged to each student who elects to take up his lodging in the college hostel.

12. Prospects of the students who pass out of the college.—Graduates of the college are eligible for appointment to the following posts in the provincial and subordinate service of the Civil Veterinary Department in the Madras Presidency:—

	Rs.
Deputy Superintendents or Assistant Principal of the College on ..	700—25—1000
Senior Lecturer of the College on	1200—30—1200
Veterinary Inspectors (first grade) on	800—50—1000
Do. (second grade) on	600—25—800
Veterinary Assistants (first grade) on	80—2—100
Do. (second grade) on	65—5—90
Do. (third grade) on	45—4—65

Note.—The intermediate figure in each case represents the amount of annual increment.

Inspectors and Assistants employed in the college as lecturers or assistant lecturers will get a compensatory local allowance of Rs. 20 per mensem.

Veterinary Assistants when holding independent charge of hospitals and dispensaries whether maintained by Government or by Local Boards and Municipalities will be provided with free quarters or granted in lieu thereof a house-rent allowance not less than Rs. 5 per mensem. Veterinary Assistants in charge of the hospitals and dispensaries at hill stations and in the Agency tracts are granted a local allowance of Rs. 15 and Rs. 10 according to whether they belong to the first two grades or to the third grade. The Touring Assistants posted for duty at the hill stations or in the Agency tracts are granted a local allowance of Rs. 10 irrespective of their grade.

All the above posts are pensionable. Veterinary graduates have, in addition, fair prospects of employment as Municipal Cattle Inspectors and as Assistants in charge of veterinary dispensaries, established by local bodies, private proprietors and Native States. It will be the duty of the Principal to render all reasonable assistance to passed students in securing suitable employment.

Form of application for admission into the Madras Veterinary College.

N.B.—The application should be accompanied by the certificate (1) of age, (2) of physical fitness from a qualified medical practitioner and moral character from the head of school, college or office and (3) that the applicant has passed the Matriculation Examination of an Indian University under the old regulations or that he has obtained 40 per cent of marks in English and 33 per cent in other subjects in the School Final Examination, except in the case of Europeans and Eurasians who may be admitted, though unpassed, at the discretion of the Principal.

In the case of Muhammadan students 30 per cent of marks in English and 25 per cent in Mathematics and a Vernacular in the School Final Examination will be accepted as sufficient for admission.

Vepery, Madras, 4th March 1920. F. WARE, M.R.C.V.S., I.C.V.D., Acting Principal, Madras Veterinary College.

GOVERNMENT TRAINING SCHOOLS, SEVENTH CIRCLE, 1920.

The Inspector of Schools, Seventh Circle, hereby notifies for the information of the Assistant Inspectors, Sub-Assistant Inspectors and Managers of aided schools in the Seventh Circle that candidates of the elementary grade will be admitted for training in July 1920 in the following Government training schools under his charge :—

Number	Name of institution	Number of stipends available.		Total.
		Higher elementary.	Lower elementary
1	Government Training School, Villupuram	40	40	80
2	Do. Cuddalore	40	40	80
3	Do. Chittoor ..	40	40	80
4	Do. Ranipet ..	40	70	70

N.B.—As regards the admission into the Government Training School for Muhammadans, Arcot, the orders of the Director of Public Instruction are awaited.

2. The period of training is two years in the case of students of both the elementary higher and lower grades.

3. Ordinarily the candidate will be sent only to the Government training school of the district to which his school is attached. Applications should be submitted accordingly.

4. The Inspector will make the selection on the recommendations of the subordinate inspecting officers. Each Sub-Assistant Inspector should furnish the teachers whose names are recorded in the register maintained in his office as per article 139 of the Inspection Code with forms of application for admission printed, cyclostyled, or manuscript, and on receipt thereof from the candidates he shall select the applications according to the instructions given infra. Candidates should be informed that they run the risk of losing their appointments or having their grants curtailed if, after selection, they fail to join the training school on the 1st July 1920.

5. Two separate lists—one for the higher elementary candidates and the other for the lower elementary students—and that for each training school must be consolidated in the office of the Sub-Assistant Inspector and submitted with a tabular statement containing the following particulars about each candidate :—

(1) Serial number; (2) Name in full; (3) Age on 1st July 1920; (4) Caste or race; (5) Present appointment; (6) Length of service as teacher; (7) Educational qualification; (8) Language, (9) Guarantee of the Sub-Assistant Inspector for providing the applicant with an appointment after training; (10) Whether a stipend is desired; (11) Remarks.

N.B.—Under column (7) must be given (a) public examinations passed with year and number of certificate or (b) transfer certificates held or (c) school leaving certificates held or (d) nature of sessional school certificate held with number and date or (e) in the absence of any of the foregoing a certificate from the Sub-Assistant Inspector of the range to the effect that the candidate's educational qualifications entitle him to admission. Higher elementary students should possess a lower secondary examination certificate or a transfer certificate of having secured promotion from the third form or a certificate from some respectable person to the effect that they have read in the fourth form at least or an elementary school-leaving certificate of having been promoted from the eighth standard.

6. The tabular statement should contain the names of the candidates in the order in which the Sub-Assistant Inspector desires that the selection should be made, and they should be selected with reference to their service as teachers, the need for their training, age, the school from which they apply, their qualifications and the nature of the appointment held by them. The attention of the inspecting officers is directed to Madras Educational Rules, rules 114 and 115. It is expected that each Sub-Assistant Inspector's list will contain at least ten names for each grade. It should ordinarily include only the names of persons actually engaged in teaching.

7. Teachers employed in the Muhammadan schools should submit their applications for training to the Sub-Assistant Inspector of the Muhammadan range and not to the Sub-Assistant Inspector of Boys' schools.

8. Teachers employed in local board schools will not be paid any stipends from Provincial funds. If there is any provision in the Local Fund or the Municipal budget under 'Stipends to teachers,' applications may be obtained from such teachers with the consent of the President, Taluk Board, or the Chairman of the Municipal Council, as the case may be, and submitted with a separate list for each training school and for each grade.

9. If any applications be received from candidates for training in the schools out of this circle, they should be submitted separately with a separate list.

10. No certificates, original or copy, need be submitted with the applications, but each Sub-Assistant Inspector should satisfy himself as to the correctness of the information given in the application form.

11. Supplemental lists will not be considered after the prescribed date on any account.

12. The lists complete in every respect and the applications must be submitted direct by the Sub-Assistant Inspector to this office on or before the 15th May 1920 without fail.

5. The names of candidates in the selected list should appear in order of precedence.

6. The Assistant Inspectors will submit for each training school along with the selected list a tentative list of candidates of not more than six to be selected in the order of precedence in the place of those who fail to join.

7. Article 114 of Madras Educational Rules—age limit—should be strictly enforced in the selection of candidates.

8. Reasons for rejection should be fully given against each candidate in the rejected list.

9. In addition to provincial stipendiaries, candidates whose stipends are paid by local boards will be admitted to training.

The Assistant Inspectors will submit lists of such candidates—board and municipal—separately with the following additional information :—

(1) Allotment made in the budget 1923-21.
(2) Amount that should go of this allotment to be paid to teachers already under training.
(3) Amount available for payment to teachers selected during 1920-21.

10. Teachers holding permanent or sub. pro tem. appointments in board or municipal schools should not be recommended except in very special circumstances for provincial stipends. They should be paid from board's resources.

11. The inspecting officers should recommend as far as possible only such men as have been teachers before.

12. The inspecting officers should select only those candidates who have passed the annual examination of the third form or the seventh standard and have been found fit for promotion to the next higher class for elementary higher grade and those who have passed the late primary school examination for elementary lower Preference will be given to those whose educational attainments are above these minima and in the Training School, Vizagapatam, those who are prepared to join the hostel attached to the school.

13. The general education certificates of candidates should be submitted in original with the application.

14. In the case of applications signed by inspecting officers and Presidents of local boards separate conduct certificates need not be submitted.

15. The applications of candidates referred to in clause 9 should invariably be signed by the Presidents of local boards.

16. The consolidated list from the Assistant Inspectors of Schools should reach this office before the 10th May 1920 at the latest.

SECONDARY TRAINING CLASSES ATTACHED TO RAJA'S COLLEGE, PARLAKIMEDI, AND GOVERNMENT TRAINING SCHOOL, BERHAMPUR.

Applications are invited from candidates who seek admission into the secondary training sections attached to the Raja's College, Parlakimedi and Government Training School, Berhampur.

2. The Matriculation or the Upper Secondary Examination is the minimum qualification required for admission into these secondary training sections. Persons holding such Secondary School-Leaving Certificates as qualify for admissions to College will also be admitted. Holders of the certificates should attach copies of their school and public examinations record to their applications.

3. The period of training will be two years except in the case of those who have passed the Intermediate Examination or the late F A. Examination of the Madras University or have taken the course of any of these examinations in a college.

4. Rate of Stipend —The ordinary rate of Provincial stipend is Rs. 12 per mensem and the number of provincial stipends available in each of the training sections is twenty and ten respectively.

5. Candidates receiving stipends from local, municipal or private funds will also be admitted in addition to the provincial stipendiaries.

6. Forms of applications for admission can be had from the undersigned. They should invariably be countersigned by the manager of a recognised institution in which the candidate has served or is to be employed after the completion of the training course.

7. The applicant should send with his application copies of his conduct certificates and produce the original of his general education certificate, when selected. Every student will be on probation for five working days.

8. Applications should reach this office not later than the 30th April 1920 and must be on printed forms. Those received after this date will not be considered.

9. Only Oriya candidates will be admitted into the Berhampur Training School.

H. A. HART,
Inspector of Schools, First Circle.

Vizagapatam, 8th March 1920.

GOVERNMENT TRAINING SCHOOLS, ELEVENTH CIRCLE.

The Inspector of Schools, Eleventh Circle, hereby notifies that candidates of the Secondary and Elementary grades will be admitted for training in July 1920 in the following Training Schools :—

	Number of stipends available.
	Secondary.	Elementary.		Total.

3. Rates of Stipends.—The ordinary rate of provincial stipend is Rs. 12 per mensem in the case of the Secondary, Rs. 10-8-0 in the case of the Elementary Higher, and Rs. 8-8-0 in the case of the Elementary Lower Grade students.

4. The Matriculation or the Upper Secondary Examination is the minimum general education qualification required for admission into the Secondary Department. Persons holding such Secondary School leaving Certificates as are accepted by the Inspector of Schools, Eleventh Circle, will also be admitted. Besides, teachers who possess Special S.S.L.C. Examination certificates are also qualified for admission into the Secondary Grade.

For admission into the Elementary Higher Grade class, candidates should have passed the late Middle School or Lower Secondary Examination or should furnish transfer certificates or other satisfactory evidence of having completed successfully the Third Form course. Only those who have passed the Primary Examination or its equivalent need apply for admission into the Elementary Lower Grade.

The applications of candidates who have not forwarded general education certificates in original will not be considered. The certificate of physical fitness will be required only of candidates who have been chosen as stipendiaries.

5. Applications should invariably be countersigned by the Manager of a recognised institution.

6. Teachers employed in Secondary Schools should submit their applications through their managers and those in Elementary Schools through the Sub-Assistant Inspectors of the ranges in which they are employed.

7. Each Sub-Assistant Inspector of Schools, in the Eleventh Circle, will select only six teachers of each grade in his range and the names of selected candidates should appear in the order in which he wishes they should be taken, i.e., they should be selected in reference to their general educational attainments their service as teachers, the need for their training, the nature of their appointment, and the school from which they apply for training. In the case of rejected candidates, the reasons for rejection should be mentioned against each.

8. Attention is invited to rule 114 (3) of the Madras Educational Rules as regards the condition of the age limit to be satisfied.

9. Printed forms of application can be obtained by the applicants for training in the Secondary Grade from the Inspector of Schools provided they apply through the correspondent of a recognized Secondary School. All others should apply to the Sub-Assistant Inspectors of their ranges. Applicants for admission int the Secondary Training classes should state the other training school or schools to which also they have applied for admission.

10. Applications should reach the Inspector before the 1st May 1920. Applications which are received after the above date or which are not prepared in accordance with the above instructions will not be considered. Applications from teachers employed in schools outside the Eleventh Circle must come through the Circle Inspectors.

11. In addition to Provincial Stipendiaries, candidates whose stipends are paid by local or municipal boards will be admitted for training. There may also be vacancies for free students without stipends. No provincial stipends will be sanctioned for teachers who hold permanent appointments in Board and Municipal schools or who hold sch. per fas. appointments in permanent vacancies or who have been given provisional appointments by Presidents of Local Boards who employ them. The applications of such candidates should be signed by the Presidents of Local Boards and not by Inspecting Officers.

A. T. FORBES,
District and Sessions Judge.

Vizagapatam, 12th March 1920.

Notice is hereby given that the Court of the Official Receiver, Guntur district, will be closed for summer vacation from 19th April to 18th June 1920, both days inclusive

P. V. SRINIVASA RAO, Official Receiver.

Guntur, 11th March 1920.

Except as hereinafter mentioned, the High Court and the Office of the Registrar will be closed from Monday the 3rd May to Sunday the 11th July 1920, both days included.

The Hon'ble Mr. Justice Spencer will act as Vacation Judge.

An Appellate Court of two Judges will sit on Monday the 7th June 1920 and the following days for the disposal of referred trials and other urgent criminal work.

The Vacation Judge will dispose of urgent applications which require to be heard immediately whether in proceedings on the Appellate or Original Side of the High Court at 11 a.m. on each Tuesday during the vacation commencing on the 4th May 1920.

Notice of such applications shall be given to the Registrar of the High Court before 2 p.m. on the previous day.

URGENT MATTERS WHEN JUDGE NOT PRESENT IN COURT.

In any case of great urgency application may be made by delivering to the Registrar a request to transmit the necessary papers to the Vacation Judge; and the Registrar shall, if he considers the case one of sufficient urgency, transmit the application accordingly, and it will be heard on 24 hours' notice, if possible.

REGISTRAR'S OFFICE.

Except petitions and applications in non-contentious, testamentary and intestate matters and appeals received under section 420 of the Code of Criminal Procedure from appellants who are in jail, no application other than an urgent application as above mentioned will be received or filed during the vacation. No plaint, or other appeal, or other proceeding will be received, unless it is accompanied by an urgent application containing a prayer that the Vacation Judge will order it to be received.

The office of the Registrar will be open on Monday in each week, commencing on the 3rd May 1920, from noon to 2 p.m. for the receipt of urgent applications and for the disposal of applications for the issue of process or for copies of documents presented on or before the 1st May 1920. The office will also be open on Tuesday while the Court is sitting.

High Court, Madras,
15th March 1920.

R. H. COURTENAY,
Registrar.

Except as hereunder mentioned, the Madras Court of Small Causes will be closed for the Midsummer Vacation from Monday the 3rd May to Saturday the 3rd July 1920, both days inclusive.

2. His Honour the Third Judge (Dr. Krishnan Pandalai) will sit as Vacation Judge on Wednesdays and Thursdays for the disposal of emergent work.

3. In any case which requires immediate attention, the party concerned or his Vakil may give 24 hours' notice of the same to the Registrar, when the papers will be sent to the Vacation Judge for disposal, after hearing the party, if necessary.

4. The office of the Registrar will be open from Wednesday to Friday in each week from 12 noon to 4 p.m., for the receipt of moneys and of urgent applications referred to in paragraph 3 supra.

5. Plaints, execution applications and other papers will be received only on the days on which the Judges sits.

Court of Small Causes,

Regulations for Chinese Vessels Regarding the Destruction of Mines.

Notice is hereby given that the Ministry of the Navy has promulgated the following Regulations for the encouragement of mine destruction by Chinese vessels.

Regulations for the Encouragement of Mine Destruction.

I.—Every Chinese vessel which on observing a mine at sea shall destroy the same shall be entitled to an award of not less than $ 50 and not exceeding $ 100.

II.—Every vessel entitled to an award under Article I shall draw up a formal application supported by appropriate evidence, to be handed in to the office of the nearest Naval Authority for submission to the Ministry of Navy. The application should state the following particulars :—

(a) Date and time of day occurrence.
(b) Place.
(c) Depth of water.
(d) Method of destruction (rifle or gun fire).
(e) Distance of ship from mine at time of destruction.
(f) Type of mine.
(g) Whether or not the mine carried flag or other marks. Either of the following will be considered 'appropriate evidence' referred to above :—
(i) Photographs taken before or at the time of destruction of the mine.
(ii) The written testimony of not less than two persons present at the time of the destruction of the mine.

III.—Vessels which observe mines but are unable to destroy them shall not proceed without authority to salve such mines, but shall mark their position and report it to the Naval Authorities.

IV.—On report being made under Article III to the nearest Naval Authority, such authority shall, when satisfied of the correctness of the report, issue an award of not less than $ 20 and not more than $ 50.

V.—When a stranded mine which is seen for the first time is immediately reported, the person making the report shall receive an award of $ 10.

VI.—Mines observed by vessels shall not be sunk in any fairway in water less than 7 fathoms deep. This restriction shall not, however, apply to mines drifting directly towards a vessel at anchor.

VII.—No vessel is to approach within 300 yards of a mine in the act of destroying it.

VIII.—No vessel shall be entitled to claim compensation for damage sustained through destruction of a mine.

IX.—These Regulations shall not apply to ships of war.

X.—These Regulations shall apply from the date of their promulgation. The date of their cancellation shall, when the occasion arises, be published by the Ministry of Navy.

OFFICIAL ADVERTISEMENTS.

TENDERS FOR SUPPLY OF PALMYRA LEAVES.

SEALED tenders will be received by the Assistant Commissioner, Chingleput subdivision, at the office of the Inspector, Madras Depot circle, up to 3 p.m. on 24th March 1920, for the supply of palmyra leaves for covering salt heaps at the Madras Depot during the 1920 season. The number of palmyra leaves required will be about six lakhs of large or average sized leaves.

2. Covers containing tenders should be superscribed "Tenders for the supply of palmyra leaves" and should be accompanied by a treasury receipt for payment of a deposit of Rs. 40 in the Salt treasury at the Madras Depot.

3. The tenderers must state the rate per 1,000 at which they are prepared to supply the palmyra leaves delivered at the Madras Salt Depot.

4. Tenderers must undertake to supply half the number of leaves required before 1st June 1920 and the other half before 1st August 1920.

5. The successful tenderer will be required to make at once a further deposit in cash or in currency notes of Rs. 200 for the due fulfilment of the contract and to execute an agreement (the main conditions of which are set forth in the annexure below) within a week of his being informed of the acceptance of his tender. Should he fail to do so his deposit will be forfeited to Government and the acceptance of the tender cancelled. The stamp duty on the agreement must be paid by the tenderer.

6. The right of rejecting or accepting any tender without assigning any reason for so doing is reserved to the department.

7. The deposits of the unsuccessful tenderers will be returned as soon as possible after the opening of the tenders while the deposit of the successful tenderer will be returned on the due fulfilment of the contract.

ANNEXURE.

1. Description of the contract.—The contractor shall deliver the leaves described in the annexed schedule to the officer in charge of the Madras Depot, within the time and at the place mentioned in the schedule.

2. Articles to be supplied.—The articles supplied by the contractor shall be of large or average sized palmyrah leaves.

3. Acceptance or rejection of articles.—The leaves shall be subject to inspection and acceptance or rejection by the officer in charge of Madras Depot rents. Any such leaves which in his opinion shall be smaller than the average sized leaves, shall be rejected by him. His opinion and rejection shall be final and binding on the contractor and shall not be open or subject to question or dispute by the contractor upon any ground whatsoever.

4. Acceptance of rejected articles at a reduced price.—All or any of the leaves so rejected may be accepted by the Commissioner at his discretion at a price lower than the contract price if the contractor wishes to sell them at such lower rate.

5. Removal of articles rejected and not taken over at a reduced price.—All leaves rejected and not taken by the Commissioner as above provided shall be removed by the contractor within 24 hours after such rejection shall have been notified to him by the officer in charge of the Madras Depot. Any leaves not so removed may be sold, removed or dealt with by the Commissioner as he thinks fit.

6. Supply of articles in lieu of those rejected.—In lieu of the leaves rejected and not taken over by the Commissioner at a reduced price the contractor shall, within such time as may be fixed by the officer in charge of the Madras Depot after such rejection shall have been notified to him, supply and deliver to the above officer an equal number of the said leaves. Those shall be of the same large or average sized ones Leaves supplied in lieu of those rejected shall in like manner be subject to such rejection and removal or acceptance at a reduced price as aforesaid.

7. Expulsion of contractor's coolies.—The officer in charge of the Madras Depot may, without cause assigned, summarily expel from the depot any coolie or coolies employed under the contract by the contractor and found drunk or otherwise misbehaving within the depot premises.

8. The contractor to carry out the directions of officers.—The contractor shall at all times during the continuance of the contract obey and carry out the directions issued from time to time by the officer in charge of the Madras Depot in regard to the execution of this contract.

9. Pecuniary dealings with any officer of the department forbidden.—The contractor shall not have pecuniary dealings of any kind whatever with any officer of the department.

10. Contract not to be assigned.—The contractor shall not assign the contract directly or indirectly to any person or persons nor permit any person or persons to interfere in the performance thereof without the permission of the Commissioner.

11. Manner of payment.—The contractor shall present to the Assistant Commissioner, Chingleput subdivision, every fortnight bills for the articles accepted by the officer in charge of Madras Depot or accepted by the Commissioner as provided above, at the rates specified in the schedule or at the price settled by the Commissioner as the case may be. Payments for each bill shall be made to him within seven days of the receipt of the same.

12. Return of deposit.—Upon the complete fulfilment of this contract by the contractor to the satisfaction of the Commissioner the latter shall return the deposit to the contractor.

13. Penalty for breach of conditions of the contract—Alternatives to cancellation.—In case of failure, neglect or refusal on the part of the contractor to fulfil all or any one or more or any part of any one or more of the covenants, stipulations and provisions herein contained, or if at any time during the period hereof the Commissioner is of opinion that the contractor will not supply the leaves required within the time hereby provided, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner, if he shall think it fit, to do so, to cancel the contract by notice in writing to the contractor and to enter into such other arrangement or contract as he may think fit. The contractor shall be answerable to the Commissioner for any loss or damage so caused but shall not be entitled to share on any savings below the rates payable to him under the contract which the Commissioner may be able to effect. The Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner may instead of cancelling the contract as aforesaid arrange for the purchase elsewhere of any quantity of the leaves referred to in the annexed schedule and recover the cost of such purchase from the contractor, or the Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner may, if he thinks fit, fine the contractor in any sum not exceeding Rs. 50 on any one occasion. Such fine shall be paid within seven days of its imposition.

14. Recovery of sums due from the contractor.—It shall be lawful to the Assistant Commissioner to deduct and retain all sums payable to the department under the contract from the amount deposited under clause 2 supra or from sums due to the contractor. If at any time these sums or the deposit or both be less than the sums which may be due from the contractor to the Secretary of State, then in that case the contractor, his executors, administrators or representatives shall forthwith repay to the Secretary of State the balance of such sums. Where the deposit is in the form of Government promissory notes it shall be lawful for the Commissioner to sell and dispose of and for such purpose to endorse in the name and on behalf of the contractor all or any of such Government promissory notes and to pay the proceeds thereof to the Secretary of State.

15. The contractor shall abide by the decision of the Commissioner in case of any dispute or difference of opinion arising between the Commissioner or any officer of the department and the contractor in regard to the interpretation of the terms of the contract or the obligations thereunder.

Such decision shall be final and binding on the contractor and shall not be subject to question or review in a court of law or otherwise.

General conditions.

1. Tenders should be superscribed 'Tenders for the supply of miscellaneous articles for the Penitentiary, Madras.'

2. Tenders should specify in words as well as in figures the rate at which each description of article will be supplied, and the total value of each article should also be entered in the appropriate column.

3. No tenders will be received unless accompanied by a deposit of 2 per cent on the total value of articles tendered for.

4. Tenders not complying with the above conditions will be rejected.

5. Tenders may be for one or more groups but must be for ALL articles in groups I, II, III, IV and V.

6. The Superintendent reserves to himself the right of rejecting any tender without assigning any reason for so doing.

7. The successful tenderer will be required to pay a security of 10 per cent on the value of his tender together with the necessary stamp duty and to sign a contract bond within fifteen days from the date of his being informed of the acceptance of the tender. In case of failure his deposit of 2 per cent delivered with the tender will be forfeited and credited to Government.

8. No advance of cash will be made to the contractor; payment for the articles supplied will be made by the Superintendent of Prisons, Madras, as soon as the articles are received.

9. The contract must not be sublet.

10. A fine not exceeding Rs. 5 will be levied at the discretion of the Superintendent for any infringement of stipulations of the contract or for the supply of inferior articles, or if frequently repeated, the contract may be annulled and security confiscated to Government.

11. The decision of the Inspector-General of Prisons will be final in all questions of infringement of contract.

12. The contract is subject to the confirmation of the Inspector-General of Prisons.

13. In case the contractor after taking the contract is not willing to carry out his agreement, he shall give at least one month's notice and shall forfeit the security money to Government; the contractor will also be bound to make good to Government any loss which may arise from his failure or by Government having to purchase the articles specified in the contract in the local market at higher rate than those accounted for.

14. Any further information can be obtained from the Superintendent of Prisons, Madras, on application on any office day between the hours of 11 a.m. and 2 p.m.

15. Government promissory notes lodged as security deposit (for a period of twelve months or less) will not be endorsed over to the Superintendent of Prisons, Madras, but will remain in the name of the depositor. Government will appropriate or cancel the notes as per G.O. No. 2358, dated 1st March 1880, authority to that effect being duly entered in the contract executed by the depositor.

MINUTES OF A BOARD MEETING, No. 28 of 1919-20, HELD ON THE 6TH MARCH 1920.

Present:

The Hon'ble Mr. H. H. G. Mitchell, C.I.E., M. INST. C.E., Chairman.

Mr. H. H. Hood.
Capt. C. B. Henley, R.I.M.
Mr. M. Brown.
Mr. B. O. Scott.
Lieut.-Col. C. L. Magnus, C.M.G., C.B.E.
The Hon'ble Mr. J. F. Simpson.
Mr. S. J. Green.
Khan Bahadur Muhammad Abdul Kaddus Badsha Sahib.
M.R.Ry. C. Gopal Menon Avargal.

458. Read, approved and recorded the minutes of the proceedings of a previous meeting held on Friday, the 20th February 1920.

453. Recorded G.O. Mis. No. 81, Revenue (Special Marine), dated 24th February 1920, accepting the resignation of Mr. W. A. Turner of his appointment as a Trustee of the Port of Madras.

454. Recorded letter, dated 2 1th February 1920, from Khan Bahadur H. Muhammad Abdul Azeez Badsha Sahib thanking the Board for its sympathy with the family of the late Mr. Moulana Abdus Subhan Sahib Bahadur—vide Resolution No. 415, dated 6th February 1920.

455. Read again G.O. No. 874, Marine, dated the 22nd December 1909. Read also a representation from Commander G. H. Finnis, C.B.E., R.I.M., and a note thereon by the Chairman on the subject of the staff allowance of the Deputy Conservator of the Port of Madras.

Resolved that Government be asked to raise the staff allowance from Rs. 600 to Rs. 700—50—800.

456. Read again Resolution No. 122, dated the 14th August 1917, sanctioning, with effect from the 23rd July 1917, the date of the retirement of Mr. G. A. Evans from the Pilotage service, the payment to him of a pension of Rs. 12[illegible] per mensem. Read a letter from Mr. Evans asking for an enhancement of the pension.

Resolved that Mr. Evans be informed that the Board regrets its inability to enhance the pension.

457. Resolved, on the recommendation of the Chairman, that Mr. A. O. Wernigg, the Trust's Executive Engineer, be permitted to attend the annual meeting of the Locomotive and Carriage Superintendents' Committee of the Indian Railway Conference Association.

458. Resolved, on the recommendation of the Engineer-Chairman, to sanction five weeks' full pay leave with effect from the 8th February 1920 to M.R.Ry. Rao Sahib K. Ganapathi Kudwa, the Trust's Assistant Engineer.

459. Read and adopted the Chairman's draft of a letter to Government submitting for sanction a supplemental estimate for the provision of funds for expenditure on Capital account during 1919-20.

460. Read a note by the Trust's Chief Engineer, supported by the Chairman, submitting for sanction an estimate amounting to Rs 7,000, debitable to the Madras Port Fund, for lifting and relaying certain moorings in the harbour.

Resolved that, subject to sanction of Government, the estimate be approved.

461. Read again Resolution No. 214, dated 5th December 1917, sanctioning an estimate amounting to Rs 1,500, debitable to the Madras Pilotage Fund, for the construction of a mooring boat.

Read a note by the Trust's Chief Engineer submitting a revised or completion estimate amounting to Rs. 1,730 for the work in question.

Resolved to sanction the revised estimate debitable to the Pilotage Fund in lieu of the one sanctioned in the above quoted resolution.

462. Read again Resolutions Nos. 4 & 5, dated, respectively, the 28th May 1894 and 27th August 1897, on the subject of the landing and shipment of non-dangerous petroleum inside the harbour.

Read a note by the Chairman submitting for reasons given the following revised draft rules in supersession of those sanctioned in the above quoted resolutions.

NOTE.—In the following rules, the word 'lighter' means any craft used to carry cargo between ship and shore or vice versa.—

Subject to the Government Petroleum Regulations being complied with, non-dangerous petroleum in cases, drums or tins may be shipped or landed to or from steamers or sailing vessels inside the harbour provided that—

(a) not more than 2,400 imperial gallons in cases, drums or tins may be shipped or landed to or from sailing vessels.

(b) not more than twelve lighters, of which not more than six are wooden lighters, are to be in use for this purpose at the same time, and that in no case shall the total quantity afloat in lighters at one time exceed 16,000 imperial gallons in cases, drums or tins.

(c) the agents will be held responsible that all lighters (whether wood or iron) are cleared and discharged on shore in sufficient time to ensure that all cases, drums or tins are removed from the lighters and from the Port Trust premises before sunset.

(d) landing or shipping non-dangerous petroleum from or to lighters shall be done at such place or places as the Conservator of the port shall direct.

Resolved to approve of the revised draft rules.

463. Read a note by the Chairman submitting two estimates, the first amounting to Rs. 57,800 for filling up and surfacing the 10-acre plot vacated by the Burma Oil Company and the second to Rs 8,600 for raising and levelling the 2-acre area south of the blockyard to the level of the surrounding ground so that they may be made suitable to meet traffic requirements.

Resolved that, under section 75 of the Port Trust Act, the two estimates be approved and submitted to Government for sanction of their debit to Capital under section 75 as well as for sanction, as required by section 78, of the estimate of Rs. 57,800.

Resolved also that the necessary funds to meet the outlay proposed to be incurred in 1920-21, Rs. 19,100, be provided from the estimated Capital Account balance at the end of 1920-21.

464 Read again Resolution No. 354, dated 10th December 1919, on the subject of the resumption by Government of certain lands for the construction of huts for the harbour police.

Read Government Memorandum No. 94-IV/20-1, Revenue (Special, Marine), dated the 28th January 1920, on the subject of the compensation to the Trust for the resumption of one of the lands, known as the Bankshall site, and a draft reply thereto by the Chairman.

Resolved to approve of the Chairman's draft reply.

465. Resolved, on the recommendation of the Chairman, to confirm the sale for Rs. 600 to the Presidency Port Officer, Madras, by the Trust's Chief Engineer of the Chance's Incandescent Vapour Installation obtained by the Trust in 1918.

466. Recorded that, during the 24 hours from midnight to midnight on the 29th February 1920, the Port Trust look over the premises of which the Madras Sailing Club has the use under Resolution No. 163, dated the 15th October 1915

467. Recorded a nil statement of estimates sanctioned since the 20th February 1920.

468. Recorded the Trust's Capital and Revenue accounts for December 1919.

469. Recorded G.O. No. 65, Financial, dated 22nd January 1920, sanctioning certain changes in the list of account heads of the Madras Port Trust.

470. Recorded G.O. No. 143, Financial, dated 17th February 1920, sanctioning certain reappropriations and an additional allotment of Rs. 21,758 in the accounts of the Madras Port Fund for the year 1919-20.

471. Recorded G.O. R. No. 6, Revenue (Special, Marine), dated 26th February 1920, sanctioning the remission of transit dues amounting to Rs. 33-12-0—vide Resolution No. 442, dated 26th February 1920

472. Recorded G.O. No. 177, Financial, dated the 27th February 1920, sanctioning, under section 28 of the Madras Port Trust Act, certain reappropriations and additional allotments in the accounts of the Trust for the year 1919-20.

473. Recorded the Report of the Administration of the Madras Presidency for the year 1918-19.

474. Recorded the Report on the production and consumption of coal in India during the year 1918.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill further to amend the Workman's Breach of Contract Act, 1859, was presented to the Indian Legislative Council on the 25th February 1920.

We, the undersigned Members of the Select Committee, to which the Bill further to amend the Workman's Breach of Contract Act, 1859, was referred, have considered the Bill and the papers noted in the margin, and have now the honour to submit this our Report, with the Bill as amended by us annexed thereto.

Paper No. I.—From the Chief Commissioner of Baluchistan, dated the 20th October 1919, Chief Commissioner of Ajmer-Merwara, dated the 7th November 1919, and 17th November 1919; Chief Commissioner, North-West Frontier Province, dated the 28th November 1919; Chief Commissioner of Delhi, dated the 5th December 1919; Chief Commissioner of Baluchistan, dated the 8th December 1919; Government of United Provinces, dated the 4th December 1919, and enclosures, dated 9th December 1919, and 13th December 1919, and enclosure; and Chief Commissioner of Assam, dated the 31th December 1919, and enclosure.

Paper No. II.—From the Government of the Punjab, dated the 11th December 1919, and enclosures; Chief Commissioner of Coorg, dated the 15th December 1919, and enclosure; Chief Commissioner of Central Provinces, dated the 20th December 1919; Chief Commissioner of Coorg, dated the 24th December 1919, and Government of Bengal, dated the 27th December 1919.

Paper No. III.—From Government of Bihar and Orissa, dated the 20th November 1919, Government of Burma, dated the 28th December 1919 and enclosures, Government of Bombay, dated the 8th January 1920, and enclosures; and Government of Bihar and Orissa, dated the 14th January 1920.

Paper No. IV.—From Government of Bengal, dated the 21st January 1920; Calcutta High Court, dated the 22nd January 1920; and Government of Madras, dated the 23rd January 1920, and enclosure.

2. It was suggested to us that the words 'or to get performed by any other artisans, workmen or labourers' in section 1 of the Act should be omitted. Some support for this proposal is to be found in the opinions which have been laid before us but it involves a fresh extension of the limitation of the scope of the Act which is provided for by the Bill. We are not satisfied that those special interests which are particularly concerned in the working of the Act have had a sufficient opportunity of expressing an opinion on this point (which was not directly referred to them) to justify us in amending the Bill in this direction. We are confirmed in this opinion by the fact that we are ourselves considerably divided as to the advisability or expediency of such an amendment.

3. With reference to the new section 2 introduced by clause 3 of the Bill it was suggested to us—(1) that the powers of the Magistrate should be limited, in the first instance, to the imposition of some pecuniary liability and that imprisonment should only follow upon default of payment, and (2) that for the previous limiting imprisonment for failure to pay an instalment there should be substituted single offence carrying the maximum penalty. The first proposal seems to most of us calculated to deprive the Act of any efficacy it may possess from the point of view of the employer, and the second to be unduly severe upon the workman.

4. We think there is room to be said for a suggestion that an employer should not be allowed to use the Act against a particular workman after he has once obtained an order under the Act against that workman. There seems to us substance in the argument that an employer who deliberately engages a dishonest employee against whom he has previously taken proceedings does so with his eyes open, and should not therefore be again entitled to have resort to the special procedure allowed by the Act. We have accordingly amended the proviso to sub-section (1) of the new section 2 introduced by clause 3 of the Bill to meet this case.

5. We have made certain drafting alterations in the Bill, more particularly in section 2 (B) inserted by clause 3 of the Bill, where we have struck out superfluous words which appear to have slipped into the draft.

* Minute of Dissent.

1. I do not agree to proviso (b) to clause 3 (1) of the Bill. It appears to me that this proviso may operate very hardly against the employee.

2. In view of the note on this Bill from the Government of Madras which was not before the Select Committee during their deliberations I consider that the limitation of the advance to Rs. 300 in clause 2 (2) of the Bill is inadequate as far as ministries and kanganis in the Madras Presidency are concerned. I therefore reserve the right to move a further amendment on this point.

BILL No. 30 OF 1919.

[AS AMENDED BY THE SELECT COMMITTEE.]

(Words printed in italics indicate the amendments suggested by Select Committee.)

A Bill Further to amend the Workman's Breach of Contract Act, 1859.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Workman's Breach of Contract Act, 1859; It is hereby enacted as follows:— XIII of 1859.

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Workman's Breach of Contract (Amendment) Act, 191 .

Amendment of section 1, Act XIII of 1859. (1) 2. Section 1 of the Workman's Breach of Contract Act, 1859 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act) shall be renumbered sub-section (1) of section 1. XIII of 1859.

(2) In the said sub-section—

(a) after the words "an advance of money" the words "not exceeding three hundred rupees" shall be inserted; and

(b) the words "and the Magistrate shall thereupon issue" to the end of the section shall be omitted.

(3) In the said section the following sub-sections shall be added, namely:—

"(2) The Magistrate shall at once examine the complainant on oath and may thereupon dismiss the complaint if in his opinion there is no sufficient ground for proceeding.

(3) If in the opinion of the Magistrate there is sufficient ground for proceeding, he shall issue a summons or warrant, as he may think proper, for bringing before him such artificer, workman or labourer, and shall hear and determine the case."

Substitution of new sections for section 2, Act XIII of 1859. 3. (1) For section 2 of the said Act the following sections shall be substituted, namely:—

Order for repayment of advance or performance of contract. "2. (1) If it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that such artificer, workman, or labourer has received money in advance, not exceeding three hundred rupees, from the complainant on account of any such work, and has wilfully and without lawful or reasonable excuse neglected or refused to perform or get performed the same according to the terms of his contract, the Magistrate may in his discretion either order such artificer, workman or labourer to repay the money advanced, or such part thereof as may be just and proper, within such period and in such instalments, if any, as the Magistrate thinks fit, or order him to perform or get performed such work within such period not exceeding one year as the Magistrate may determine and otherwise according to the terms of the contract:

Provided that no such order shall be made—

(a) unless the complaint was brought within three months of the neglect or refusal; or

(b) if it is proved that the complainant has on any previous occasion obtained an order under this sub-section against such artificer, workman or labourer.

Explanation.—Where no time has been fixed for the performance of a contract, neglect may be presumed to have occurred on the expiry of such period as the Magistrate deems to be a reasonable time for the performance thereof.

(2) If such artificer, workman or labourer shall fail to comply with an order made under sub-section (1), the Magistrate may sentence him to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months, or, if the order be for the repayment of a sum of money, for a period which may extend to three months or until repayment is made, whichever period is shorter:

Provided that, where any instalment has been ordered, no sentence of imprisonment exceeding one month shall be passed for default in payment of any one instalment, and the aggregate of such sentences shall not exceed three months.

(3) The Magistrate may from time to time extend the period for repayment of money advanced or for the performance of work, as the case may be, and may vary the instalments.

Provided that no order shall be made under this sub-section extending beyond one year from the date of the order under sub-section (1) the period within which the work is to be performed.

(4) No repayment of any money or order therefor shall deprive the complainant of any civil remedy whether for the recovery of any money advanced and remaining unpaid or otherwise, which he may have otherwise than under this Act.

Inequitable contracts not to be enforced 2 A. The Magistrate may in his discretion refuse to make an order under section 2 where in his opinion the contract in respect of a breach of which the complaint has been made was substantially unfair.

Compensation in false or frivolous or vexatious complaints. 2 B. (1) If in any proceedings under this Act the Magistrate is of opinion that the complaint was false to the knowledge of the complainant or was frivolous or vexatious, he may in his discretion call upon the complainant forthwith to show cause why he should not pay compensation to the person complained against.

(2) The Magistrate shall consider any cause which such complainant may show, and, if after so doing he is satisfied that the accusation was false to the knowledge of the complainant or was frivolous or vexatious, he may, for reasons to be recorded, direct that compensation not exceeding fifty rupees be paid by the complainant to the person complained against.

Amendment of section 3, Act XIII of 1869.

4. In section 3 of the said Act for the words "to be imprisoned with hard labour" the words "to imprisonment" shall be substituted.

Substitution of new section for section 4, Act XIII of 1869.

5. For section 4 of the said Act the following section shall be substituted, namely :—

To what contracts Act extends.

"4. In this Act the word "contract" shall extend to all contracts within the meaning of the Indian Contracts Act, 1872:

IX of 1872.

Provided that nothing in this Act shall apply to contracts where a period having been specified for performance, such period exceeds one year."

A. P. MUDDIMAN,
Secretary to the Government of India.

The following Bill was introduced in the Indian Legislative Council on the 25th February 1920;—

No. 7 of 1920.

A Bill to take power to require passports of persons entering British India.

WHEREAS it is expedient to take power to require passports of persons entering British India; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title and extent.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Indian Passport Act, 1920.

(2) It shall extend to the whole of British India, including British Baluchistan, the Santhal Parganas and the district of Angul.

Definitions.

2. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

"entry" means entry by water, land or air;

"passport" means a passport for the time being in force issued or renewed by the prescribed authority and ratifying the conditions prescribed relating to the class of passports to which it belongs, and having attached to it a photograph of the person to whom it was issued; and

"prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act.

Power to make rules.

3. (1) The Governor General in Council may make rules requiring that persons entering British India shall be in possession of passports, and for all matters ancillary or incidental to that purpose.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power such rules may—

(a) prohibit the entry into British India or any part thereof of any person who has not in his possession a passport issued to him;

(b) prescribe the authorities by whom passports must have been issued or renewed, and the conditions with which they must comply, for the purposes of this Act; and

(c) provide for the exemption, either absolutely or on any condition, of any person or class of persons from any provision of such rules.

(3) Rules made under this section may provide that any contravention thereof or of any order issued under the authority of any such rule shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine or with both.

(4) All rules made under this section shall be published in the Gazette of India, and shall thereupon have effect as if enacted in this Act.

Power of arrest.

4. (1) Any officer of police not below the rank of a sub-inspector and any officer of the Customs Department empowered by a general or special order of the Local Government in this behalf may arrest without warrant any person who has contravened or against whom a reasonable suspicion exists that he has contravened any rule or order made under section 3.

(2) Every officer making an arrest under this section shall, without unnecessary delay, take or send the person arrested before a Magistrate having jurisdiction in the case or to the officer in charge of the nearest police-station.

Power of removal.

5. The Local Government may, by general or special order, direct the removal of any person from British India who, in contravention of any rule made under section 3 prohibiting entry into British India without passport, has entered therein, and thereupon any officer of Government shall have all reasonable powers necessary to enforce such direction.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The present rules requiring passports for egress from and ingress into India were issued under the Defence of India Act which expires six months after the end of the war. It is desired to retain power to continue the present system in whole or in part as may seem necessary for the purpose, bringing the Indian practice into line with that of other parts of the British Empire and of foreign nations.

A. P. MUDDIMAN,
Secretary to the Government of India.

The following Bill was introduced in the Indian Legislative Council on the 15th February 1920:—

No. 9 of 1920.

A Bill to amend the Dourine Act, 1910.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Dourine Act, 1910; It is hereby enacted as follows:— V of 1910.

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Dourine (Amendment) Act, 1920. V of 1910.

Amendment of section 6, Act V of 1910. 2. In section 6 of the Dourine Act, 1910 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act),—

(1) the word "and" at the end of clause (a) shall be omitted, and

(2) after clause (b) the following clause shall be added, namely:—

"(c) direct, by order in writing, the owner or keeper of any horse which, in the opinion of the Inspectors, is affected with dourine to remove it or permit it to be removed for the purpose of segregation to a place specified in the order, and such direction shall be sufficient authority for the detention of the horse in that place for that purpose."

Amendment of section 8, Act V of 1910. 3. In section 8 of the said Act the word and letter "clause (b)" shall be omitted.

Amendment of section 9, Act V of 1910. 4. In section 9 of the said Act—

(1) in clause (a) the word and letter "clause (b)" shall be omitted; and

(2) in clause (b)—

(a) after the words "on microscopical examination" the words "or by other scientific test" shall be inserted; and

(b) for sub-clause (ii) the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"(ii) in the case of a mare, with the previous sanction of such authority as the Local Government may appoint in this behalf, or, if so empowered by the Local Government, without such sanction, cause it to be destroyed."

Amendment of section 14, Act V of 1910. 5. In sub-section (2) of section 14 of the said Act—

(1) for clause (a) the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"(a) regulate the exercise of the powers conferred on Inspectors under section 5"; and

(2) the word "and" at the end of clause (b) and the whole of clause (c) shall be omitted.

Amendment of section 15, Act V of 1910. 6. For clauses (b) and (c) of section 15 of the said Act, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"(b) any horse in respect of which an order under clause (b) or clause (c) of section 5 is in force."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The increased prevalence of the disease 'dourine', particularly in the districts of Northern India where horse-breeding operations are carried out, has rendered necessary a strengthening of the preventive provisions of the Dourine Act, 1910 (V of 1910). It is proposed to empower Government to compel the segregation of stallions and mares suspected of affection with dourine, and in the case of mares definitely found to be affected to permit their destruction in all cases, abolishing the alternative of branding. The Bill leaves it to the discretion of Local Governments either (a) to require the previous sanction of higher authority to enable a veterinary practitioner to destroy a mare affected with dourine, or (b) to dispense with such sanction. It is further proposed to recognize other tests than microscopical examination for the purpose of determining whether an animal is affected with the disease.

The 30th January 1920.

C. H. A. HILL,

A. P. MUDDIMAN,
Secretary to the Government of India.

The following Bill was introduced in the Indian Legislative Council on the 25th February 1920 :—

No. 7 of 1920.

A Bill further to amend the law relating to Glanders and Farcy.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the law relating to Glanders and Farcy ; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Glanders and Farcy (Amendment) Act, 1920. XIII of 1899.

Extension of Act to camels.

2. In section 2 (f) of the Glanders and Farcy Act, 1899, the word 'camels' shall be inserted between the words 'to' and 'asses.'

Substitution of new section for s. 3, Act XIII of 1899.

3. For section 3 of the same Act the following section shall be substituted, namely :—

Application of Act to local areas by Local Government.

"3. (1) The Local Government may, by notification in the local official Gazette, apply this Act or any provision of this Act to any local area, to be specified in such notification, within the province.

(2) In any such notification the Local Government may further direct that the Act or any provision so applied shall apply in respect of—

(a) all or any of the diseases mentioned or specified in a notification under section 2, sub-section (1),

(b) all animals or any class of animals mentioned in section 2, sub-section (2)."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The necessity for adopting preventive measures against the disease 'surra' has recently been brought into prominence by the high incidence of mortality from this disease among transport animals. Camels are particularly susceptible to 'surra' and have been found to be the most dangerous carriers of the disease. Surra was declared in Notification No 2988, dated the 22nd September 1910, to be a dangerous epidemic disease within the meaning of section 2, sub-section (1) of the Glanders and Farcy Act, 1899 (XIII of 1899), but the Act, as it stands at present, applies only to horses, asses and mules. In the present Bill it is proposed to amend the Act so as to include camels among the animals to which its provisions apply. It is also proposed to extend the discretion allowed to Local Governments under section 3 of the Act of determining the local application of the Act. Under clause 3 of the Bill it will be open to Local Governments to apply the Act or any of its provisions to any of the particular classes of animals specified in section 2, sub-section (2).

DELHI,
The 9th February 1920.

C. H. A. HILL.

A. P. MUDDIMAN,
Secretary to the Government of India.

Acts of the Indian Legislative Council assented to by the Governor-General.

The following Act of the Indian Legislative Council received the assent of the Governor General on the 25th February 1920 and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. IV OF 1920.

[AS PASSED IN COUNCIL.]

An Act to provide for certain matters in connection with the taking of the Census.

WHEREAS it has been determined to take a census of British India during the year 1921, and it is expedient to provide for certain matters in connection with the taking of such census; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title and extent.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Indian Census Act, 1920.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India, inclusive of British Baluchistan, the Santhal Parganas and the Pargana of Spiti.

Appointment of census-officers.

2. (1) The Local Government may appoint any person to take, or aid in, or supervise the taking of, the census within any specified local area.

(2) Persons so appointed shall be called census-officers.

(3) The Local Government may delegate to such authority, as it thinks fit, the power of appointing census-officers which is conferred by this section.

Proof of appointment of census-officers and their status as public servants.

3. (1) A declaration in writing, signed by any officer authorised by the Local Government in this behalf, that any person has been duly appointed a census-officer for any local area shall be conclusive proof of such appointment.

(2) All census-officers shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code. XLV of 1860.

Discharge of duties of census-officers in certain cases.

4. (1) (a) Every officer in command of any body of men belonging to His Majesty's naval, military or air forces or to His Majesty's Indian Marine Service or of any vessel of war,

(b) every person (except a pilot or harbour-master) having charge or control of a vessel,

(c) every person in charge of a lunatic asylum, hospital, workhouse, prison, reformatory or lock-up or of any public, charitable, religious or educational institution,

(d) every keeper, secretary or manager of any sarai, hotel, boarding-house, lodging-house, emigration depot or club, and

(e) every occupant of immoveable property who has at the time of the taking of the census not less than twenty persons living on or in such property, and every manager or officer of a railway or other commercial or industrial establishment who has at such time not less than ten persons employed under him, shall, if so required by the District Magistrate or by such officer as the Local Government may appoint in this behalf, perform such of the duties of a census officer in relation to the persons who at the time of the taking of the census are under his command or charge, or are inmates of his house or present on or in such immoveable property or are employed under him as such Magistrate or officer may, by written order, direct.

(2) All the provisions of this Act relating to census-officers shall apply, so far as they can be made applicable, to all persons while performing such duties under this section, and any person refusing or neglecting to perform any duty which he is directed under this section to perform shall be deemed to have committed an offence under section 187 of the Indian Penal Code. XLV of 1860.

Power of District Magistrate to call upon certain persons to give assistance.

5. (1) The District Magistrate, or such officer as the Local Government may appoint in this behalf for any local area, may, by written order, which shall have effect throughout the limits of his district or of such local area, as the case may be, call upon—

Bur. Act III of 1905 III of 1889 Mad. Act I of 1894.

(a) all owners and occupiers of land, tenure-holders, farmers, assignees of land-revenue and lessees of fisheries under the Burma Fisheries Act, 1905, or the Upper Burma Land and Revenue Regulation, 1889, or their agents,

(b) all village-officers and servants in estates as defined in the Madras Proprietary Estates Village Service Act, 1894, and

Ben. Act VI of 1870. I of 1892 Ben. Act V of 1919 C. and O. Act 2 of 1914. Assam Act I of 1915.

(c) all members of panchayats appointed under the Village Chaukidari Act, 1870, or the Sylhet and Cachar Rural Police Regulation, 1883, or members of union boards established under the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919, all ghatwals, Unit-tahsildars and members of a panchayat appointed under the Chota Nagpur Rural Police Act, 1914, all members of Village Authorities constituted under the Assam Local Self-Government Act, 1915, and all village-headmen in the Kumaun Division of the United Provinces, to give such assistance as he needs towards the taking of a census of the persons who are at the time of the taking of the census on the lands of such owners, occupiers, holders, farmers and assignees, or within the limits of such fisheries or in the villages or other areas for which such village-officers and servants, panchayats, union boards, Village Authorities, ghatwals, Unit-tahsildars or village headmen are appointed, as the case may be.

(2) Such order shall specify the nature of the assistance required, and such owners, occupiers, holders, farmers, assignees and lessees, or their agents, and such village-officers and servants, the members of such panchayats, union boards and Village Authorities, and such ghatwals, Unit-tahsildars and village-headmen shall be bound to obey it.

Asking of questions by census-officers.

6. Every census-officer may ask all such questions of all persons within the limits of the local area for which he is appointed as, by instructions issued in this behalf by the Local Government and published in the official Gazette, he may be directed to ask.

Obligation to answer questions.

7. Every person of whom any question is asked under the last foregoing section shall be legally bound to answer such question to the best of his knowledge or belief:

Provided that no person shall be bound to state the name of any female member of his household, and no woman shall be bound to state the name of her husband or deceased husband or of any other person whose name she is forbidden by custom to mention.

Occupier to allow access, and permit affixing of numbers.

8. Every person occupying any house, enclosure vessel or other place shall allow census-officers such access thereto as they may require for the purposes of the census, and as, having regard to the customs of the country, may be reasonable, and shall allow them to paint on or affix to the place such letters, marks or numbers as may be necessary for the purposes of the census.

Occupier or manager to fill up schedule.

9. (1) Subject to such orders as the Local Government may issue in this behalf, any census-officer may leave, or cause to be left,

(a) at any dwelling-house within the local area for which he is appointed, or

(b) with any manager or officer of any commercial or industrial establishment who has at the time of the taking of the census not less than ten persons employed under him, a schedule for the purpose of its being filled up by the occupier of such house or of any specified part thereof, or by such manager or officer with such particulars as the Local Government may direct regarding the inmates of such house or part, or the persons employed under such manager or officer at the time of the taking of the census, as the case may be.

(2) When any such schedule has been so left, the occupier of the house or part to which it relates or the manager or officer with whom it is left shall fill it up, or cause it to be filled up, to the best of his knowledge or belief, so far as regards the inmates of such house or part, or the persons employed under him at the time aforesaid, as the case may be, and shall sign his name thereto, and when so required, shall deliver the schedule so filled up and signed to the census-officer or to such person as the census-officer may direct.

Penalties.

10. In any of the following cases, namely—

(a) if a census-officer or a person lawfully required to give assistance towards the taking of a census refuses or neglects to use reasonable diligence in performing any duty imposed upon him or in obeying any order issued to him in accordance with this Act or with any rule duly made thereunder,

(b) if a census-officer intentionally puts any offensive or improper question or knowingly makes any false return, or, without the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council or the Local Government, discloses any information which he has received by means of or for the purposes of a census return,

(c) if any person refuses to answer to the best of his knowledge or belief any question asked of him by a census-officer which he is legally bound by section 7 so to answer,

(d) if any person occupying any house, enclosure, vessel or other place refuses to allow a census-officer such reasonable access thereto as he is required by section 8 to allow,

(e) if any person removes, obliterates, alters or injures before the 31st day of March 1921, any letters, marks or numbers which have been painted or affixed for the purposes of the census,

(f) if any occupier of a dwelling-house or part thereof or any person with whom a schedule is left under section 9 knowingly and without sufficient cause fails to comply with the provisions of section 9 or makes any false return under that section, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

Jurisdiction in prosecutions.

11. (1) The Local Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, declare before what classes of Magistrates prosecutions under this Act may be instituted.

(2) Unless and until a notification is published under sub-section (1) all prosecutions under this Act shall, in the towns of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, be instituted before a Presidency Magistrate, and elsewhere, before the District Magistrate.

(3) No prosecution under this Act shall be instituted except with the previous sanction of the Local Government or of some officer authorised by the Local Government in this behalf.

Records of census not open to inspection nor admissible in evidence in certain proceedings.

12. No person shall have a right to inspect any book, register or record made by a census-officer in the discharge of his duty as such officer or any schedule delivered under section 9, and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, no entry in any such book, register, record or schedule shall be admissible as evidence in any civil proceeding or any proceeding under Chapter XII or Chapter XXXVI of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898. I of 1872. V of 1898.

Temporary suspension of local enactments and rules as to mode of taking census in municipalities.

13. Notwithstanding anything in any enactment or rule with respect to the mode in which a census is to be taken in any municipality, the municipal authority may, at the time appointed for the taking of the census of British India during the year 1921, cause the census of the municipality to be taken wholly or in part by any method authorised by this Act.

Power in regard to expenses.

14. Notwithstanding anything in any enactment or rule, in regard to municipal, local, union or village funds, the Local Government may direct that the whole or any part of any expenses incurred for anything done in accordance with this Act may be charged to any municipal, local, union or village fund constituted for, and on behalf of, the area within which such expenses were incurred.

Power to make rules.

15. (1) The Governor General in Council may make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, the Governor General in Council may make rules providing—

(a) for the appointment of census-officers and of persons to perform any of the duties of census-officers or to give assistance towards the taking of a census, and for the general instructions to be issued to such officers and persons;

(b) for the enumeration of persons employed on railways and their families and of other classes of the population for whom it may be necessary or expedient to make special provision; and

(c) for the enumeration of persons travelling on the night when a census is taken.

(3) The Governor General in Council may, by general or special order, direct that all or any of the powers conferred upon him by this section may also be exercised by any Local Government with respect to the territories administered by it.

A. P. MUDDIMAN,
Secretary to the Govt. of India, Legislative Dept.

The following Act of the Indian Legislative Council received the assent of the Governor-General on the 25th February 1920, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. V OF 1920.

[AS PASSED IN COUNCIL.]

An Act to consolidate and amend the Law relating to Insolvency in British India, as administered by Courts having jurisdiction outside the Presidency-towns and the Town of Rangoon.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the Law relating to insolvency in British India, as administered by Courts having jurisdiction outside the Presidency-towns and the Town of Rangoon; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title and extent.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Provincial Insolvency Act, 1920.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India except the Scheduled Districts.

Definitions.

2. (1) In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) "creditor" includes a decree-holder, "debt" includes a judgment-debt, and "debtor" includes judgment-debtor;

(b) "District Court" means the principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction in any area outside the local limits for the time being of the Presidency-towns and of the Town of Rangoon;

(c) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act;

(d) "property" includes any property over which or the profits of which any person has a disposing power which he may exercise for his own benefit;

(e) "secured creditor" means a person holding a mortgage, charge or lien on the property of the debtor or any part thereof as a security for a debt due to him from the debtor; and

(f) "transfer of property" includes a transfer of any interest in property and the creation of any charge upon property.

(2) Words and expressions used in this Act and defined in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, and not hereinbefore defined shall have the same meanings as those respectively attributed to them by the said Code. V of 1908.

PART I.

CONSTITUTION AND POWERS OF COURT.

Insolvency jurisdiction.

3. (1) The District Courts shall be the Courts having jurisdiction under this Act:

Provided that the Local Government may, by notification in the local official Gazette, invest any Court subordinate to a District Court with jurisdiction in any class of cases, and any Court so invested shall within the local limits of its jurisdiction have concurrent jurisdiction with the District Court under this Act.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, a Court of Small Causes shall be deemed to be subordinate to the District Court.

Power of Court to decide all questions arising in insolvency.

4. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act the Court shall have full power to decide all questions whether of title or priority, or of any nature whatsoever, and whether involving matters of law or of fact, which may arise in any case of insolvency coming within the cognisance of the Court, or which the Court may deem it expedient or necessary to decide for the purpose of doing complete justice or making a complete distribution of property in any such case.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act and notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, every such decision shall be final and binding for all purposes as between, on the one hand, the debtor and the debtor's estate and, on the other hand, all claimants against him or it and all persons claiming through or under them or any of them.

(3) Where the Court does not deem it expedient or necessary to decide any question of the nature referred to in sub-section (1), but has reason to believe that the debtor has a saleable interest in any property, the Court may, without further inquiry sell such interest in such manner and subject to such conditions as it may think fit.

General powers of Courts

5. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Court, in regard to proceedings under this Act, shall have the same powers and shall follow the same procedure as it has and follows in the exercise of original civil jurisdiction.

(2) Subject as aforesaid, High Courts and District Courts, in regard to proceedings under this Act in Courts subordinate to them, shall have the same powers and shall follow the same procedure as they respectively have and follow in regard to civil suits.

PART II

PROCEEDINGS FROM ACT OF INSOLVENCY TO DISCHARGE.

Acts of insolvency.

Acts of insolvency.

6. A debtor commits an act of insolvency in each of the following cases, namely :

(a) if, in British India or elsewhere, he makes a transfer of all or substantially all his property to a third person for the benefit of his creditors generally ;

(b) if, in British India or elsewhere, he makes a transfer of his property or of any part thereof with intent to defeat or delay his creditors ;

(c) if, in British India or elsewhere, he makes any transfer of his property, or of any part thereof, which would, under this or any other enactment for the time being in force, be void as a fraudulent preference if he were adjudged an insolvent ;

(d) if, with intent to defeat or delay his creditors,—

(i) he departs or remains out of British India,

(ii) he departs from his dwelling-house or usual place of business or otherwise absents himself,

(iii) he secludes himself so as to deprive his creditors of the means of communicating with him ;

(e) if any of his property has been sold in execution of the decree of any Court for the payment of money ;

(f) if he petitions to be adjudged an insolvent under the provisions of this Act ;

(g) if he gives notice to any of his creditors that he has suspended, or that he is about to suspend, payment of his debts ;

(h) if he is imprisoned in execution of the decree of any Court for the payment of money.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section the act of an agent may be the act of the principal.

Petition.

Petition and adjudication

7. Subject to the conditions specified in this Act, if a debtor commits an act of insolvency, an insolvency petition may be presented either by a creditor or by the debtor, and the Court may on such petition make an order (hereinafter called an order of adjudication) adjudging him an insolvent.

Explanation.—The presentation of a petition by the debtor shall be deemed an act of insolvency within the meaning of this section, and on such petition the Court may make an order of adjudication.

Exemption of corporations, etc., from insolvency proceedings.

8. No insolvency petition shall be presented against any corporation or against any association or company registered under any enactment for the time being in force.

Conditions on which creditor may petition.

9. (1) A creditor shall not be entitled to present an insolvency petition against a debtor unless—

(a) the debt owing by the debtor to the creditor, or, if two or more creditors join in the petition, the aggregate amount of debts owing to such creditors amounts to five hundred rupees, and

(b) the debt is a liquidated sum payable either immediately or at some certain future time, and

(c) the act of insolvency on which the petition is grounded has occurred within three months before the presentation of the petition.

(3) If the petitioning creditor is a secured creditor, he shall in his petition either state that he is willing to relinquish his security for the benefit of the creditors in the event of the debtor being adjudged insolvent, or give an estimate of the value of the security. In the latter case, he may be admitted as a petitioning creditor to the extent of the balance of the debt due to him after deducting the value so estimated in the same way as if he were an unsecured creditor.

Conditions on which debtor may petition.

10. (1) A debtor shall not be entitled to present an insolvency petition, unless he is unable to pay his debts and—

(a) his debts amount to five hundred rupees; or

(b) he is under arrest or imprisonment in execution of the decree of any Court for the payment of money; or

(c) an order of attachment in execution of such a decree has been made, and is subsisting, against his property.

(2) A debtor in respect of whom an order of adjudication made under this Act has been annulled, owing to his failure to apply, or to prosecute an application for his discharge, shall not be entitled to present an insolvency petition without the leave of the Court by which the order of adjudication was annulled. Such Court shall not grant leave unless it is satisfied either that the debtor was prevented by any reasonable cause from presenting or prosecuting his application, as the case may be, or that the petition is founded on facts substantially different from those contained in the petition on which the order of adjudication was made.

Court to which petition shall be presented.

11. Every insolvency petition shall be presented to a Court having jurisdiction under this Act in any local area in which the debtor ordinarily resides or carries on business, or personally works for gain, or if he has been arrested or imprisoned, where he is in custody:

Provided that no objection as to the place of presentment shall be allowed by any Court in the exercise of appellate or revisional jurisdiction unless such objection was taken in the Court by which the petition was heard at the earliest possible opportunity, and unless there has been a consequent failure of justice.

Verification of petition.

12. Every insolvency petition shall be in writing and shall be signed and verified in the manner prescribed by the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for signing and verifying plaints. V of 1908.

Contents of petition.

13. (1) Every insolvency petition presented by a debtor shall contain the following particulars, namely:—

(a) a statement that the debtor is unable to pay his debts;

(b) the place where he ordinarily resides or carries on business or personally works for gain, or, if he has been arrested or imprisoned, the place where he is in custody;

(c) the Court (if any) by whose order he has been arrested or imprisoned, or by which an order has been made for the attachment of his property, together with particulars of the decree in respect of which any such order has been made;

(d) the amount and particulars of all pecuniary claims against him, together with the names and residences of his creditors so far as they are known to, or can by the exercise of reasonable care and diligence be ascertained by him;

(e) the amount and particulars of all his property, together with—

(i) a specification of the value of all such property not consisting of money;

(ii) the place or places at which any such property is to be found; and

(iii) a declaration of his willingness to place at the disposal of the Court all such property save in so far as it includes such particulars (not being his books of account) as are exempted by the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, or by any other enactment for the time being in force from liability to attachment and sale in execution of a decree; V of 1908.

(f) a statement whether the debtor has on any previous occasion filed a petition to be adjudged an insolvent, and (where such a petition has been filed)—

(i) if such petition has been dismissed, the reasons for such dismissal, or

(ii) if the debtor has been adjudged an insolvent, concise particulars of the insolvency, including a statement whether any previous adjudication has been annulled and, if so, the grounds therefor.

(2) Every insolvency petition presented by a creditor or creditors shall set forth the particulars regarding the debtor specified in clause (b) of sub-section (1), and shall also specify—

(a) the act of insolvency committed by such debtor, together with the date of its commission; and

(b) the amount and particulars of his or their pecuniary claim or claims against such debtor.

Withdrawal of petitions.

14. No petition, whether presented by a debtor or by a creditor, shall be withdrawn without the leave of the Court.

Consolidation of petitions.

15. Where two or more insolvency petitions are presented against the same debtor, or where separate petitions are presented against joint debtors, the Court may consolidate the proceedings or any of them, on such terms as the Court thinks fit.

Power to change carriage of proceedings.

16. Where the petitioner does not proceed with due diligence on his petition the Court may substitute as petitioner any other creditor to whom the debtor may be indebted in the amount required by this Act in the case of a petitioning creditor.

Continuance of proceedings on death of debtor.

17. If a debtor by or against whom an insolvency petition has been presented dies, the proceedings in the matter shall, unless the Court otherwise orders, be continued so far as may be necessary for the realisation and distribution of the property of the debtor.

V of 1908

Procedure for admission of petition.

18. The procedure laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, with respect to the admission of plaints, shall, so far as it is applicable, be followed in the case of insolvency petitions.

Procedure on admission of petition.

19. (1) Where an insolvency petition is admitted, the Court shall make an order fixing a date for hearing the petition.

(2) Notice of the order under sub-section (1) shall be given to creditors in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) Where the debtor is not the petitioner, notice of the order under sub-section (1) shall be served on him in the manner provided for the service of summons.

Appointment of interim receiver.

20. The Court when making an order admitting the petition may, and where the debtor is the petitioner ordinarily shall, appoint an interim receiver of the property of the debtor or of any part thereof, and may direct him to take immediate possession thereof or of any part thereof, and the interim receiver shall thereupon have such of the powers

V of 1908. conferrable on a receiver appointed under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, as the Court may direct. If an interim receiver is not so appointed, the Court may make such appointment at any subsequent time before adjudication, and the provisions of this sub-section shall apply accordingly.

Interim proceedings against debtor.

21. At the time of making an order admitting the petition or at any subsequent time before adjudication, the Court may, either of its own motion or on the application of any creditor, make one or more of the following orders, namely :—

(1) order the debtor to give reasonable security for his appearance until final orders are made upon the petition, and direct that, in default of giving such security, he shall be detained in the civil prison;

(2) order the attachment by actual seizure of the whole or any part of the property in the possession or under the control of the debtor, other than such particulars (not being his books of account) as are exempted by the Code of Civil

V of 1908. Procedure, 1908, or by any other enactment for the time being in force from liability to attachment and sale in execution of a decree;

(3) order a warrant to issue with or without bail for the arrest of the debtor, and direct either that he be detained in the civil prison until the disposal of the petition, or that he be released on such terms as to security as may be reasonable and necessary :

Provided that an order under clause (2) or clause (3) shall not be made unless the Court is satisfied that the debtor, with intent to defeat or delay his creditors or to avoid any process of the Court,—

(i) has absconded or has departed from the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court, or is about to abscond or to depart from such limits, or is remaining outside them, or

(ii) has failed to disclose or has concealed, destroyed, transferred or removed from such limits, or is about to conceal, destroy, transfer or remove from such limits any documents likely to be of use to his creditors in the course of the hearing, or any part of his property other than such particulars as aforesaid.

Duties of debtor.

22. The debtor shall on the making of an order admitting the petition produce all books of account, and shall at any time thereafter give such inventories of his property, and such lists of his creditors and debtors and of the debts due to and from them, respectively, submit to such examination in respect of his property or his creditors, attend at such times before the Court or receiver, execute such instruments, and generally do all such acts and things in relation to his property as may be required by the Court or receiver, or as may be prescribed.

Release of debtor.

23. (1) At the time of making an order admitting the petition or at any subsequent time before adjudication, the Court may, if the debtor is under arrest or imprisonment in execution of the decree of any Court for the payment of money, order his release on such terms as to security as may be reasonable and necessary.

(2) The Court may at any time order any person who has been released under this section to be re-arrested and re-committed to the custody from which he was released.

(3) At the time of making any order under this section, the Court shall record in writing its reasons therefor.

Procedure at hearing.

24. (1) On the day fixed for the hearing of the petition, or on any subsequent day to which the hearing may be adjourned, the Court shall require proof of the following matters, namely:—

(a) that the creditor or the debtor, as the case may be, is entitled to present the petition:

Provided that, where the debtor is the petitioner, he shall, for the purpose of proving his inability to pay his debts, be required to furnish only such proof as to satisfy the Court that there are prima facie grounds for believing the same and the Court, if and when so satisfied, shall not be bound to hear any further evidence thereon;

(b) that the debtor, if he does not appear on a petition presented by a creditor, has been served with notice of the order admitting the petition; and

(c) that the debtor has committed the act of insolvency alleged against him.

(2) The Court shall also examine the debtor, if he is present, as to his conduct, dealings and property in the presence of such creditors as appear at the hearing, and the creditors shall have the right to question the debtor thereon.

(3) The Court shall, if sufficient cause is shown, grant time to the debtor or to any creditor to produce any evidence which appears to it to be necessary for the proper disposal of the petition.

(4) A memorandum of the substance of the examination of the debtor and of any other oral evidence given shall be made by the Judge, and shall form part of the record of the case.

Dismissal of petition.

25. (1) In the case of a petition presented by a creditor, where the Court is not satisfied with the proof of his right to present the petition or of the service on the debtor of notice of the order admitting the petition, or of the alleged act of insolvency, or is satisfied by the debtor that he is able to pay his debts or that for any other sufficient cause no order ought to be made, the Court shall dismiss the petition.

(2) In the case of a petition presented by a debtor, the Court shall dismiss the petition if it is not satisfied of his right to present the petition.

Award of compensation.

26. (1) Where a petition presented by a creditor is dismissed under sub-section (1) of section 25, and the Court is satisfied that the petition was frivolous or vexatious, the Court may, on the application of the debtor, award against such creditor such amount, not exceeding one thousand rupees, as it deems a reasonable compensation to the debtor for the expense or injury occasioned to him by the petition and the proceedings thereon, and such amount may be realized as if it were a fine.

(2) An award under this section shall bar any suit for compensation in respect of such petition and the proceedings thereon.

Order of Adjudication.

Order of adjudication.

27. (1) If the Court does not dismiss the petition, it shall make an order of adjudication, and shall specify in such order the period within which the debtor shall apply for his discharge.

(2) The Court may, if sufficient cause is shown, extend the period within which the debtor shall apply for his discharge, and in that case shall publish notice of the order in such manner as it thinks fit.

Effect of an order of adjudication.

28. (1) On the making of an order of adjudication, the insolvent shall aid to the utmost of his power in the realization of his property and the distribution of the proceeds among his creditors.

(2) On the making of an order of adjudication the whole of the property of the insolvent shall vest in the Court or in a receiver as hereinafter provided, and shall become divisible among the creditors, and thereafter, except as provided by this Act, no creditor to whom the insolvent is indebted in respect of any debt provable under this Act shall during the pendency of the insolvency proceedings have any remedy against the property of the insolvent in respect of the debt, or commence any suit or other legal proceeding, except with the leave of the Court and on such terms as the Court may impose.

(3) For the purposes of sub-section (2), all goods being, at the date of the presentation of the petition on which the order is made, in the possession, order or disposition of the insolvent in his trade or business, by the consent and permission of the true owner, under such circumstances that he is the reputed owner thereof, shall be deemed to be the property of the insolvent.

(4) All property which is acquired by or devolves on the insolvent after the date of an order of adjudication and before his discharge shall forthwith vest in the Court or receiver, and the provisions of sub-section (2) shall apply in respect thereof.

(5) The property of the insolvent for the purposes of this section shall not include any property (not being books of account) which is exempted by the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, or by any other enactment for the time being in force from liability to attachment and sale in execution of a decree. V of 1908.

(6) Nothing in this section shall affect the power of any secured creditor to realise or otherwise deal with his security, in the same manner as he would have been entitled to realise or deal with it if this section had not been passed.

(7) An order of adjudication shall relate back to, and take effect from, the date of the presentatin of the petition on which it is made.

Stay of pending proceeding.

29. Any Court in which a suit or other proceeding is pending against a debtor shall, on proof that an order of adjudication has been made against him under this Act, either stay the proceeding or allow it to continue on such terms as such Court may impose.

Publication of order of adjudication.

30. Notice of an order of adjudication stating the name, address and description of the insolvent, the date of the adjudication, the period within which the debtor shall apply for his discharge, and the Court by which the adjudication is made, shall be published in the local official Gazette and in such other manner as may be prescribed.

Proceedings consequent on order of adjudication.

Protection order.

31. (1) Any insolvent in respect of whom an order of adjudication has been made may apply to the Court for protection, and the Court may on such application make an order for the protection of the insolvent from arrest or detention.

(2) A protection order may apply either to all the debts of the debtor, or to any of them as the Court may think proper, and may commence and take effect at and for such time as the Court may direct, and may be revoked or renewed as the Court may think fit.

(3) A protection order shall protect the insolvent from being arrested or detained in prison for any debt to which such order applies, and any insolvent arrested or detained contrary to the terms of such an order shall be entitled to his release:

Provided that no such order shall operate to prejudice the rights of any creditor in the event of such order being revoked or the adjudication annulled.

(4) Any creditor shall be entitled to appear and oppose the grant of a protection order.

Power to arrest after adjudication.

32. At any time after an order of adjudication has been made, the Court may, if it has reason to believe on the application of any creditor or the receiver, that the debtor has absconded or departed from the local limits of its jurisdiction with intent to avoid any obligation which has been, or might be, imposed on him by or under this Act, order a warrant to issue for his arrest, and on his appearing or being brought before it, may, if satisfied that he was absconding or had departed with such intent, order his release on such terms as to security as may be reasonable or necessary, or if such security is not furnished, direct that he shall be detained in the civil prison for a period which may extend to three months.

Schedule of creditors.

33. (1) When an order of adjudication has been made under this Act, all persons alleging themselves to be creditors of the insolvent in respect of debts provable under this Act shall tender proof of their respective debts by producing evidence of the amount and particulars thereof, and the Court shall, by order, determine the persons who have proved themselves to be creditors of the insolvent in respect of such debts, and the amount of such debts, respectively, and shall frame a schedule of such persons and debts:

Provided that if, in the opinion of the Court, the value of any debt is incapable of being fairly estimated, the Court may make an order to that effect, and thereupon the debt shall not be included in the schedule.

(2) A copy of every such schedule shall be posted in the Court-house.

(3) Any creditor of the insolvent may, at any time before the discharge of the insolvent, tender proof of his debt and apply to the Court for an order directing his name to be entered in the schedule as a creditor in respect of any debt provable under this Act, and not entered in the schedule, and the Court, after causing notice to be served on the insolvent and the other creditors who have proved their debts, and hearing their objections (if any) shall comply with or reject the application.

Debts provable under this Act.

34. (1) Debts which have been excluded from the schedule on the ground that their value is incapable of being fairly estimated and demands in the nature of unliquidated damages arising otherwise than by reason of a contract or a breach of trust shall not be provable under this Act.

(2) Save as provided by sub-section (1), all debts and liabilities, present or future, certain or contingent, to which the debtor is subject when he is adjudged an insolvent, or to which he may become subject before his discharge by reason of any obligation incurred before the date of such adjudication, shall be deemed to be debts provable under this Act.

Annulment of adjudication.

Power to annul adjudication of insolvency.

35. Where, in the opinion of the Court, a debtor ought not to have been adjudged insolvent, or where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the debts of the insolvent have been paid in full, the Court shall, on the application of the debtor, or of any other person interested, by order in writing, annul the adjudication.

Power to cancel one of concurrent orders of adjudication.

36. If, in any case in which an order of adjudication has been made, it shall be proved to the Court by which such order was made that insolvency proceedings are pending in another Court against the same debtor, and that the property of the debtor can be more conveniently distributed by such other Court, the Court may annul the adjudication or stay all proceedings thereon.

Proceedings on annulment.

37. (1) Where an adjudication is annulled, all sales and dispositions of property and payments duly made, and all acts theretofore done, by the Court or receiver, shall be valid; but, subject as aforesaid, the property of the debtor who was adjudged insolvent shall vest in such person as the Court may appoint, or, in default of any such appointment, shall revert to the debtor to the extent of his right or interest therein on such conditions (if any) as the Court may, by order in writing, declare.

(2) Notice of every order annulling an adjudication shall be published in the local official Gazette and in such other manner as may be prescribed.

Compositions and schemes of arrangement.

Compositions and schemes of arrangement.

38. (1) Where a debtor, after the making of an order of adjudication, submits a proposal for a composition in satisfaction of his debts, or a proposal for a scheme of arrangement of his affairs, the Court shall fix a date for the consideration of the proposal, and shall issue a notice to all creditors in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) If, on the consideration of the proposal, a majority in number and three-fourths in value of all the creditors whose debts are proved and who are present in person or by pleader, resolve to accept the proposal, the same shall be deemed to be duly accepted by the creditors.

(3) The debtor may at the meeting amend the terms of his proposal if the amendment is, in the opinion of the Court, calculated to benefit the general body of creditors.

(4) Where the Court is of opinion, after hearing the report of the receiver, if a receiver has been appointed, and after considering any objections which may be made by or on behalf of any creditor, that the terms of the proposal are not reasonable or are not calculated to benefit the general body of creditors, the Court shall refuse to approve the proposal.

(5) If any facts are proved on proof of which the Court would be required either to refuse, suspend or attach conditions to the debtor's discharge, the Court shall refuse to approve the proposal unless it provides reasonable security for payment of not less than six annas in the rupee on all the unsecured debts provable against the debtor's estate.

(6) No composition or scheme shall be approved by the Court which does not provide for the payment in priority to other debts of all debts directed to be so paid in the distribution of the property of an insolvent.

(7) In any other case the Court may either approve or refuse to approve the proposal.

Order on approval.

39. If the Court approves the proposal, the terms shall be embodied in an order of the Court, and the Court shall frame a schedule in accordance with the provisions of section 33, the order of adjudication shall be annulled, and the provisions of section 37 shall apply, and the composition or scheme shall be binding on all the creditors entered in the said schedule so far as relates to any debts entered therein.

Power to re-adjudge debtor insolvent.

40. If default is made in the payment of any instalment due in pursuance of the composition or scheme, or if it appears to the Court that the composition or scheme cannot proceed without injustice or undue delay, or that the approval of the Court was obtained by fraud, the Court may, if it thinks fit, re-adjudge the debtor insolvent and annul the composition or scheme but without prejudice to the validity of any transfer or payment duly made or of anything duly done under or in pursuance of the composition or scheme. When a debtor is re-adjudged insolvent under this sub-section, all debts provable in other respects which have been contracted before the date of such adjudication shall be provable in the insolvency.

Discharge.

Discharge.

41. (1) A debtor may, at any time after the order of adjudication, and shall, within the period specified by the Court, apply to the Court for an order of discharge, and the Court shall fix a day, notice whereof shall be given in such manner as may be prescribed, for hearing such application, and any objections which may be made thereto.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this section, the Court may, after considering the objections of any creditor and, where a receiver has been appointed, the report of the receiver—

(a) grant or refuse an absolute order of discharge; or

(b) suspend the operation of the order for a specified time; or

(c) grant an order of discharge subject to any conditions with respect to any earnings or income which may afterwards become due to the insolvent, or with respect to his after-acquired property.

Cases in which Court must refuse an absolute discharge.

42. (1) The Court shall refuse to grant an absolute order of discharge under section 41 on proof of any of the following facts, namely—

(a) that the insolvent's assets are not of a value equal to eight annas in the rupee on the amount of his unsecured liabilities, unless he satisfies the Court that the fact that the assets are not of a value equal to eight annas in the rupee on the amount of his unsecured liabilities has arisen from circumstances for which he cannot justly be held responsible;

(b) that the insolvent has omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his insolvency;

(c) that the insolvent has continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent;

(d) that the insolvent has contracted any debt provable under this Act without having at the time of contracting it any reasonable or probable ground of expectation (the burden of proving which shall lie on him) that he would be able to pay it;

(e) that the insolvent has failed to account satisfactorily for any loss of assets or for any deficiency of assets to meet his liabilities;

(f) that the insolvent has brought on, or contributed to, his insolvency by rash and hazardous speculations, or by unjustifiable extravagance in living, or by gambling, or by culpable neglect of his business affairs;

(g) that the insolvent has, within three months preceding the date of the presentation of the petition, when unable to pay his debts as they became due, given an undue preference to any of his creditors;

(h) that the insolvent has on any previous occasion been adjudged an insolvent or made a composition or arrangement with his creditors;

(i) that the insolvent has concealed or removed his property or any part thereof, or has been guilty of any other fraud or fraudulent breach of trust.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the report of the receiver shall be deemed to be evidence; and the Court may presume the correctness of any statement contained therein.

(3) The powers of suspending, and of attaching conditions to, an insolvent's discharge may be exercised concurrently.

Adjudication to be annulled on failure to apply for discharge.

43. (1) If the debtor does not appear on the day fixed for hearing his application for discharge or on such subsequent day as the Court may direct, or if the debtor does not apply for an order of discharge within the period specified by the Court, the order of adjudication shall be annulled, and the provisions of section 37 shall apply accordingly.

(2) Where a debtor has been released from custody under the provisions of this Act and the order of adjudication is annulled under sub-section (1), the Court may, if it thinks fit, re-commit the debtor to his former custody, and the officer in charge of the prison to whose custody such debtor is so re-committed shall receive such debtor into his custody according to such re-commitment, and thereupon all processes which were in force against the person of such debtor at the time of such release as aforesaid shall be deemed to be still in force against him as if no order of adjudication had been made.

Effect of order of discharge.

44 (1) An order of discharge shall not release the insolvent from—

(a) any debt due to the Crown;

(b) any debt or liability incurred by means of any fraud or fraudulent breach of trust to which he was a party;—

(c) any debt or liability in respect of which he has obtained forbearance by any fraud to which he was a party; or

(d) any liability under an order for maintenance made under section 488 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898. V of 1898

(2) Save as otherwise provided by sub-section (1), an order of discharge shall release the insolvent from all debts provable under this Act.

(3) An order of discharge shall not release any person who, at the date of the presentation of the petition, was a partner or co-trustee with the insolvent, or was jointly bound or had made any joint contract with him or any person who was surety for him.

PART III.

ADMINISTRATION OF PROPERTY.

Method of proof of debts.

Debt payable at a future time.

45. A creditor may prove for a debt not payable when the debtor is adjudged an insolvent as if it were payable presently, and may receive dividends equally with the other creditors, deducting therefrom only a rebate of interest at the rate of six per centum per annum computed from the declaration of a dividend to the time when the debt would have become payable, according to the terms on which it was contracted.

Mutual dealings and set-off.

46. Where there have been mutual dealings between an insolvent and a creditor proving or claiming to prove a debt under this Act, an account shall be taken of what is due from the one party to the other in respect of such mutual dealings, and the sum due from the one party shall be set off against any sum due from the other party, and the balance of the account, and no more, shall be claimed or paid on either side respectively.

Secured creditors.

47. (1) Where a secured creditor realises his security, he may prove for the balance due to him, after deducting the net amount realised.

(2) Where a secured creditor relinquishes his security for the general benefit of the creditors, he may prove for his whole debt.

(3) Where a secured creditor does not either realise or relinquish his security, he shall, before being entitled to have his debt entered in the schedule, state in his proof the particulars of his security, and the value at which he assesses it, and shall be entitled to receive a dividend only in respect of the balance due to him after deducting the value so assessed.

(4) Where a security is so valued, the Court may at any time before realisation redeem it on payment to the creditor of the assessed value.

(5) Where a creditor, after having valued his security, subsequently realises it, the net amount realised shall be substituted for the amount of any valuation previously made by the creditor, and shall be treated in all respects as an amended valuation made by the creditor.

(6) Where a secured creditor does not comply with the provisions of this section, he shall be excluded from all share in any dividend.

Interest.

48. (1) On any debt or sum certain whereon interest is not reserved or agreed for, and which is overdue when the debtor is adjudged an insolvent, and which is provable under this Act, the creditor may prove for interest at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum,—

(a) if the debt or sum is payable by virtue of a written instrument at a certain time, from the time when such debt or sum was payable to the date of such adjudication; or

(b) if the debt or sum is payable otherwise, from the time when a demand in writing has been made giving the debtor notice that interest will be claimed from the date of the demand until the time of payment to the date of such adjudication.

(2) Where a debt which has been proved under this Act includes interest or any pecuniary consideration in lieu of interest, the interest or consideration shall, for the purposes of dividend, be calculated at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, without prejudice to the right of a creditor to receive out of the debtor's estate any higher rate of interest to which he may be entitled after all the debts proved have been paid in full.

Mode of proof.

49. (1) A debt may be proved under this Act by delivering, or sending by post in a registered letter, to the Court an affidavit verifying the debt.

(2) The affidavit shall contain or refer to a statement of account showing the particulars of the debt, and shall specify the vouchers (if any) by which the same can be substantiated. The Court may at any time call for the production of the vouchers.

Disallowance and reduction of entries in schedule.

50. (1) Where the receiver thinks that a debt has been improperly entered in the schedule the Court may, on the application of the receiver and after notice to the creditor, and such inquiry (if any) as the Court thinks necessary, expunge such entry or reduce the amount of the debt.

(2) The Court may also, after like inquiry, expunge an entry or reduce the amount of a debt upon the application of a creditor where no receiver has been appointed, or where the receiver declines to interfere in the matter or, in the case of a composition or scheme, upon the application of the debtor.

Effect of insolvency on antecedent transactions.

Restriction of rights of creditor under execution.

51. (1) Where execution of a decree has issued against the property of a debtor, no person shall be entitled to the benefit of the execution against the receiver except in respect of assets realised in the course of the execution by sale or otherwise before the date of the admission of the petition.

(2) Nothing in this section shall affect the rights of a secured creditor in respect of the property against which the decree is executed.

(3) A person who in good faith purchases the property of a debtor under a sale in execution shall in all cases acquire a good title to it against the receiver.

Duties of Court executing decree as to property taken in execution.

52. Where execution of a decree has issued against any property of a debtor which is saleable in execution and before the sale thereof notice is given to the Court executing the decree that an insolvency petition by or against the debtor has been admitted, the Court shall, on application, direct the property, if in the possession of the Court, to be delivered to the receiver, but the costs of the suit in which the decree was made and of the execution shall be a first charge on the property so delivered, and the receiver may sell the property or an adequate part thereof for the purpose of satisfying the charge.

Avoidance of voluntary transfer.

53. Any transfer of property not being a transfer made before and in consideration of marriage or made in favour of a purchaser or incumbrancer in good faith and for valuable consideration shall, if the transferor is adjudged insolvent within two years after the date of the transfer, be voidable as against the receiver and may be annulled by the Court

Avoidance of preference in certain cases.

54. (1) Every transfer of property, every payment made, every obligation incurred, and every judicial proceeding taken or suffered by any person unable to pay his debts as they become due from his own money in favour of any creditor, with a view of giving that creditor a preference over the other creditors, shall, if such person is adjudged insolvent on a petition presented within three months after the date thereof, be deemed fraudulent and void as against the receiver and shall be annulled by the Court.

(2) This section shall not affect the rights of any person who in good faith and for valuable consideration has acquired a title through or under a creditor of the insolvent.

Protection of bona fide transactions.

55. Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Act with respect to the effect of insolvency on an execution, and with respect to the avoidance of certain transfers and preferences, nothing in this Act shall invalidate in the case of an insolvency—

(a) any payment by the insolvent to any of his creditors;
(b) any payment or delivery to the insolvent;
(c) any transfer by the insolvent for valuable consideration; or (d) any contract or dealing by or with the insolvent for valuable consideration:

Provided that any such transaction takes place before the date of the order of adjudication, and that the person with whom such transaction takes place has not at the time notice of the presentation of any insolvency petition by or against the debtor.

Realisation of Property.

Appointment of receiver.

56. (1) The Court may, at the time of the order of adjudication, or at any time afterwards, appoint a receiver for the property of the insolvent, and such property shall thereupon vest in such receiver.

(2) Subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, the Court may—

(a) require the receiver to give such security as it thinks fit duly to account for what he shall receive in respect of the property; and

(b) by general or special order, fix the amount to be paid as remuneration for the services of the receiver out of the assets of the insolvent.

(3) Where the Court appoints a receiver, it may remove the person in whose possession or custody any such property as aforesaid is from the possession or custody thereof:

Provided that nothing in this section shall be deemed to authorise the Court to remove from the possession or custody of property any person whom the insolvent has not a present right so to remove.

(4) Where a receiver appointed under this section—

(a) fails to submit his accounts at such periods and in such form as the Court directs, or

(b) fails to pay the balance due from him thereon as the Court directs, or

(c) occasions loss to the property by his wilful default or gross negligence, the Court may direct his property to be attached and sold, and may apply the proceeds to make good any balance found to be due from him or any loss so occasioned by him.

(5) The provisions of this section shall apply, so far as may be, to interim receivers appointed under section 20.

Power to appoint Official Receivers.

57. (1) The Local Government may appoint such persons as it thinks fit (to be called "Official Receivers") to be receivers under this Act within such local limits as it may prescribe.

(2) Where any Official Receiver has been so appointed for the local limits of the jurisdiction of any Court having jurisdiction under this Act, he shall be the receiver for the purpose of every order appointing a receiver or an interim receiver issued by any such Court, unless the Court for special reasons otherwise directs.

(3) Any sum payable under clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 56 in respect of the services of an Official Receiver shall be credited to such fund as the Local Government may direct.

(4) Every Official Receiver shall receive such remuneration out of the said fund or otherwise as the Local Government may fix in this behalf, and no remuneration whatever beyond that so fixed shall be received by the Official Receiver as such.

Powers of Court if no receiver appointed.

58. Where no receiver is appointed, the Court shall have all the rights of, and may exercise all the powers conferred on, a receiver under this Act.

Duties and powers of a receiver.

59. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the receiver shall, with all convenient speed, realise the property of the debtor and distribute dividends among the creditors entitled thereto, and for that purpose may—

(a) sell all or any part of the property of the insolvent;

(b) give receipts for any money received by him;

and may, by leave of the Court, do all or any of the following things, namely:—

(c) carry on the business of the insolvent so far as may be necessary for the beneficial winding up of the same;

(d) institute, defend or continue any suit or other legal proceeding relating to the property of the insolvent;

(e) employ a pleader or other agent to take any proceedings or do any business which may be sanctioned by the Court;

(f) accept as the consideration for the sale of any property of the insolvent a sum of money payable at a future time subject to such stipulations as to security and otherwise as the Court thinks fit;

(g) mortgage or pledge any part of the property of the insolvent for the purpose of raising money for the payment of his debts;

(h) refer any dispute to arbitration, and compromise all debts, claims and liabilities, on such terms as may be agreed upon; and

(i) divide in its existing form amongst the creditors, according to its estimated value, any property which, from its peculiar nature or other special circumstances, cannot readily or advantageously be sold.

Special provisions as regard to immovable property.

60. (1) In any local area in which a declaration has been made under section 68 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, and is in force, no sale of immovable property paying revenue to the Government or held or let for agricultural purposes shall be made by the receiver; but, after the other property of the insolvent has been realized, the Court shall ascertain— V of 1908.

(a) the amount required to satisfy the debts proved under this Act after deducting the monies already received;

(b) the immovable property of the insolvent remaining unsold; and

(c) the incumbrances (if any) existing thereon;

and shall forward a statement to the Collector containing the particulars aforesaid; and thereupon the Collector shall proceed to raise the amount so required by the exercise of such of the powers conferred on him by paragraphs 2 to 10 of the Third Schedule to the said Code as he thinks fit, and subject to the provisions of those paragraphs so far as they are applicable, and shall hold at the disposal of the Court all sums that may come to his hands by the exercise of such powers.

(2) Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to affect any provisions of any enactment for the time being in force prohibiting or restricting the execution of decrees or orders against immovable property; and any such provisions shall be deemed to apply to the enforcement of an order of adjudication made under this Act as if it were such a decree or order.

Distribution of Property.

Priority of debts.

61. (1) In the distribution of the property of the insolvent, there shall be paid in priority to all other debts—

(a) all debts due to the Crown or to any local authority; and

(b) all salary or wages, not exceeding twenty rupees in all, of any clerk, servant or labourer in respect of services rendered to the insolvent during four months before the date of the presentation of the petition.

(2) The debts specified in sub-section (1) shall rank equally between themselves, and shall be paid in full, unless the property of the insolvent is insufficient to meet them, in which case they shall abate in equal proportions between themselves

(3) Subject to the retention of such sums as may be necessary for the expenses of administration or otherwise, the debts specified in sub-section (1) shall be discharged forthwith in so far as the property of the insolvent is sufficient to meet them.

(4) In the case of partners, the partnership property shall be applicable in the first instance in payment of the partnership debts, and the separate property of each partner shall be applicable in the first instance in payment of his separate debts. Where there is a surplus of the separate property of the partners, it shall be dealt with as part of the partnership property; and where there is a surplus of the partnership property, it shall be dealt with as part of the respective separate property in proportion to the rights and interests of each partner in the partnership property.

(5) Subject to the provisions of this Act, all debts entered in the schedule shall be paid rateably according to the amounts of such debts respectively and without any preference.

(6) Where there is any surplus after payment of the foregoing debts, it shall be applied in payment of interest from the date on which the debtor is adjudged an insolvent at the rate of six per centum per annum on all debts entered in the schedule.

Calculation of dividends.

62. (1) In the calculation of dividends, the receiver shall retain in his hands sufficient assets to meet—

(a) debts provable under this Act and appearing, from the insolvent's statements or otherwise, to be due to persons resident in places so distant that in the ordinary course of communication they have not had sufficient time to tender their proofs;

(b) debts provable under this Act, the subject of claims not yet determined;

(c) disputed proofs or claims; and

(d) the expenses necessary for the administration of the estate or otherwise.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (1), all money in hand shall be distributed as dividends.

Right of creditor who has not proved debt before declaration of a dividend.

63. Any creditor who has not proved his debt before the declaration of any dividend or dividends shall be entitled to be paid, out of any money for the time being in the hands of the receiver, any dividend or dividends which he may have failed to receive before that money is applied to the payment of any future dividend or dividends; but he shall not be entitled to disturb the distribution of any dividend declared before his debt was proved by reason that he has not participated therein.

Final dividend.

64. When the receiver has realized all the property of the insolvent or so much thereof as can, in the opinion of the Court, be realized without needlessly protracting the receivership, he shall declare a final dividend; but before so doing, he shall give notice in manner prescribed to the persons whose claims to be creditors have been notified but not proved, that if they do not prove their claims within the time limited by the notice, he will proceed to make a final dividend without regard to their claims. After the expiration of the time so limited, or if the Court, on application by any such claimant, grants him further time for establishing his claim, then on the expiration of such further time, the property of the insolvent shall be divided among the creditors entered in the schedule without regard to the claims of any other persons.

No suit for dividend.

65. No suit for a dividend shall lie against the receiver; but where the receiver refuses to pay any dividend, the Court may, on the application of any creditor who is entered in the schedule, order him to pay it; and also to pay out of his own money interest thereon for the time that it is withheld, and the costs of the application.

Management by and allowance to insolvent.

66. (1) The Court may appoint the insolvent himself to superintend the management of the property of the insolvent or of any part thereof, or to carry on the trade (if any) of the insolvent for the benefit of the creditors, and in any other respect to aid in administering the property in such manner and on such terms as the Court may direct.

(2) The Court may, from time to time, make such allowance as it may think just to the insolvent out of his property for the support of himself and his family, or in consideration of his services if he is engaged in winding up his estate; but any such allowance may, at any time, be varied or determined by the Court.

Right of insolvent to surplus.

67. The insolvent shall be entitled to any surplus remaining after payment in full of his creditors, with interest as provided by this Act, and of the expenses of the proceedings taken thereunder.

Appeal to Court against receiver.

Appeal to Court against receiver.

68. If the insolvent or any of the creditors or any other person is aggrieved by any act or decision of the receiver, he may apply to the Court, and the Court may confirm, reverse or modify the act or decision complained of, and make such order as it thinks just:

Provided that no application under this section shall be entertained after the expiration of twenty-one days from the date of the act or decision complained of.

PART IV.

PENALTIES.

Offences by debtors.

69. If a debtor, whether before or after the making of an order of adjudication,—

(a) wilfully fails to perform the duties imposed on him by section 22 or to deliver up possession of any part of his property which is divisible among his creditors under this Act, and which is for the time being in his possession or under his control to the Court or to any person authorized by the Court to take possession of it, or

(b) fraudulently with intent to conceal the state of his affairs or to defeat the objects of this Act,—

(i) has destroyed or otherwise wilfully prevented or purposely withheld the production of any document relating to such of his affairs as are subject to investigation under this Act, or

(ii) has kept or caused to be kept false books, or

(iii) has made false entries in or withheld entries from or wilfully altered or falsified any document relating to such of his affairs as are subject to investigation under this Act, or

(c) fraudulently with intent to diminish the sum to be divided among his creditors or to give an undue preference to any of his creditors,—

(i) has discharged or concealed any debt due to or from him, or

(ii) has made away with, charged, mortgaged or concealed any part of his property of any kind whatsoever, he shall be punishable on conviction by the Court with imprisonment which may extend to one year.

Procedure on charge under section 69.

70. (1) Where the Court is satisfied that there is ground for inquiring into any offence referred to in section 69, the Court shall direct that a notice be served on the debtor in the manner prescribed in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, for service of a summons, calling on him to show cause why a charge or charges should not be framed against him. V of 1898.

(2) The notice shall set forth the substance of the offence, and any number of offences may be set forth in the same notice.

(3) At the hearing of such notice and of any charge framed in pursuance thereof, the Court shall, so far as may be, follow the procedure for the trial of warrant cases by Magistrates prescribed by Chapter XXI of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, and nothing in Chapter XXIII of the said Code relating to trials before High Courts and Courts of Session shall be applicable to such trial. V of 1898.

(4) Any number of offences under this section may be charged at the same time:

Provided that no debtor shall be sentenced to imprisonment exceeding an aggregate period of two years for offences under this section committed in the course of the same insolvency proceeding.

(5) The Court may, instead of itself inquiring into an offence under section 69, make a complaint thereof in writing to the nearest Magistrate of the first class having jurisdiction, and such Magistrate shall deal with such complaint in the manner laid down in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898: V of 1898.

Provided that it shall not be necessary to examine the complainant.

Criminal liability after discharge or composition.

71. Where an insolvent has been guilty of any of the offences specified in section 69, he shall not be exempt from being proceeded against therefor by reason that he has obtained his discharge or that a composition or scheme of arrangement has been accepted or approved.

Undischarged insolvent obtaining credit.

72. (1) An undischarged insolvent obtaining credit to the extent of fifty rupees or upwards from any person without informing such person that he is an undischarged insolvent shall, on conviction by a Magistrate, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine, or with both.

(2) Where the Court has reason to believe that an undischarged insolvent has committed the offence referred to in sub-section (1), the Court, after making any preliminary inquiry that may be necessary, may send the case for trial to the nearest Magistrate of the first class, and may send the accused in custody or take sufficient security for his appearance before such Magistrate; and may bind over any person to appear and give evidence on such trial.

Disqualifications of insolvent.

73. (1) Where a debtor is adjudged or readjudged insolvent under this Act, he shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be disqualified from—

(a) being appointed or acting as a Magistrate;

(b) being elected to any office of any local authority where the appointment to such office is by election or holding or exercising any such office to which no salary is attached; and

(c) being elected or sitting or voting as member of any local authority.

(2) The disqualifications which an insolvent is subject to under this section shall be removed, and shall cease if—

(a) the order of adjudication is annulled under section 35, or

(b) he obtains from the Court an order of discharge whether absolute or conditional with a certificate that his insolvency was caused by misfortune without any misconduct on his part.

(3) The Court may grant or refuse such certificate as it thinks fit, but any order of refusal shall be subject to appeal.

PART V.

SUMMARY ADMINISTRATION.

Summary administration.

74. When a petition is presented by or against a debtor, if the Court is satisfied by affidavit or otherwise that the property of the debtor is not likely to exceed in value five hundred rupees, the Court may make an order that the debtor's estate be administered in a summary manner, and thereupon the provisions of this Act shall be subject to the following modifications, namely:—

(i) unless the Court otherwise directs, no notice required under this Act, shall be published in the local official Gazette;

(ii) on the admission of a petition by a debtor, the property of the debtor shall vest in the Court as a receiver;

(iii) at the hearing of the petition, the Court shall inquire into the debts and assets of the debtor, and determine the same by order in writing, and it shall not be necessary to frame a schedule under the provisions of section 33;

(iv) the property of the debtor shall be realised with all reasonable despatch and thereafter, when practicable, distributed in a single dividend;

(v) the debtor shall apply for his discharge within six months from the date of adjudication; and

(vi) such other modifications as may be prescribed with the view of saving expense and simplifying procedure:

Provided that the Court may at any time direct that the ordinary procedure provided for in this Act shall be followed in regard to the debtor's estate, and thereafter the Act shall have effect accordingly.

PART VI

APPEALS.

Appeals.

75. (1) The debtor, any creditor, the receiver or any other person aggrieved by a decision come to or an order made in the exercise of insolvency jurisdiction by a Court subordinate to a District Court may appeal to the District Court, and the order of the District Court upon such appeal shall be final:

Provided that the High Court, for the purpose of satisfying itself that an order made in any appeal decided by the District Court was according to law, may call for the case and pass such order with respect thereto as it thinks fit:

Provided, further, that any such person aggrieved by a decision of the District Court on appeal from a decision of a subordinate Court under section 4 may appeal to the High Court on any of the grounds mentioned in sub-section (1) of section 100 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908

V of 1908.

(2) Any such person aggrieved by any such decision or order of a District Court as is specified in Schedule 1, come to or made otherwise than in appeal from an order made by a subordinate Court, may appeal to the High Court.

(3) Any such person aggrieved by any other order made by a District Court otherwise than in appeal from an order made by a subordinate Court may appeal to the High Court by leave of the District Court or of the High Court.

(4) The periods of limitation for appeals to the District Court and to the High Court under this section shall be thirty days and ninety days, respectively.

PART VII.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Costs.

76. The costs of any proceeding under this Act, including the costs of maintaining a debtor in the civil prison, shall, subject to any rules made under this Act, be in the discretion of the Court in which the proceeding is had.

Courts to be auxiliary to each other.

77. All Courts having jurisdiction in insolvency and the officers of such Courts respectively shall severally act in aid of and be auxiliary to each other in all matters of insolvency, and an order of a Court seeking aid with a request to another of the said Courts shall be deemed sufficient to enable the latter Court to exercise, in regard to the matters directed by the order, such jurisdiction as either of such Courts could exercise in regard to similar matters within their respective jurisdictions.

Limitation.

78. (1) The provisions of sections 5 and 12 of the Indian Limitation Act, 1908, shall apply to appeals and applications under this Act, and for the purpose of the said section 12, a decision under section 4 shall be deemed to be a decree. IX of 1908.

(2) Where an order of adjudication has been annulled under this Act, in computing the period of limitation prescribed for any suit or application for the execution of a decree (other than a suit or application in respect of which the leave of the Court was obtained under sub-section (2) of section 28) which might have been brought or made but for the making of an order of adjudication under this Act, the period from the date of the order of adjudication to the date of the order of annulment shall be excluded:

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to a suit or application in respect of a debt provable but not proved under this Act.

Power to make rules

79. (1) The High Court may, with the previous sanction, in the case of the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, of the Governor General in Council, and, in the case of any other High Court, of the Local Government, make rules for carrying into effect the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide—

(a) for the appointment and remuneration of receivers (other than Official Receivers), the audit of the accounts of all receivers and the costs of such audit,

(b) for meetings of creditors,

(c) for the procedure to be followed where the debtor is a firm, and

(d) for the procedure to be followed in the case of estates to be administered in a summary manner.

(3) All rules made under this section shall be published in the Gazette of India or in the local official Gazette, as the case may be, and shall, on such publication, have effect as if enacted in this Act.

Delegation of powers to Official Receivers.

80. (1) The High Court, with the like sanction, may from time to time direct that, in any matters in respect of which jurisdiction is given to the Court by this Act, the Official Receiver shall, subject to the directions of the Court, have all or any of the following powers, namely:—

(a) to hear insolvency petitions, to examine the debtor and to make orders of adjudication;

(b) to frame schedules and to admit or reject proofs of creditors;

(c) to grant orders of discharge;

(d) to approve compositions or schemes of arrangement;

(e) to make interim orders in any case of urgency; and

(f) to hear and determine any unopposed or ex parte application.

(2) Subject to the appeal to the Court provided for by section 68, any order made or act done by the Official Receiver in the exercise of the said powers shall be deemed the order or act of the Court.

Power of Local Government to bar application of certain provisions in certain Courts.

81. Any Local Government, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, may, by notification in the local official Gazette, declare that any of the provisions of this Act specified in Schedule II shall not apply to insolvency proceedings in any Court or Courts having jurisdiction under this Act in any part of the territories administered by such Local Government.

Savings.

82. Nothing in this Act shall—

(a) affect the Presidency-towns Insolvency Act, 1909, or section 8 of the Lower Burma Courts Act, 1900, or III of 1909.

(b) apply to cases to which Chapter IV of the Dekkhan Agriculturists' Relief Act, 1879, is applicable. VI of 1909. XVII 1879

Repeals

83. (1) The enactments mentioned in Schedule III are hereby repealed to the extent specified in the fourth column thereof.

(2) Where in any enactment or instrument in force at the date of the commencement of this Act, reference is made to Chapter XX (of Insolvent Judgment-debtors) of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1877, or of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1882, or to any section of either of those chapters, such reference shall, so far as may be practicable, be construed as applying to this Act or to the corresponding section thereof.

A. P. MUDDIMAN,
Secretary to the Government of India.

The following Act of the Indian Legislative Council received the assent of the Governor-General on the 25th February, 1920, and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No VI OF 1920

[AS PASSED IN COUNCIL.]

An Act to amend the Inland Steam-vessels Act, 1917

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Inland Steam-vessels Act, 1917; It is I of 1917.
hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Inland Steam-vessels (Amendment) Act, 1920.

Insertion of new section 22-A in Act I of 1917. 2. After section 22 of the Inland Steam-vessels Act, 1917 I of 1917,
(hereinafter referred to as the said Act), the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

Licences "22-A. (1) The Local Government may also, in its discretion, grant—

(a) to a person who is in possession of a second-class master's certificate granted under section 21 or section 22, and has, by virtue of such certificate, acted as master of an inland steam-vessel having engines of forty or more nominal horse-power for a period of not less than five years; or

(b) to a person who is in possession of a first-class engine-driver's certificate granted under section 21 or section 22, or an engine-driver's certificate granted under the Indian Steam-ships Act, 1884, and has, by virtue of such certificate, VII of 1884.
served as an engine-driver of an inland steam-vessel having engines of not less than seventy nominal horse-power for five years, for not less than two and a half years, of which period he has been the engine-driver of such vessel within the meaning of section 28, a licence authorising such person to act as master or engineer, as the case may be, of any inland steam-vessel having engines of one hundred and seventy nominal horse-power or of such less nominal horse-power as to such Government may deem fit.

(2) Any such licence shall remain in force only for such time as the person holding the same is in possession of and entitled to a master's or an engine-driver's certificate, as the case may be, of the nature referred to in sub-section (1):

Provided that the Local Government may, in its discretion, suspend, cancel or vary the conditions of any such licence."

Amendment of section 23, Act I of 1917. 3. In section 23 of the said Act, after the word "service" the words "and every licence" shall be inserted, and after the words "entitled to the certificate" the words "or licence" shall be inserted.

Amendment of section 24, Act I of 1917. 4. In section 24 of the said Act, after the word "certificate" in each place where it occurs, the words "or licence" shall be inserted.

Amendment of section 25, Act I of 1917. 5. In section 25 of the said Act—

(1) for the word "eighty" the words "one hundred" shall be substituted.

(2) In clause (a), after the words and figures "Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," the following words shall be inserted, namely:—

"or a master's licence granted under section 22-A and applicable to such vessel and voyage."

(3) At the end of clause (b), the following words shall be added, namely:—

"or an engine-driver's licence granted under section 22-A and applicable to such vessel and voyage."

Amendment of section 26, Act I of 1917. 6. In section 26 of the said Act, for the word "thirty" the word "forty" and for the word "eighty" the words "one hundred," shall be substituted.

Amendment of section 27, Act I of 1917. 7. In section 27 of the said Act, for the word "thirty" the word "forty" shall be substituted.

Insertion of new section 30-A in Act I of 1917

8. After section 30 of the said Act the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

Power for Local Government to make rules as to grant of licences

"30-A. The Local Government may also make rules to regulate the granting of licences under section 22-A, and may by such rules prescribe in particular—

(a) the fees (if any) to be paid for such licences, and

(b) the forms in which such licences are to be framed and the authority by whom and the manner in which copies are to be kept and recorded under section 23."

Amendment of section 31, Act I of 1917.

9 (1) In section 31 of the said Act, after the word "service" where it first occurs the words "and licences" shall be inserted.

(2) In clause (a) of the said section, after the word "serang" the words "and a licence" shall be inserted.

(3) In the proviso to the said section, after the word "certificate" in each place where it occurs, the words "or licence" shall be inserted.

Amendment of section 59, Act I of 1917.

10 (1) In clause (a) of section 59 of the said Act, after the words "engine-driver's certificate" the words "or a master's or engine-driver's licence" shall be inserted.

(2) In clause (b) of the said section, after the words "such certificate" the words "or licence" shall be added.

A. P. MUDDIMAN,
Secretary to the Government of India.

The following Act of the Indian Legislative Council received the assent of the Governor General on the 25th February 1920 and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. VII OF 1920.

[AS PASSED IN COUNCIL.]

An Act further to amend the Indian Tariff Act, 1894.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Tariff Act, 1894; It is hereby enacted as follows:— VIII of 1894.

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Indian Tariff (Amendment) Act, 1920. VIII of 1894.

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur Sir P. RAJAGOPALA ACHARIYAR :—"I beg to introduce the heads XX-A and 24-A. Medical"

RESOLUTION RE GRANT TO SALEM DISTRICT BOARD FOR HOSPITALS AND DISPENSARIES.

The resolution standing in the name of the Hon'ble Mr. B. V. Narasimha Ayyar was as follows :—

"XIX. This Council recommends to His Excellency in Council that the provision of 43·54 lakhs under 24-A. MEDICAL be increased by Rs. 30,000 for enabling the Salem District Board to continue its hospitals and dispensaries, and that a sum of Rs. 30,000 be deducted under the head 45. CIVIL."

The Hon'ble Mr. B. V. NARASIMHA AYYAR :—"I thought the Honourable Member was likely to make a statement as to having received a request from the Salem District Board. If the Honourable Member will make a statement, probably Resolution No. XIX will be avoided."

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur Sir P. RAJAGOPALA ACHARIYAR :—"This is how the matter stands. We have not yet received the remarks of the Director of Public Instruction, the Surgeon-General and the Sanitary Commissioner on the Salem District Board budget. That budget as framed by the District Board closes with a balance under general funds of Rs. 21,760, which is more than the 2½ per cent minimum balance prescribed by the latest orders. The cost of maintaining the three dispensaries, presumably those at Tolli, Rayakotta and Mathur, was only Rs. 3,006 in 1918 and there should be no difficulty in providing that sum from the closing balance of the budget while leaving the District Board with the minimum balance prescribed by the rules. I assume the Hon'ble the Surgeon-General is of the opinion that these dispensaries should continue to be maintained. That being so, we shall probably vote the proposal to close the three dispensaries."

The Hon'ble Mr. C. V. NARASIMHA AYYAR :—"I thank the Honourable Member for the statement because such a statement was very much needed to allay the great fear that the dispensaries were going to be closed and thus people being prevented from having medical relief."

With the permission of His Excellency the President, the resolution was withdrawn.

RESOLUTION RE PROVISION FOR A WOMEN'S MEDICAL SERVICE AND A WOMEN'S MEDICAL SCHOOL.

The Hon'ble Mr. B. V. NARASIMHA AYYAR then moved the following resolution :—

"XX. This Council recommends to His Excellency in Council that the provision of 43·54 lakhs under 24 A. MEDICAL be increased by Rs. 65,000 for the constitution of a women's subordinate medical service and the creation of a medical school for women at Madras and that a corresponding deduction be made under 45. CIVIL."

6TH FEBRUARY 1920. (Mr. Narasimha Ayyar; Mr. Narasimha Raju, the President; the Surgeon-General.)

In doing so he said:—"I think this is a matter on which I should have expected equal fight. The resolution asks for a provision for a women's medical service and a women's medical school at Madras. Now these are matters on which I am quite sure the Surgeon-General ought to fight more than myself or any other lay member. The necessity for providing medical relief for women is appreciated and understood all through and these institutions have been proposed and the policy has been accepted by this Government. The question is as to the provision of money in this budget. I presume that when the Government first put down its proposals and allotted sums mentioned against them in the original Draft Financial Statement there was a good chance of getting them through the budget and then I understand that subsequent proceedings are not quite specific as to the reasons for dropping it. Of course they suggest there are difficulties in the way but I fancy that the difficulties even now may be put forward as want of funds. If it is put forward as want of funds, I think a large number of members are of opinion that it should not be very difficult to provide a comparatively very small sum for this important service. If the Surgeon-General thinks that there are other difficulties, that would be a different matter. I submit to the Honourable Member that it is much better to make provision for these institutions."

The Hon'ble Mr. C. V. S. NARASIMHA RAJU:—"Your Excellency, I have given notice of a resolution (No XXI) which also is for the establishment of a medical school for women at Madras. Since both these resolutions (Nos XX and XXI) are analagous, I wish to second this resolution. No doubt the sources from which the cost is to be met are different. Is that resolution to be moved separately?"

His Excellency the PRESIDENT:—"I think we can discuss both the resolutions together."

The Hon'ble MR. C. V. S. NARASIMHA RAJU:—"My resolution runs as follows:—

'XXI. This Council recommends to His Excellency the Governor in Council that the budget allotment under "24-A. (d) Medical College and schools" may be raised by Rs. 50,000 for opening a medical school for women at Madras and to make a corresponding deduction under the head "24-A. (b) Medical hospitals and dispensaries" by omitting X-Ray Institute at Madras and by reducing the provision for addition to the nursing staff in the General Hospital by Rs. 20,000.'

"Regarding the establishment of a medical school for women, Your Excellency, a resolution was moved by the Hon'ble Mr. Yaqub Hasan in April 1918, and it was accepted by the Government and the resolution says that a medical school for women is to be started at an early date. Without any discussion on the resolution it was accepted by the Government and one year has passed without any provision being made and though a provision had been made in the Draft Financial Statement, thanks to the labours of the Finance Committee, it was omitted by the Finance Committee and the provision was transferred for certain institutions in the metropolis. But it may be noted that starting a medical school for women is a measure which is beneficial for rural areas and sacrifices are to be made in the interest of rural areas. To provide funds for opening an X-Ray Institute at Madras and for the addition of nursing staff in the General Hospital at Madras are, I think, quite against the interests of rural areas and more especially so when a provision for the institution of a medical school at Madras for women is omitted in order to open an X-Ray Institute and strengthen the nursing staff. It looks extraordinary to me that that provision should be omitted and provision should be made for the other two objects. That is the reason why my resolution stated that the cost of this institution should be met by curtailing the provision for the other two purposes that were substituted by the Finance Committee. With these words I second the resolution that is moved by the Hon'ble Mr. Narasimha Ayyar."

The Hon'ble the SURGEON-GENERAL:—"Your Excellency, I rise to oppose both resolutions not because I am in any way opposed to the ideas contained in them but because I think that a very small amount of explanation will enable them both to be withdrawn. The reason for the existence of these resolutions is probably a misunderstanding of exactly what we are doing. Nobody wishes to see a medical school for women in Madras more than I do and I understand the Government intend to push it forward as quickly as possible. But I think the Honourable the mover of the resolution will agree that it is no use putting money in the budget for the upkeep of a medical school until we have got a medical school. The medical school for women is proposed to be built near the Ice House on the Marina between the Ice House and Queen Mary's College. Preliminary steps have already been taken and probably the building would have been begun had it not been for the great difficulty in finding a Consulting Architect and getting the plans and estimates ready in time. When last I saw the plans they were practically complete and the estimates, I understand, are now being prepared so that we need not put money in the budget this year for the running of the school which cannot possibly be finished. It will probably take two years.

"As to the other subject of the X-Ray Institute in Madras and increase to the nursing staff in the General Hospital, Madras, the Honourable mover stated that he thought that it is quite against the interests of the rural areas that money should be spent on these objects in Madras. I have to say at once that I must absolutely disagree with him. The money spent on these institutions will be just as useful for the mufassal as for the Madras City. The great need, in our opinion, of the mufassal hospitals including the mufassal headquarter hospitals which have been taken over lately by Government is the need for nurses and at the present moment we may almost say that there is not a single mufassal hospital where there is a good nursing service. There are a few headquarter hospitals which entertain nurses but, in some instances they are only half-trained and in other instances they are not trained at all. In Vizagapatam for instance the French Sisters are not trained nurses. In Tanjore they are trained in a way which we in England would not consider to be sufficiently trained. In Cuddalore I understand it is the same. In most up-country hospitals there is no nursing at all, the only nurses entertained being midwives with only a very short training. Therefore the medical profession has considered that the greatest hospital in Madras, the General Hospital, where nursing can be done properly and where the nurses can be taught properly and where there are matrons and assistant matrons, should be made a training college for nurses, both Europeans and Indians, and we propose to start a class for Indian nurses in the General Hospital in Madras and quarters are being built in the compound at the present moment. With this explanation the Honourable Member will understand that the establishment of a thoroughly up-to-date and properly equipped training college for nurses in the General Hospital will not only be of advantage to the General Hospital but will certainly be a great advantage to the mufassal. The same argument applies in the X-Ray Institute. I will try to explain what an X-Ray Institute means. An X-Ray Institute is a place where the latest and best development of not only X-Ray work—Radiography—but all other kindred electrical forms of treatment and diagnosis may be established. We in Madras at the present moment are hopelessly behindhand and I say this because during the war I have seen what can be done in this direction. Every big hospital at the Base in France was better equipped with X-Ray and medical therapy than in Madras. It is my intention if possible to have at least one first class installation in Madras and we have been lucky enough to have been able to obtain the services of a thoroughly expert officer who is being demobilized and coming here as our expert. When this is done, we shall be able to train young Indian assistant surgeons in this kind of work. At the present moment we have great difficulty in finding men who first of all are willing to be trained, secondly we ought to have an electrical department in each of the schools, Tanjore, Vizagapatam, Calicut and Madura, and we shall require them eventually at the headquarters of every district. It is proposed to set up the X-Ray Institute in Madras in a private house as we cannot find any other accommodation, the plant being in the hands of an expert. The plant we now have in the General and Maternity Hospitals being in the hands of comparative amateurs are damaged. The plant at Tanjore and Vizagapatam hospitals are mere playthings. So that I contend that when we set up in Madras an X-Ray Institute the mufassal will gain quite as much as Madras. I hope this resolution will not be pressed for the reasons which I have now given.

"With regard to a women's medical service, I have made a very careful and detailed inquiry from all the women doctors in the Madras Presidency and asked them individually to give their opinion whether they will or will not join a service, assuming the Government are prepared to take them. Those gentlemen who come from up-country will know that there are some very old fashioned apothecary ladies who have been for many years in the stations which they look upon as their homes and who are married or unmarried. These ladies say 'we have made our homes here, we are satisfied with our present pay and we will not join the service.' I have been able to compile this small form which shows that there are 44 women doctors of various ranks and various ages and attainments employed in the Madras Presidency. Of these sixteen admit that they would like to join the service. I need hardly say all of them are young women. Fourteen refuse absolutely and fourteen make conditions which we are not likely to be accepted. I doubt whether it is worth while at the present moment to put money in the budget to start a service with sixteen women to join it. I am not sure whether I am prepared to advise the Government to accept this proposal. The matter is still under inquiry and I do not ask the Government for money this year as the matter is not so urgent as many other medical requirements."

The Hon'ble YAQUB HASAN SAHIB Bahadur:—"Your Excellency, I have been taking interest in the subject of medical relief for women. When I moved the resolution urging the establishment of hospitals and dispensaries in certain districts, the Hon'ble Sir Alexander Cardew stated that women doctors were not available and that till women doctors were available no women's dispensaries could be started. Then I moved a resolution for the establishment of a medical school for women. Surgeon General Bannerman was very sympathetic with that resolution and I was very glad to find that in a Government communiqué the necessity of a women's school was admitted and it was announced that the school would be brought into existence very shortly. Then later on no provision was made in the budget and I drew the attention of the Government and then some sort of qualifying promise was made. This year again provision was made for Rs. 50,000 in the budget, but I was very much surprised to find that the Finance Committee removed that provision and substituted provision for X-Ray Institute and nursing home. I realise the necessity of the institute for X-Rays and nursing homes. I cannot understand why the Hon'ble Mr. Narasimha Raju wanted these two items to be omitted. I am glad to note from the speech of the Hon'ble the Surgeon-General that the question of establishing a school is not lost sight of altogether and that, if I understand him rightly, arrangement is being made to construct a suitable building for the school. If Government wanted to establish the school at an early date, they could easily find some building to locate it in. At any rate it is much better that a small beginning is made rather than no beginning is made at all. I fail to see why no provision was made for the building of the school.

"As for the women's subordinate medical service everybody was under the impression that men or women always prefer Government service to municipal service. I cannot understand why some of these ladies prefer municipal service. At any rate 16 have decided to join the service, 14 have refused and the other 14 are undecided. So I hope that if the thing is placed before them and if the number of women medical practitioners increases time will come when we will have a good efficient service of subordinate medical women. All that I wish to urge at this hour is that Government will keep that in view and try to encourage it instead of throwing cold water as has sometimes been done. Now that the Hon'ble the Surgeon-General is interested in this matter, I hope he will do something in the course of the year to make the women's medical service as well as the women's medical school accomplished facts."

The Hon'ble Mr. J. F. SIMPSON:—"Your Excellency, I rise to oppose both these resolutions. Not that I do so on the ground that I oppose the establishment of a Women's Medical College at Madras on the contrary I am very much in favour of such an institution. During the past 12 months or so I have been connected with the Gosha Hospital and I have become convinced of the vital necessity of a Women's Medical College at Madras; and I have also become convinced that the Government is going to establish a college and that at no distant date. I am also convinced that when the Government does establish such a college it will be second to none in any place in India. In the Madras Presidency we have always taken the lead in medical science. Speaking as a lay man we know that Madras has led the way in the General Hospital, Ophthalmic Hospital and Maternity Hospital and it will lead the way in a Medical College for Women also. But to seek to establish a women's medical college at the expense of the proposed X-Ray Institute or the nursing staff of the General Hospital would be a retrograde step. I consider the Surgeon-General's arguments are unanswerable and trust the resolutions will be withdrawn."

The Hon'ble Mr. B. V. NARASIMHA AYYAR:—"May I request information from the Surgeon-General whether it would be possible to work the medical school for women in a rented building?"

The Hon'ble the SURGEON-GENERAL:—"There are considerable difficulties about starting a medical school for women at once which have to be overcome. Firstly, as regards the rented building many people hold in Madras that Government have already occupied too many private buildings for public purposes and I am sure that if I take up another there will be an outcry. But if the Government wish me to do so, I will try and find a building. Secondly, I have already told you that there are only a small number of lady doctors and very few of these are sufficiently well educated to teach; and that is why we do not propose to start a medical college. It is entirely out of the question at present. The difference between a medical school and a college is that a medical college is very much larger and a more expensive affair and has to be affiliated to a University and this is beyond our means at present. But the medical school can be started in a private house if we can get one. Further at the present moment we have not got the staff. That is the difficulty. The missionaries of the Southern India have started and are working most successfully a medical school for women at Vellore. In the first year, every student from that school passed at the first examination and four passed in the first class which is quite unprecedented in the history of medical education in Southern India. The Government have given the school large grants, but there also is the difficulty in finding medical women teachers. If they are getting them out from England, the Madras Government also will feel equal difficulties. In the midst of these difficulties, I cannot open at present a medical school for women. If we have indifferent teachers, you will naturally have indifferent scholars and as you know the great majority of women doctors employed in this country are not graduates. They have only the apothecary qualifications. It is very doubtful whether any of these can be trusted to teach students. However, if the case is to be definitely put to me by Government 'Can you start a medical school in a private house' I shall inquire and get one, but I am afraid there are considerable difficulties. In England more and more women are being educated and they will come on the market in a year or two, as it takes five years (generally six) to make a woman a medical graduate. At present they show very little desire to come to India either in the Women's Indian Medical Service or for missionary employ. We certainly cannot start a women's medical school in Madras with the two existing ladies at the Gosha Hospital."

The Hon'ble Mr. B. V. NARASIMHA AYYAR:—"Not even next year?"

The Hon'ble the SURGEON-GENERAL:—"I do not know. We are dealing with the budget of this year."

The Hon'ble Mr. B. V. NARASIMHA AYYAR:—"After the information furnished by the Surgeon-General it would appear to me not to be reasonable to press this resolution. He has made certain observations which certainly cast a gloom over the prospect of a medical school because from what he said it does not appear that people will be found even for the next year.

(Mr. Narasimha Ayyar; the President; Mr. Narasimha Raju; the Surgeon-General.) [6TH FEBRUARY 1920.

Even though his first speech was disappointing we hope the building will come next year. But he winds up by saying that though we take up rented buildings we have to find teachers. I hope Your Excellency's Government will make inquiries whether a school can be started so that apart from the budget, the matter may be discussed and we may solve the difficulty of finding teachers. I do not wish to press the resolution."

His Excellency the PRESIDENT:—"I really do not think that my Honourable friend has correctly interpreted the Surgeon-General's remarks. Most of the members will take the view that I take that my Honourable friend will be most anxious to extend the general teaching of women and women nursing throughout the Presidency and although there are difficulties in the way he will take the earliest opportunity of forwarding the scheme. That I think is the position. I hope my Honourable friend will not go away with a gloomy prospect."

The Hon'ble Mr. B. V. NARASIMHA AYYAR:—"I hope the Hon'ble Surgeon-General will do his best to try to get the teachers. I do not press the resolution."

With the permission of His Excellency the President, the resolutions were withdrawn.

RESOLUTION RE PROVISION FOR ITINERANT SUB-ASSISTANT SURGEONS IN THE MUFASSAL.

The Hon'ble Mr. C. V. S NARASIMHA RAJU:—"The resolution which I wish to move runs thus:—

'XXII. This Council recommends to His Excellency the Governor in Council that the budget allotment under "24-Ab. Medical—Hospitals and Dispensaries" be raised by Rs. 20,000 for the appointment of travelling sub-assistant surgeons in mufassal hospitals and dispensaries and to make a deduction under the same head by reducing the provision for addition to the nursing staff in the General Hospital by Rs. 10,000 and under the head "45-. Civil Works—Public Works Department" by reducing the provision for the Medical school, Guntur, by Rs. 10,000.'

"The duplication of hospitals for the relief of rural areas was discussed in a resolution in the year 1915 when Diwan Bahadur M. Ramachandra Rao moved a resolution. After much hesitation the Government were pleased to say that the question will be considered and action will be taken. In the year 1917 the Government issued a Government Order to the local bodies saying that half the cost of duplication of the staff will be unbudgeted from Provincial funds but the district boards were not able to take definite steps in the matter. Finding this, recently in 1919 the Government again issued a Government Order saying that three-fourths of the cost of duplication of the staff of hospitals will be given from the Provincial funds and the district boards were asked to take action in the matter. Perhaps in pursuance of this policy the Draft Financial Statement provided Rs. 20,000 for the duplication of the hospitals. But in the Finance Committee this provision was cut short. As I gather from the proceedings of the Finance Committee it is cut short for want of finding men but one year is to pass by before the provision is to be given effect to and we have got 4 or 5 medical schools working and I do not think it would be impossible to find men for this and in the interest of the rural areas where medical relief is not at all to be found, it is highly desirable that such provision should be maintained and should not be utilized simply because the Surgeon-General feels that there is more urgent need for expenditure in the Metropolis in the way of strengthening the nursing staff of the General Hospital. With these remarks I wish to move this resolution."

The Hon'ble the SURGEON-GENERAL:—"Your Excellency, if the Hon'ble Mr. Narasimha Ayyar considered that my last statement was gloomy I do not know what he will consider of this one. The Honourable mover wishes me to duplicate the staff of dispensaries. At the present moment, I have 34 appointments left unfilled for want of staff. So duplication would mean closing of other dispensaries. I do not know whether he wishes me to do that. Probably he would not. At any rate coming from the northern districts, from Vizagapatam and Ganjam he probably has not got the knowledge that we are short of staff—also because Vizagapatam and Ganjam have been specially well supplied by men owing to the unhealthiness of the country around many of the small dispensaries. I have a list here showing where vacancies are to-day and where institutions are closed. I have attempted always to keep those open which are most important from the point of view of the population concerned. You may perhaps say that our business is to produce medical students and fill these appointments. But the real difficulty is that we have 220 sub-assistant surgeons still employed by the Army. During the war it was army first and the civil anywhere. The war is far from an end from my point of view. These men are scattered over Mesopotamia, Egypt, Palestine and with the forces which are stationed there and also on the North-West Frontier and so there is very little prospect of getting them. It is impossible to think of duplicating the staff of dispensaries. I may tell you that we have already reached the point in our medical schools which make it difficult to expand. The public press last July, when they saw the number of students who were supposed to have applied for entrance to the medical schools, produced several letters giving the number of students who were supposed to have applied. I do not know who gave those numbers to the press, but I thought it was sufficiently important to make a detailed inquiry. I made a detailed inquiry after getting the names of the different students and their fathers' names. So far from there being more students applying whom we can take in we actually took in at Tanjore 55 unqualified students and in Rayapuram 15 students. You can take it from me that to attempt to place the educational load of medicine on the top of any imperfect general education is simply to ask for trouble. I am not prepared to lower the standard of admission to the school because I find they have already gone too low. Those who have not received sufficient general education to pass the tests which are a necessity before admission to the medical school would not be enabled to learn the profession of medicine so that even if we were to increase our schools we would not probably be enabled largely to increase our scholars unless students who do not at present apply were to apply in future. I do not know if the attractions of the medical profession are likely to increase in the future. The schools already contain a considerable number of young men who are not sufficiently qualified to pile medical education on the top of their general education so that any idea of enormously adding to the number of medical practitioners or any idea of duplication is out of the question at the present date."

The Hon'ble Mr. C. V. S. NARASIMHA RAJU:—"Your Excellency, the main reason urged by the Surgeon-General is that we cannot find men. He says that more than 200 sub-assistant surgeons are working in the Army and that he does not know when they may be demobilized and allowed to return to civil work. But the provision asked for by me may be retained and when the men are available the district boards and municipalities may be asked to utilize them for their hospitals. I do not see any reason why the provision should be omitted, because with regard to so many hospitals which are not working now for want of funds provision is made by the district boards and they are not taken away from their budgets. I am not therefore able to agree with the Hon'ble the Surgeon-General to omit this provision which has already been made in the Draft Financial Statement. The Government are aware that there is every chance of finding the necessary staff. The provision may therefore be retained."

His Excellency the PRESIDENT:—"Before I put the resolution may I ask the Honourable Member how after hearing the Surgeon-General's speech he proposes to provide these men. The Surgeon-General has told us very clearly that there is such great difficulty in providing these sub-assistant surgeons. Will the Honourable Member be good enough to give us suggestions as to how to provide these men."

The Hon'ble Mr. C. V. S. NARASIMHA RAJU:—"The Surgeon-General says that there are 200 men working in the Army."

His Excellency the PRESIDENT:—"They are not available."

The Hon'ble Mr. C. V. S. NARASIMHA RAJU:—"The provision may be retained. There is full 12 months before us and the 200 men in the Army may be demobilized at any time."

His Excellency the PRESIDENT:—"Does the Honourable Member wish to press his resolution?"

The Hon'ble Mr. C. V. S. NARASIMHA RAJU:—"Yes."

The resolution was put to the vote and lost.

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur Sir RAJAGOPALA ACHARIYAR:—"I beg to introduce the heads XX-B and 24-B 'Sanitation.'"

RESOLUTION RE REDUCTION OF INFANTILE MORTALITY IN THE PRESIDENCY.

The Hon'ble Rao Sahib M. C. MUTTAYYA CHETTIYAR:—"Your Excellency the resolution which stands in my name runs thus:—

XXIII. 'This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that a sum of Rs. 50,000 be allotted for making special arrangements to reduce the large increase in infantile mortality and high death-rates from preventible diseases in this Presidency, particularly in the Ramnad district, recorded in the annual report of the Sanitary Commissioner for 1918, and a corresponding reduction be made by omitting the allotment under head 24-B for the appointment of three additional Deputy Sanitary Commissioners.'

This resolution does not require any detailed or elaborate discussion or a dry statistical analysis for being accepted by the Government. The report of the Sanitary Commissioner to the Government supplies us with the full facts and figures which show the alarming increase in infantile mortality and the high death-rate among adults from preventible diseases. The Hon'ble the Surgeon-General in his speech the other day at the recent conference held at the Banqueting Hall confirms the above facts. If this cumulative evidence is not enough, I can further offer the unimpeachable, disinterested and distinguished testimony of one whose words ought to carry weight with Your Excellency and Your Excellency's Government. I mean the testimony of Her Excellency Lady Willingdon, who, as President of the Southern India Health and Welfare Association, has referred very sympathetically to the infantile mortality and the appalling death-rate of the people in the Presidency. Her Excellency has inaugurated several schemes for the improvement of the health and welfare of the people of this Presidency. But I would like to point out that these schemes would be futile if infants die at their birth and adults are carried away by infectious diseases. The suggestions made by the Sanitary Board and the Sanitary Commissioner and the Deputy Sanitary Commissioners in their reports are before the council. I do not propose to reiterate them here. An increase in the trained staff and an increased expenditure of money will go far to reduce the high death rates among infants and adults. I therefore plead for an increased grant from whatever sources it might come. If the Government think that they cannot allot the money set apart for the appointment of three additional Deputy Sanitary Commissioners, I suggest that the money might be found from any other source. One must be made to live before he can enjoy the benefits conferred upon him by the Government, by the allotment of money for any other expenditure. So I commend this resolution with these few words to the acceptance of the Council.

The Hon'ble the SURGEON-GENERAL :—"I wish to ask the Honourable Member a question before I answer. What are the special arrangements which the Honourable Member desires should be made?

The Hon'ble Rao Sahib M. C. T. MUTTAYYA CHETTIYAR :—"A cursory reading of the report of the Sanitary Commissioner will show the necessity (1) for training medical men for the preparation of the vital statistics—I refer to page 2, paragraph 8 of the report, (2) trained midwives in rural and urban areas to reduce the heavy mortality due to the causes mentioned in page 6, paragraph 25, (3) trained mechanics to cholera parties referred to at page 11, paragraph 40, and (4) properly qualified vaccinators with increased pay referred to at page 2, paragraph 3 in the annual report of the Sanitary Commissioner on vaccination. There are many more headings under which the money could be expended. I suppose this will satisfy the Surgeon-General."

The Hon'ble the SURGEON-GENERAL :—"The Honourable mover has somewhat shifted his ground. In the resolution he has asked that the provision required by him should be met by omitting the allotment made for the appointment of three additional Deputy Sanitary Commissioners. In his speech now he pleads for an increase amount to be spent from any other source. If Government are willing to supply a larger amount of money for the Sanitary department of the Presidency the department will only be too willing to spend it usefully. In the direction of sanitation the amount spent by Government is microscopic as compared with what is spent on curative and medical sciences. But I am not prepared to accept the resolution which takes from Peter to pay Paul. It becomes a question whether it is better to have an army without officers or to have officers without the army. I have had some army training myself and from my experience I may say that you begin a regiment by appointing a commanding officer and not by appointing the privates first. Therefore we thought it best with the limited money at our disposal to appoint the officers first and then let the army be recruited to join their standards. If Your Excellency and the Council will permit me I wish to make a statement on the position of the Sanitary department, because I am certain that there is a good deal of misunderstanding about it. The Sanitary department which we hope in future will be called the Public Health Department, consists of a Sanitary Commissioner, Deputy Sanitary Commissioners and a few Deputy Inspectors of Vaccination. That is what the Government does. Anybody else employed in such duties is employed by district boards and municipalities. I am sure that in this assembly there are several presidents of district boards and chairmen of municipal councils. They will agree with me in recognizing the great difficulty that there is in securing health officers either for district boards or for municipalities. They will also agree with me that sanitary inspectors, left to themselves without officers are not likely to produce satisfactory results. What I would suggest to the Honourable mover is that he should withdraw this resolution and give me privately his opinion as to how best to organize the Public Health Department for this Presidency. I am at present drawing up a scheme which I hope will be accepted by Government. In that scheme I wish particularly to have the assistance of those who will have to work it, the presidents of district boards and chairmen of municipal councils. Perhaps it is not so well-known as it should be that only two districts have so far put forward any definite schemes of their own, and I may assure them that they will have my entire support in appointing a health officer with sanitary assistants and a large staff of menials. If every district board could do this and tackle their own problems and if Government also were to assist them, at the same time making these district boards agree as a price of Government's assistance to co-operate with Government in the suppression of epidemics, I am certain that a great deal could be done and that the health of the people could be materially improved. In addition, voluntary help also must be relied for and the Health and Welfare Association, which is at the head of such voluntary effort, is willing to give every assistance as soon as it has started work. But I must say that to get rid of the allotment for the three Deputy Sanitary Commissioners, is to get rid of your prospective army and to handicap advance in the treatment of epidemic diseases, and I cannot agree to the proposal that a few more midwives and a few more trained mechanics should be employed by Government, rather than that the three highly trained officers, should be situated in various parts of the Presidency. Six Deputy Sanitary Commissioners at different parts of the Presidency will be able to set in motion a large amount of voluntary effort and also to organize a large staff of paid men. Without these officers I doubt whether we shall do more than waste money."

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur P. TYAGARAYA CHETTIYAR:—"I quite see the object of this resolution that the infantile mortality must be put down, but as to the procedure to be adopted, the Hon'ble Mr. Muttayya Chettiyar has not been very definite. I may however mention that the increase in infantile mortality is due to causes which, I think, are beyond the scope of the Sanitary department or the Medical department. Firstly it must be attributed to the high prices of food grains. The prices of food grains have during the last four years risen very enormously and it makes people almost starve. It is a well-known fact that unless mothers have sufficient food to maintain themselves, they will not be able to suckle their children and children cannot prosper. If anything must be done it must be done in the way of finding how to make mothers live more healthily and be in a better position to suckle their children. That means that the prices of food grains should go down. That is the direction in which Government should move, and I think the question is becoming imperative now. It is no use crying in the way we do now. The first improvement that is required is in that direction, and especially in Madras I can say from what I know that infantile mortality is abnormally high. It is all due to want of nourishment.

"Then again if the mothers have not got sufficient milk they have to go in for cow's milk and everywhere in all Madras you cannot get pure milk for anything less than [illegible] measure. And if cow's milk is not available there are artificial foods and the starts of the artificial foods is something unimaginable. These are the directions in which we should move and Government should move to bring about better results to reduce infantile mortality."

The Hon'ble Mr. P. SIVA RAO:—"Your Excellency, I must join issue with the Hon'ble Mr. Tyagaraya Chettiyar when he says that the sole cause of infantile mortality is underfeeding of mothers. I am aware that is one of the reasons, but much can be done by careful nursing of children, midwifery and medical relief. As regards the merits of the resolution itself as to how best infantile mortality can be stopped, the resolution is not sufficiently definite about the measures to be taken, and even if any measures are taken in that direction I am not perfectly sure that the object could be achieved by removing the three Deputy Sanitary Commissioners who are to be newly appointed. I do not think the purpose which the Honourable mover has got in view will be achieved by that."

The Hon'ble Mr. B. V. NARASIMHA AYYAR:—"Your Excellency, may I ask for information as to what percentage of accuracy there is in the Hon'ble Mr. Tyagaraya Chettiyar's assertion that one important cause of increase in infantile mortality is due to want of proper nourishment. If that is the case, he has furnished one definite thing to be attended to. I believe the Health and Welfare Associations will themselves be able to provide the necessary corrective to a certain extent. That is, there will be health visitors who will be giving nutritious food or good milk to persons in need of the same. That is one important branch. Of course on the face of it we cannot do away with three Deputy Sanitary Commissioners. Without accepting the resolution, we might do something to put funds into the hands of the Health and Welfare Association, if the Surgeon-General agrees that he could find the money."

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur Sir P. RAJAGOPALA ACHARIYAR:—"Your Excellency, may I say one word? There is really no inconsistency between the two items. The ground upon which I would mainly object to the Hon'ble Mr. Muttayya Chettiyar's resolution is that according to existing arrangements the Government provide the superior officers of the Sanitary department—the Deputy Sanitary Commissioners and the Deputy Inspectors of Vaccination and the local bodies—the municipal councils and local boards—provide the subordinate staff. As the Surgeon General has happily put it, we provide the generals and the local bodies provide the men. I can quite understand that there is a great deal to be done for reducing mortality and that that could be done only by strengthening the local staff. We provide the higher staff for supervising the work of the local staff the local bodies provide. It is for the local bodies to improve their own Sanitary departments. It will be a mistake to go on amplifying largely the establishments drawing small pay and leaving them to themselves. I know that for lack of Deputy Sanitary Commissioners, in several places there has been waste of money and six Deputy Sanitary Commissioners can hardly be deemed excessive for our Provinces. I would suggest to the Honourable Member not to press this resolution. He may move his district board to work up the details of its sanitary staff so that the district may get the full benefit of the extra supervision which will be provided by the addition of three Deputy Sanitary Commissioners."

The Hon'ble YAQUB HASAN SAHIB Bahadur:—"Your Excellency, every one in this Council, whether official or non-official, has, I am sure, sympathy with this resolution. The object is good. What is wanted is that some provision should be made to attain that object. When wording his resolution, Mr. Muttayya Chettiyar had like all of us—he being a new member—the difficulty of finding money. Whenever a suggestion is made, we have to find money for it and it has to be transferred from some head or other. For this object we usually go to the Civil Works Department and we always suggest the taking away of the necessary amount from the Civil Works But Mr. Muttayya Chettiyar thought that he would find the money from the Sanitation department itself and he accordingly takes it away from the salary of the additional Deputy Sanitary Commissioners. There he has made a mistake. We do want additional Deputy Sanitary Commissioners for the very object which Mr. Muttayya Chettiyar himself has in view. If he amends the resolution and finds money from somewhere else, say, Civil Works Department, I think, the Surgeon-General will have no objection, to accepting it, especially when the money comes from some other department. I think we must do something to reduce infantile mortality which is now becoming really a scandal. It is a very big question and the real causes of it ought to be found by experts There is truth in what Mr. Tyagaraya Chetti says, viz, want of food is a very large contributary cause. But there are other causes also for which the Sanitation department and Medical department must find a remedy and for which some money must be provided If the money asked for is provided, some schems will have to be brought into existence and attention will be drawn to this subject This, I think, is the object of the mover of this resolution and I support him and I would appeal to the Government to allow him to amend it in the way that I suggest and accept it. Something might be done in this direction."

The Hon'ble Rao Bahadur, N. SUBBA RAO:—"Your Excellency, I wish to bring to the Government's notice some facts which will show the necessity for adopting this resolution. I remember the district board of South Kanara included in their budget a provision to appoint three Sanitary Inspectors and asked at the same time for a half grant from the Government in order to meet the pay and other incidental charges for this innovation. I no doubt fully agree with the Honourable Member in charge in saying that in the first instance the district board should take up this matter and place before the Government for any financial help that may be necessary in favour of such proposition. But as a matter of fact, when we asked the Government for only a half grant and for allowing us to appoint three Sanitary Inspectors for bettering the sanitation of the taluk, the Government were not willing to accept our proposition and said that they cannot make any provision for a half grant or a full grant for this matter."

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur Sir P. RAJAGOPALA ACHARIYAR:—"May I know when it was?"

The Hon'ble Rao Bahadur N. SUBBA RAO:—"It was a month or a month and a half ago when I received the Government Order in which they regretted that they could not make any provision. So I bring this forward to Your Excellency's notice that this is a matter which should be sympathetically dealt with by Your Excellency's Government And when the local bodies come forward with some positive proposals, I request the Government may be pleased to consider them favourably."

The Hon'ble Rao Sahib M. C. T. MUTTAYYA CHETTIYAR:—"Your Excellency, I only suggested a source which I thought was unobjectionable. I now see that the Surgeon-General and Sir P Rajagopala Achariyar take objection to that I have no objection to money being provided from any other source."

His Excellency the PRESIDENT:—"What is the suggestion which the Honourable Member makes? I do not find it here"

The Hon'ble Rao Sahib M. C. T. MUTTAYYA CHETTIYAR:—"I am quite prepared, as the Hon'ble Mr. Yaqub Hasan suggests, for the allotment being met from 45. CIVIL WORKS.

"After 'from 45 CIVIL WORKS' I did not suggest 45 and 45-B. CIVIL WORKS for the obvious reason that if the resolutions of most of my honourable colleagues were accepted, there would be nothing left under that head."

His Excellency the PRESIDENT:—"I am afraid I cannot allow an amendment at this stage of the proceedings. The Honourable Member should have considered the matter before"

The Hon'ble Rao Sahib M. C. T. MUTTAYYA CHETTIYAR:—"Your Excellency, the Government recognize the gravity and importance of this resolution and I do not know what to do except to withdraw the resolution."

His Excellency the PRESIDENT:—"This has produced a very lively debate. My honourable colleague has promised to give careful consideration if any definite scheme is brought forward by any local body. So there is nothing more to be done."

With the permission of His Excellency the President the resolution was withdrawn.

RESOLUTION RE GRANT TO THE RAMNAD DISTRICT BOARD FOR CONSTRUCTING A BRIDGE ACROSS THE UPPAR RIVER.

His Excellency the PRESIDENT:—The Honourable Member requested me to allow his second resolution namely (No. XLII) to be taken up to-day.

6TH FEBRUARY 1920.] (Mr. Muttayya Chettiyar; Mr. Sivagnanam Pillai; Sir Rajagopala Acharyar.)

The Hon'ble Rao Sahib M. C. T MUTTAYYA CHETTIYAR:—"I am very thankful to Your Excellency for allowing me to move this resolution now. Your Excellency, the resolution that stands in my name runs thus:—

—— 'XLII. This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that a sum of Rs 25,000 be allotted for the specific purpose of constructing a bridge across the Upper river on the Madura-Tiruppattur road, and that a corresponding reduction be made in the lump allotment of Rs. 5,00,000 under 45. CIVIL WORKS—CIVIL for grants to poorer district boards.'

The necessity for the provision asked for by me in this resolution has been fully explained to the Government on a former occasion when the identical request was made by Rao Bahadur Annamalai Chettiyar who moved a resolution on this subject on the 13th March 1917 when the Revised Financial Statement was presented to the Legislative Council. The matter was then discussed at some length and the resolution was withdrawn by the mover on the assurance then given him by the Hon'ble Sir P. Rajagopala Acharyar that Government would ask the district boards of Madura and Ramnad, both of them being interested in the bridge. I do not know what the result of this correspondence was. Whatever it might have been, I see no move in this direction since 1917. I have therefore taken this opportunity for renewing the request for accomplishment of this important bridge work. In a district like Ramnad whose interior still remains unconnected by a railway, well-metalled roads and well-built bridges is absolutely necessary for the convenience of the travelling public. It is an admitted fact that the Ramnad District Board is not sufficiently affluent to keep its communication in a uniformly good condition throughout the district all the year round. That District Board cannot therefore be expected to find the money for the bridge work, sanitary improvements and other indispensable necessaries for the comfort and convenience of the rural population entrusted to their care. The Madura-Tiruppattur road is a very important one in that area. The Upper intersects it at the frontier of the two districts and being a jungle stream floods render the river unfordable both for pedestrians and wheeled traffic for several days together. Madura is an important town as a place of Hindu religious sanctity, as a commercial and trading centre and the headquarters of two districts is too well known to require any description. The condition of the river during the rainy season of 1916 was seriously felt in September of that year when Lord Pentland was motoring to Chettinad. If the urgency of the work I plead for is conceded and the poverty of the Ramnad District Board is admitted, then am I not justified in exhorting Your Excellency's Government to give a helping hand to the District Board to supply a long-felt want in that district for the convenience of the public? I therefore request Your Excellency's Government to accept this resolution."

The Hon'ble Rai Bahadur T. N. SIVAGNANAM PILLAI:—"Your Excellency, in this road leading from Tiruppattur via Melur to Madura the vehicular traffic is heavy and also the number of passengers. In the rainy season when it rains for several days people are held up for several days continuously. On the occasion of the visit of Lord Pentland we had to provide an elephant transport as a sure means of transport from one city to the other. It may be said that there are other ways of getting to the Chettinad. We cannot go through Sivaganga or Devakottai or through Ramnad. It is a pity that there has been no bridge so long. Considerable inconvenience has been caused to the people and this is a matter of urgent necessity. It would have been taken up by the District Board of Madura but for the fact that this is situated at the tail end of Madura. Ramnad could not take it up because it is not in that district. Such is the unfortunate position. In the interests of the two districts I earnestly appeal to Your Excellency's Government to provide funds for this purpose. I have much pleasure in supporting the resolution."

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur SIR P. RAJAGOPALA ACHARIYAR:—"The Hon'ble Mr Muttayya Chettiyar has referred to what took place regarding the subject in March 1917. The Hon'ble Mr. Annamalai Chettiyar then moved a resolution to the effect that a provision be made in the Provincial Budget for the work in question. I answered him on behalf of Government and the resolution was finally withdrawn. I promised the Honourable Member that I would call for reports from the Ramnad and Madura district boards. The reports were received. The place is in the Madura district in one corner of it and it is out of Ramnad. So I promised to call for a report from the two boards. Both presidents stated that the proposed bridge was unnecessary, that they were not prepared to allot funds for the work and that there was a causeway over the river. We are confronted with this position. We are asked to declare a particular work necessary which the two local boards most interested say is not necessary. I would suggest that, instead of trying to convert us, the Hon'ble Mr. Muttayya Chettiyar should first convert the district boards of Ramnad and Madura to his views. My Hon'ble friend Mr Sivagnanam Pillai represents both the districts, Madura and Ramnad. He should be a common link between them and bring about a concurrence of opinion on the part of both the boards."

The Hon'ble Rai Bahadur T. N SIVAGNANAM PILLAI:—"I thank the Honourable Member for the information that the two district boards are not in favour of the proposal. I gladly take his suggestion and will make the district boards take action in the matter in which case I hope the Government will do something in the matter."

(Mr. Muttayya Chettiyar; Mr. Rajagopala Achariyar; Mr. Narasimha Ayyar; Mr. Desika Achariyar; Mr. Subba Rao.)

[5TH FEBRUARY 1920.

The Hon'ble Rao Sahib M. C. T. MUTTAYYA CHETTIYAR :—"I should like to know whether the presidents placed the matter before the members of the boards and a resolution was passed by the boards."

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur Sir P. RAJAGOPALA ACHARIYAR :—"I shall find out from the file and tell you. It will take some time."

The Hon'ble Rao Sahib M. C. T. MUTTAYYA CHETTIYAR :—"May I request the Honourable Member to inform me whether the papers were placed before the members of boards? If that was not done I would request the Honourable Member to refer it back again to the boards."

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur Sir P. RAJAGOPALA ACHARIYAR :—"If I find upon referring to the papers that the matter did not go before the members of the boards, as the Honourable Member apprehends, I shall gladly ask the presidents concerned to put the matter before the members."

With the permission of His Excellency the President the resolution was withdrawn.

RESOLUTION RE PROVISION FOR ESTABLISHING THE PANCHAYAT SYSTEM.

The Hon'ble Mr. B. V. NARASIMHA AYYAR :—"May it please Your Excellency, the resolution which I have the honour to move runs as follows:—

'XXIV. This Council recommends to His Excellency in Council that the expenditure under 24 B. SANITATION be raised by 2 lakhs for the introduction of the panchayat system in every village and that 2 lakhs be deducted from 45. CIVIL.'

The object of this resolution is the early establishment of panchayat in every village and this ought to be worked out under the Sanitary department. It ought to be worked out by a provision made under Sanitation for the expenses they have to incur. As to the desirability of starting panchayats I do not think there can be any two opinions since even before the famous despatch of Lord Morely it was considered desirable that each village must be made a unit of administration. We should have a panchayat as the unit of administration in every village. Now if we are going to start these panchayats in every village what exactly is proposed to be done in this. We have forwarded suggestions to the Government and are getting ready for a Panchayat Bill—that is statutory powers conferred on general panchayats including the powers for expenditure under sanitation. I believe one large and important item is the sanitary expenditure of the village. I am sure that the panchayat will require something more than what the Government will give it by way of grant. It must have to find some funds perhaps out of the land-cess and perhaps in some other way for the working expenses. But whatever provisions are made there is also a necessity for a grant from provincial revenues for sanitary expenses of the general panchayat. It is possible that the expenses may also come under some other heads. I may draw the attention of this House to the fact that there is an immediate necessity for providing it. I hope that the Panchayat Bill will be brought in this Council in the course of five or six months—I am quite sure. On behalf of the Honourable Members I may express that the general opinion so far as they are concerned is they are prepared to sit it out in the month of April. We are quite prepared to sit any number of months and any number of days to have all Bills passed, so that before many months have elapsed we shall have a general statutory panchayat put into force and working in various districts. Then the question is what exactly is the provision to be made in the budget. Some grants are always available under the head Sanitation. It is not difficult to find some little money here and some little money there to put into sanitation. I take it that there is necessity for a provision in the budget. I know that it is easy to suggest funds for these panchayats. I think there is no trouble about this. Then as to the 2 lakhs that I have suggested I may say that if the scheme is worked out this amount may exceed by some tens of thousands and I request the Honourable Members of this House to support the resolution.

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur T. DESIKA ACHARIYAR :—"I have been taking some interest in the formation of informal panchayats. The Government have also made a grant of Rupees 13,000 to the District Board, Trichinopoly, for the expense of these panchayats. I am not at all as optimistic as my Hon'ble friend Mr. Narasimha Ayyar is. The whole difficulty lies in that of finding persons who are to be trusted with the money and the agency to be employed to carry out the functions of these panchayats. Till these things are finally settled and placed on a practical basis there appears to be no use in allotting grants for panchayats—money, which could be used for other definite and useful purposes."

The Hon'ble Mr. N. SUBBA RAO :—"Your Excellency, my experience of the panchayats is not in full agreement with that of my friend the Hon'ble Mr. Desika Achariyar. I find that as far as the introduction of these panchayats is concerned, the Government can have a good number of them in every district. In fact the administrations concerned can bring them into existence and there will be no difficulty of working them. But my difficulty equally shared by our late Collector, Mr. Lancashire and Mr. Ellis now, is that people do not like to start panchayats because they have not got the where-withal. Of course Government does give us little doles in the shape of certain grants. I would suggest a scheme, that, one-third of the expenditure be met by the Government, one-third by the local board concerned and one-third by local taxation, of course I am not one who would always depend upon local bodies or the Government. But those who live in the panchayat area must also tax themselves. We have got only one informal panchayat at Kaikal and it has been working fairly well. Sanitation, Education and all other branches of administration are well looked after by them. What is really wanted is that we have to infuse life in the people to start panchayats and then provide them with sufficient money to run the whole machinery. The difficulty as I have already pointed out is where to find the money. Of course the taluk boards all over the Presidency always depend upon the district board and the district board has its own requirements and so we are not able to provide all the money required. With these few remarks I shall certainly commend that some amount may be allotted under this head."

The Hon'ble Mr. P. SIVA RAO:—"Your Excellency, any allotment under this head seems to me to be premature. If the honourable mover intends that something should be done for the working of the informal panchayats now, I am totally opposed to his proposal. In April last I moved that the informal panchayats should be abolished and that panchayats should be formed in every important village and they should be placed on a statutory footing. The Government were pleased to accept the resolution. Now we can wait until the Bill is drafted and introduced into this Council, and see what powers are to be given to these statutory panchayats, whether they should be given powers of taxation and how much of their finances should be contributed by the taluk board, the district board or the Government and how much they could finance themselves, and whether they could be given powers to raise local cesses. All these details will have to be settled. When the time comes there will be no difficulty in finding money for the purpose, if it is decided in the Bill that a portion of the expenditure is to be met from the provincial exchequer. But before these details are settled, I do not see any reason why the Honourable Member asks for a provision under this head. As I said at the outset, if it is for the purpose of financing the informal panchayats, they have been condemned."

The Hon'ble Mr. B. V. NARASIMHA AYYAR:—"That is not my object."

The Hon'ble Mr. P. SIVA RAO:—"Then let us wait until the Panchayat Bill is introduced."

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur Sir P. RAJAGOPALA ACHARIYAR:—"The Hon'ble Mr. Narasimha Ayyar's point I gather is that, when this Bill is passed into law, there will be a certain amount of money needed for subsidizing the panchayats. The Council will probably be interested to know at what stage the matter stands. The resolution was agreed to last May that we should place the informal panchayats on a statutory basis and the Bill for the purpose has been drafted and is now under consideration and we hope very soon to place the Bill before the Council and I am very glad to note that the Hon'ble Mr. Narasimha Ayyar has given us the assurance that he will support the Bill and not bring forward any plea that it must wait for the Reformed Council.

"I am unable to accept the resolution. I hope the Hon'ble Mr. Narasimha Ayyar will accept the assurance that no efforts will be spared to push on with this legislation. Should these panchayats come into existence within the official year and should money be required for the purpose we would find it. The resolution being somewhat indefinite, has led us into a digression as to the informal panchayats which have been criticised by the Hon'ble Mr. Desika Achariyar and defended by the Hon'ble Mr Subba Rao. We had a long discussion at the last Legislative Council and the general sense was that we should not go on subsidising these informal panchayats. Under these circumstances I trust that the Honourable Member will not press the resolution at this stage as we are unable to accept it."

The Hon'ble Mr. B. V. NARASIMHA AYYAR:—"I take it that the Hon'ble Sir Rajagopala Acharyar means that what I ask for is going to be granted as a matter of technical practice. He considers that the resolution should be withdrawn. I do not wish to fight on matters technical. In the matter of the Salaries Committee the report is not before us but we are making a provision in the budget and again as to matter of practice I should like to hear of Your Excellency's experiences in matters like these in Parliament."

His Excellency the PRESIDENT:—"Does the Honourable Member wish to know of a Bill which has not been passed? There will only be an allotment for the purpose of a measure which may or may not be passed in future."

The Hon'ble Mr. B. V. NARASIMHA AYYAR:—"Not even if the whole Council passes it? I raise it only as an academical matter."

His Excellency the PRESIDENT:—"I think most Governments will wait for the passing of the Bill."

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur P. TYAGARAYA CHETTIYAR:—"May I mention to Your Excellency that the feeling on this side seems to be that there may not be any chance of passing this Bill in the Council before the Reforms. They think it may go before the new Council."

His Excellency the PRESIDENT:—"That is all the greater reason why the two lakhs should not be provided."

The Hon'ble Mr. B. V. NARASIMHA AYYAR :—"I am glad that the Honourable Member is right. I think there is very little chance of the Bill being passed. I have greater reason for not pressing the resolution at present."

With the permission of His Excellency the President, the resolution was withdrawn.

RESOLUTION RE PROVISION FOR THE IMPROVEMENT OF PANCHAMA HAMLETS IN GUNTUR TOWN.

The Hon'ble Mr. K. VENKATAPPAYYA PANTULU moved the following resolution :—

'XXV. This Council recommends to His Excellency the Governor in Council that provision should be made in the budget estimate for the year 1920-21 for a sum of Rs. 10,000 under head 24-Bb. Sanitation for the improvement of the three Panchama hamlets in the Guntur Municipality and the said amount be met by a corresponding reduction under head 45. CIVIL WORKS.'

"Your Excellency my resolution raises purely a local question, none the less, a very important one for consideration. In the Guntur Municipality there are three panchama hamlets the condition of which is very miserable from a sanitary point of view. The streets are very narrow and crooked and the huts are close to each other. The hamlets have no adequate water-supply. So for the purpose of widening the streets and providing roads and for taking the pipe line to these hamlets certain proposals and estimates have been made. I am told that some resolutions on the subject have been passed by the municipal council but I am not sure if these resolutions have been submitted to Government as yet but probably they will shortly be sent up. I request therefore that for these three hamlets a sum of Rs. 10,000 may be allotted so that the work may be undertaken in the course of the year and the hamlets may be benefited by the allotment."

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur Sir P. RAJAGOPALA ACHARIYAR :—"I shall give the information the Honourable Member desires? No application has so far been received by the Government from the Municipal Council for this purpose. If the Council considers the work necessary and applies for the grant required, after getting estimates prepared and sanctioned by competent authority, the question of giving a grant will be considered at the time of the distribution from the lump allotment sanctioned out of the total provision for minor sanitary works."

The Hon'ble Mr K. VENKATAPPAYYA PANTULU :—"I thank the Government for the assurance given and I do not press the resolution."

With the permission of His Excellency the President, the resolution was withdrawn.

RESOLUTION RE GRANT TO THE GUNTUR MUNICIPALITY FOR SANITARY WORKS.

The Hon'ble Mr. K. VENKATAPPAYYA PANTULU next moved the following resolution :—

'XXVI. This Council recommends to His Excellency the Governor in Council that a sum of Rs. 60,000 be provided for a grant to the Guntur Municipality in the budget for the year 1920–21 under 24-Bb. Sanitation for minor sanitary works and that the amount may be met by a corresponding reduction under 45. CIVIL WORKS.'

In doing so he said :—"This resolution stands on a different footing. They are all minor works on which estimates have been already submitted. The Deputy Sanitary Commissioner and the Sanitary Commissioner recommended in G.O. No. 415 M., dated 15th March 1919, a sum of Rs. 22,000 for the following works :—

Latrines of type design model and conservancy tools, etc. A sum of Rs 22,000 is required for them ; another item is the drainage works. This comes under minor sanitary works. Pending the introduction of a comprehensive drainage scheme a sum of Rs. 16,775 is required for some minor schemes which are urgent and in respect of which some recommendations have already been made and estimates have been submitted to the Government. So also a sum of Rs. 28,000 is required for 30 model huts for municipal scavengers in that municipality. Estimates have also been submitted."

The Hon'ble Sir P. RAJAGOPALA ACHARIYAR :—"Your Excellency this lump amount asked for by the Honourable Member comprises a number of items—

	Rs.
(1) Construction of latrines	5,026
(2) Renewal of conservancy plant (sewage carts, rubbish cart) ..	11,990
(3) Purchase of live-stock	5,000
(4) Construction of masonry drains and provision of two sewage farms.	16,775
(5) Thirty model huts for scavengers	28,000
Total ..	66,791"

6TH FEBRUARY 1920.] (Mr. Venkatappayya Pantulu; Sir P. Rajagopala Achariyar; Mr. Ahmad Tambi Marakkayar; Mr. Subba Rao.)

The Hon'ble Mr. K. VENKATAPPAYYA PANTULU:—"Out of which I do not ask for the purchase of conservancy tools and plant and live-stock, which come to Rs. 17,000.

I ask for only Rs. 16,775 for drainage works,
Rupees 28,000 for model huts, and Rupees 5,000 for latrines.
Then the whole thing comes about to Rs. 50,000."

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur Sir P. RAJAGOPALA ACHARIYAR:—"So the Honourable Member's request is that we should give the Guntûr Municipality a sum of Rs 50,000, viz.—

	Rs.
Construction of latrines	5,026
Construction of masonry drains	16,775
Thirty model huts for scavengers	28,000

"In regard to these items some of the plans and estimates have recently been received and sanctioned by competent authority. It is asked that the full amount should be paid by Government. In regard to this I have to say that we are here to take note of the claims of all municipalities. There is an allotment for minor sanitary works. In regard to the proposal to give this money out of 45. Civil Works I assume that it is not seriously pressed to reduce the allotment for civil works by this amount. I hope I am right in interpreting the Honourable Member."

The Hon'ble Mr. K. VENKATAPPAYYA PANTULU:—"I think this amount may be separately found out of 45. Civil Works. The condition of the municipality is such that it cannot bear the expenditure. The needs are great. Otherwise the condition will be very deplorable."

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur Sir P. RAJAGOPALA ACHARIYAR:—"One aspect of this question it is probably as well to press upon this Council for consideration, namely, that the lump allotment itself is settled by the Finance Committee. We receive applications from a large number of municipalities of which Guntûr is one. It is difficult for us in the course of a debate here at the instance of a particular Honourable Member to commit ourselves to the view that a particular work in which a particular council is interested should have preference or that we agree to ear-mark any particular amount. That would create a great deal of discontent. We will consider the Guntûr application on its merits along with applications from other municipalities and make the fairest distribution possible. I trust the Hon'ble Venkatappayya Pantulu will see that that is the only position that the Government could assume. I do not think he wants any more statement from me."

The Hon'ble Mr. VENKATAPPAYYA PANTULU:—"Of course after the assurance that the question will be given due consideration I withdraw the resolution."

With the permission of His Excellency the President, the resolution was withdrawn.

RESOLUTION RE EXTENSION OF THE PIPE-LINE IN NEGAPATAM.

The Hon'ble Khan Bahadur A. T. G. M. AHMAD TAMBI MARAKKAYAR SAHIB Bahadur:—"Your Excellency, I beg to move my resolution that runs as follows:—

'XXVII. This Council recommends to His Excellency the Governor in Council that a sum of Rs. 5,300 be provided under 24-B. SANITATION for extending pipe-line to Pattanachery and Nagore (Negapatam) and that the same be deducted from the sum of 6·50 lakhs for grants to local bodies for minor sanitary works.'

"The inhabitants of Pattanachery, who are fishermen, find it a great difficulty to get good drinking water in their locality. Consequently outbreak of epidemics, such as cholera and smallpox is frequently in existence in this part. This portion is within the Negapatam municipal limit but it is not connected by water-pipes. With a view to save the people from epidemics, pipe-water supply should be extended to this part. The municipal council has been collecting water taxes from these poor fishermen, but, it is a pity that they have been deprived of the benefit of the pipe-water supply. Plans and estimate for this work have been approved by the Sanitary Engineer and the estimate aggregates to Rs. 5,300. Government was pleased in G.O. Mis. No. 1135 M., dated 30th July 1919, to promise a half grant for the purpose. The remaining half the council is not able to provide from its normal resources, as the water-supply scheme has been working at a loss for the past three years. I therefore request Your Excellency's Government to be pleased to sanction a sum of Rs. 5,300 out of the sum of Rs 6·50 set apart for grants to local bodies for minor sanitary works under head 24-b. Sanitation."

The Hon'ble Rao Bahadur N. SUBBA RAO:—"I must oppose this resolution as well as similar resolutions on principle because there are various municipalities and taluk boards who are all along asking for some amount of money for schemes prepared and estimated for and laid before the Government. The municipalities and district boards do not get the full amount of money which they ask for. The Government think that certain items are necessary or more important and then distribute the grant according to the merits of each case, or otherwise it would be converting this house into an appellate court. I put my objections on general grounds. For these reasons I oppose this resolution."

(Mr. Sivagnanam Pillai; Sir P. Rajagopala Achariyar; Mr. Ahmad Tambi Marakkayar; the President.) [6TH FEBRUARY 1920.

The Hon'ble Rai Bahadur T. N. SIVAGNANAM PILLAI:—"I am in entire agreement with the views expressed by the Hon'ble Mr. Subba Rao. If every member comes forward and moves for ear-marking money for a specific proposal, it will be difficult to decide the question. The Government must be left to decide the matter when once a lump grant is made. So I heartily oppose the motion."

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur Sir P. RAJAGOPALA ACHARIYAR:—"I am sure my Honourable friend Mr. Ahmad Tambi Marakkayar will be quite content with the assurance that the application of the municipal council will be considered along with the applications of other local bodies when distribution is made. May I take it like that?"

The Hon'ble Khan Bahadur A. T. G. M. AHMAD TAMBI MARAKKAYAR SAHIB Bahadur:—"I have no objection. I am sorry two of my colleagues oppose me. I do not like the way in which my colleagues are opposing. On looking into the Agenda I see that they bring similar resolutions from other municipalities and district boards. As a citizen of Negapatam myself, I should like to protect myself and the children of the municipality from epidemics. My colleagues think that I am selfish but I plead for my own municipality. I admit I am selfish myself. Why are we come here? To look into our own interests and the interests of our country. We are sent here to plead for them. The Hon'ble Mr. Subba Rao is a nominated member. So he need not fear for anybody as I do. I am an elected member and I am answerable to my constituent. When I bring a resolution my colleagues oppose me in the Council and outside the Council and say that I am selfish. I think, Your Excellency, we are here to plead for the benefit of our own constituency and so I hope that my colleagues and Your Excellency's Government will not misunderstand me by bringing this resolution. I quite agree with the Honourable Member in charge of the portfolio and I am sure he will do his best. The Government was kind enough to give us a half grant. What I plead is to provide a full grant. I request Your Excellency's Government will kindly give the other half. With the assurance given by the Honourable Member in charge I withdraw my resolution."

His Excellency the PRESIDENT:—"I am sure that the Government has the warmest sympathy with the desire of my honourable friend to take care of and see to the well being of the people and especially his children in his particular locality. After his powerful advocacy of this scheme I am sure that in his resolution my Honourable colleague will give it a very sympathetic consideration. I can only say that the Honourable Member is perfectly justified in coming and laying before Government the various matters which affect the interests of his particular constituency. But he must see on the Government side also that if Government were to accept the Honourable friend's resolutions one by one, we might get rather an uncomfortable state of things with the other members who have not been so eager and active as my Honourable friend in putting forward his proposals especially after his powerful effort for his particular constituency."

With the permission of His Excellency the President, the resolution was withdrawn.

RESOLUTION re PROVISION TO CONNECT THE FIRST LINE AND SECOND LINE BEACH IN NEGAPATAM.

His Excellency the PRESIDENT:—"After the reply of my Honourable colleague does the Honourable Member propose to move the next two resolutions?"

The Hon'ble Khan Bahadur A. T. G. M. AHMAD TAMBI MARAKKAYAR SAHIB Bahadur:—"I think I will formally move the resolutions (Nanaki-Vasthai):—

'XXVIII. This Council recommends' to His Excellency the Governor in Council that a sum of Rs. 8,280 be provided under 24-B. SANITATION for connecting the first line beach with second line beach, Negapatam, and that the same be deducted from the amount of 6·50 lakhs for grants to local bodies for minor sanitary works.'

'XXIX. This Council recommends to His Excellency the Governor in Council that a sum of Rs. 12,210 be provided under 24-B SANITATION for constructing platforms around the wells, already in existence, under the management of the Negapatam Taluk Board, and that the same be deducted from the amount of 6·50 lakhs for grants to local bodies for minor sanitary works.'

With the permission of His Excellency the President, the resolutions were withdrawn.

RESOLUTION RE PROVISION FOR OPENING A COTTON SEED FARM AT NANDYAL.

The Hon'ble Mr P. SIVA RAO:—My resolution runs thus:—

'XXX. This Council recommends to His Excellency the Governor in Council that a lump provision of Rs. 32,000 may be made under the head of 26-A Agriculture for opening a cotton seed farm at Nandyal and that a corresponding deduction may be made in Miscellaneous and Unforeseen charges in 32. MISCELLANEOUS.'

"Your Excellency, I do not want to detain this Council long with this resolution. There is a provision in the current year's budget under this head. It was for some reasons omitted in the coming budget. No reasons were given for withholding the grant for the coming year. With these words, I move this resolution for the acceptance of the Council."

The Hon'ble DIWAN BAHADUR L. D. SWAMIKANNU PILLAI:—"Your Excellency, the Hon'ble Mr. P. Siva Rao mentioned the matter in the Finance Committee and he was informed that the budget provision was withdrawn because the Collector did not send up any proposal for the farm. It can be revived on the same being received from the Director of Agriculture. I expect that before the next financial year comes to amend the proposals will have matured and then the provision will be restored. I hope this explanation will satisfy the Honourable mover."

The Hon'ble Mr. P. SIVA RAO:—"If the proposals were to mature in the course of few months, I think it is all the more reason for retaining the provision."

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur L. D. SWAMIKANNU PILLAI:—"We have not yet received any kind of proposal from the Director of Agriculture."

His Excellency the PRESIDENT:—"We put into the budget under 'Agriculture' what the Director can spend during the year. With regard to this particular matter as the Honourable member knows well, it takes a good deal of time to acquire land, and while we are negotiating with this object at the present time I do not think it is very probable that we shall want this money for this purpose this year. I think the Honourable Member will take the assurance that we are going on with this particular scheme and that we will find money to carry it on as quickly as possible."

With the permission of His Excellency the President, the resolution was withdrawn.

RESOLUTION RE ESTABLISHMENT OF AN AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE IN THE NORTHERN DISTRICTS.

The Hon'ble Mr. C. V. S. NARASIMHA RAJU:—"Your Excellency, the resolution which I wish to move runs thus —

'XXXI. This Council recommends to His Excellency the Governor in Council that the budget allotment under 26-An Agriculture may be raised by Rs. 70,000 for opening an Agricultural College with the two years' course to begin with in a suitable place in the northern districts and to make a corresponding deduction under the head 45. CIVIL WORKS.'

"Your Excellency, the importance of the spread of agricultural education and the necessity for the expansion of an Agricultural Department need not be much dealt with as it is an admitted fact that the department is doing good work in this direction and directly concerns the masses. Now we have got only one college working at Coimbatore. It is not at all central and students have to come from long distances, such as Ganjam and Vizagapatam, from the northern districts, and this resolution is mainly intended to draw the attention of the Government to the inconvenience which the students of northern districts experience in going to a distant place to receive their education. The necessity of increasing the number of students that receive agricultural education need not be impressed upon the minds of the members of this Council. But Your Excellency has to see that in future the Agricultural Department itself will want a good number of hands to carry on greater propogandist work in the districts and they expect a good number of young men from the Agricultural College settling down in villages and doing useful work in their villages. With this object I wanted to bring to the notice of the Government that we feel an Agricultural College is necessary in one of the northern districts. The college at present has got 3½ years' course and there are two different courses—the diploma course and the certificate course. The proposed college begins with a certificate course and later on may develop itself to a full college containing the full course of the agriculturists' students. Your Excellency may be pleased to see that in the course of six years the number of students that are absorbed by the department and the number of students probably settled to carry on agriculture in their homes are very few. These figures are given in answer to the questions put by (the Hon'ble) Mr Subbarayalu Reddiyar in 1918-19 and (the Hon'ble) Mr Rama Ayyangar in 1916 These figures show that the expansion of the agricultural knowledge is rather very slow. Before I close my remarks, I wish to draw the attention of the Council to a few sentences in the Moral and Material Progress Report of India, 1918-19, contained on page 128—

'In all discussions about education it must be remembered that the particular type of education which must be provided is dependent upon the conditions of the country and the limitations imposed by the system of educational finance Now in India about three persons out of every four are directly dependent upon agriculture, and in devising a system of education for them, the needs of the two different classes, which constitute the agricultural population, have to be kept in mind.

'For the sub-tenants and labourers whose children are compelled to take a share in the family toil at a very early age, the simplest primary education is all that can be provided. But this primary education should be so framed as to raise the receptivity of the younger generation. If they can be trained to take an interest in the things round about them, they will be fitted to return to their homes and to the realities of life with a sense calculated to appreciate the relatively backward conditions under which they labour and a will to remedy them. So far as the landlords large cultivators and occupancy tenants are concerned, the education to be provided should fit them to return to their land and to take an active interest in the improvement of agricultural and of village life generally. These problems of agricultural education are most pressing. The world's progress is affecting agriculture equally with other occupations, and unless the Indian agriculturist can be so equipped intellectually that he clearly appreciates this progress, he will be blind to the new markets and to the new opportunities given to him. The future of India depends very largely upon the proper utilization of agricultural resources.'

"It may be said that we have not got sufficient staff to start a college at present. Your Excellency, the department is a developing department and if it is resolved that the Agricultural College should be started, the progress in other directions of this department may be stopped for a few years and this may be taken up first so that in future this institution may also be able to supply the necessary material to the department. With these few remarks I commend this resolution."

The Hon'ble Mr. M. D. DEVADOSS:—"Your Excellency, I am quite in sympathy with the objects which the Hon'ble Mr. Narasimha Raju has in view. It is too ambitious a project to ask that an Agricultural College should be established either in the north or in the south, but I am for having a number of agricultural schools where the ryots could be taught the elements of agriculture, for instance, seed selection or combating diseases of paddy and so on. For that purpose we have not got any definite data as to what it would cost I would strongly urge upon Your Excellency's Government the necessity of imparting this information to the ryots and the starting of schools with a view to teach the people of the various districts the particular kind of agriculture they are now familiar with, for instance, the people in the paddy-growing districts may be taught to combat the paddy disease and how to select seeds and in the cotton-growing districts, how to meet the various problems that confront the cotton grower and how to keep the cotton pure. Adulterating cotton seriously affects the producer. Schools should be started for the purpose of teaching the people the necessity of keeping the cotton pure and combating cotton diseases and selecting proper seeds. This would do a great deal more than having Agricultural Colleges which are more ambitious Though I am not entirely in accord with the wording of the resolution I would strongly urge upon Your Excellency's Government the necessity of having schools in various parts of the Presidency so that the ryots may be able to produce a better crop and better produce."

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur L. D. SWAMIKANNU PILLAI:—"Your Excellency, I have to state that with regard to the college now working at Coimbatore we have certain difficulties which have to be met and solved, before we can think of establishing an Agricultural College in the northern parts of the Presidency.

"I do not know whether the Honourable Mover is aware that Government last year appointed a committee, on which the Hon'ble Messrs. T. Balaji Rao Nayudu and V. K Ramanuja Achariyar served, for the purpose of enquiring and reporting to Government what measures should be taken to attract a better class of students to the Agricultural College at Coimbatore. The class of students that is at present admitted to the college is not at all satisfactory. And this question is now before the Government and they are considering it. Very probably in the course of considering their report, the question may also arise whether one of the solutions of the problem might not be to draw a number of these students to a school that might be started in the Telugu country. For the purposes of the present discussion, I do not think it is at all practicable to consider the opening of an additional school or college in connexion with the budget for 1920-21. It might be said that if the Telugu people in the northern districts had a school or college in their own country, a better class of students might join the college It is not unlikely that inquiries will be made with a view to solving the difficulty in this manner or in any other way. But at present the opening of a college in the Telugu districts is premature and I regret that Government cannot accept this resolution."

The Hon'ble Rao Bahadur N. SUBBA RAO:—"In the matter of this proposition I fully agree with the remarks that have just been offered by the Hon'ble Mr. Swaminatha Pillai and I also want to lay before Your Excellency certain observations of mine in the matter of these agricultural institutions. The Coimbatore College has yet to justify its existence and its usefulness. I say this because most of the boys who are trained from this institution want to seek employment under the Government; and I do not find that much use has been demonstrated by way of general improvement of agriculture by students going into this college and coming out of it by bettering their own estates or of being employed under private estate owners to get these lands improved."

"My Honourable friend thinks that a 3½ years' course is a too long one and that a two years' course might attract some more students for this institution. But even in that class which has been opened in Coimbatore we find that the students rather look to Government and some private persons for employment. I make these observations with the object that at present the education that is imparted in the Agricultural College at Coimbatore is of no use as it does not ensure to the benefit of agriculturists generally. What is wanted is such a sort of education as will be practically useful to the agriculturists who should go back to their farms and introduce improved methods. The Coimbatore College is of course necessary in order to find out certain remedies for combating agricultural pests and diseases and to have some students prepared for higher education in all branches of agriculture. Further what is wanted by the people is the right sort of education which will reach the agricultural classes in their village schools so that the agriculturist's son might be benefited thereby. Therefore as we find from the observations made by the Hon'ble Mr. Swamikannu Pillai, we have yet to see how far the two years' classes in the Coimbatore College will turn out good work and there is no reason therefore why we should now expedite the establishment of another college or school in the north or in the south or anywhere else. Therefore it is a question which the Government might carefully go into and decide which is the sort of education which ought to be imparted to the agricultural classes. I know that Government have passed no order regarding the opening of agricultural middle schools. But it has been thought by some experts that these schools may not go far towards the betterment of the agricultural classes and therefore now to duplicate another school in the Northern Circars without knowing whether we are going on the right lines will be of no use. Therefore I do not wish to say anything further except that I am not in favour of the proposal at present as it is premature."

The Hon'ble Mr. B. VENKATAPATI RAJU:—"Your Excellency, I regret very much to hear the Hon'ble Mr. Subba Rao opposing the resolution. He has gone out of the way, when we are discussing the budget provision, to discuss about the agricultural curriculum and about the utility of the existing college or the necessity of middle schools which are not connected with the present proposition. The only question is whether the college is essential at the place and whether any provision is to be made in the budget. The question whether there would be staff and whether there would be money available has to be settled by the expert advisers of the Government. But I think the Hon'ble Mr. Subba Rao has taken the lead from the statement made on behalf of Government by stating that we are not receiving proper men for study in the existing Coimbatore College. That does not at all reflect credit on the Government or on the college. The reason why good people have not joined it is either want of prospects or want of training which will be useful to them in after life. Therefore we need not discuss that aspect of the case. There will be other occasions to discuss methods for improving the present system. So far as this question is concerned, the only question is, it is accepted by the Government that there should be scientific knowledge of agriculture imparted to a large number of students. If such a state of things is accepted, there can be no difference of opinion on principle. The only point is whether there will be immediate necessity for starting another college and whether there will be staff and money available for that purpose."

The Hon'ble Mr. C. V. S. NARASIMHA RAJU:—"The Hon'ble Mr. Swamikannu Pillai doubted whether we were aware that a committee had been appointed to inquire into the method of recruitment of students in the Agricultural College. I respectfully submit that I am fully aware of it and that question has nothing to do with the present resolution before this House. Whatever be the result of the committee's sittings the same rules will apply to the college which I propose. The only issue is whether any college is necessary or not and whether that college should be started immediately or in the near future. I fear the Hon'ble Mr. Swamikannu Pillai has not made any satisfactory statement regarding these points. If he says that the starting of another college is necessary and that necessary steps will be taken to proceed in that direction I shall be satisfied for the present, but if he considers that another college is not necessary or that steps cannot be taken in the near future I think I shall have to press the resolution."

His Excellency the PRESIDENT:—"I take it that the Hon'ble Mover's intention is to raise the question of policy not so much as to decide whether there should be two colleges, one in the Telugu district and another in Coimbatore. As my honourable friend is aware this question of policy has been under the consideration of Government for a considerable time. Probably he is aware of Sir Harold Stuart's note on the subject so long ago as 1909 in which he said—and every member will agree that he was a man of great qualifications with regard to agriculture—that the chief reason why he did not advocate the establishment of a second college was that there was no clear demand from the ryots, cultivators for higher education, nor was there any demand from the land owners for scientifically trained farm managers

"I must honestly say that I heard nothing from the Honourable Member that has caused me to change my view with regard to this particular question. It my honourable friend can show us clearly that there is a real desire on the part of the Telugu people in the Presidency to have an agricultural college in the Northern Circars and if he can also show that young men of the right sort are anxious to get into this college, then I may assure him that Government will be quite ready to consider the question of opening such a college. But the greatest difficulty with the Government is that most of the young men come to the Agricultural College with the object of getting into Government service But we want young men who are either farmers themselves or are the sons of farmers to enter this college with the object of improving their own properties and cultivating their lands in a more scientific way. That is the real difficulty and as I say if the Honourable Member can show us that there is such a real demand and demand from the right sort of people for this particular form of college in the Telugu districts, Government will seriously consider this proposal, but for the moment I am bound to say that he has not given us any very convincing reason to show that there is any real desire on the part of these districts to have this higher agricultural education.

"There is one other thing I should like to say. I was rather distressed by the criticism by the Hon'ble Mr Subba Rao regarding the Agricultural College at Coimbatore. He said that the education given in the Agricultural College was no use I must traverse that statement entirely. I am glad to say that that college is staffed by some of the most efficient and highly educated gentlemen that we can get within the Presidency or elsewhere. The only difficulty is that we cannot get the right sort of students for the college. It is no use saying that if professors of the right sort are obtained we can get the right type of students We cannot produce the right type of students by increasing the efficiency of professors It is extremely desirable before we decide to expend the taxpayers' money on a second agricultural college to make sure that there is a real demand from the people. At present the Government are not convinced that there is any such desire. The Hon'ble Mr. Davedoss, and the Hon'ble Mr. Subba Rao made certain remarks with regard to the agricultural education which are not pertinent to this resolution. But if they will at any time bring forward any suggestions they may have as regards the agricultural school the Government will always be ready to consider them sympathetically. With regard to the resolution itself I do not think it right for Government to plunge into an expense with the taxpayer's money without a far more convincing proof from the districts concerned."

The Hon'ble Mr. C. V. S NARASIMHA RAJU:—"After hearing your Excellency's remarks I wish to withdraw the resolution."

With the permission of His Excellency the President the resolution was withdrawn.

RESOLUTION RE GRANT FOR AGRICULTURAL MIDDLE SCHOOLS.

The Hon'ble Mr. B. VENKATAPATI RAJU —"Your Excellency, the resolution which I beg to move runs as follows:—

'XXXII. This Council recommends to His Excellency the Governor in Council that a sum of Rs. 25,000 from Provincial funds be allotted in addition to the Imperial assignment of Rs. 25,000 for experimental agricultural middle schools in the northern as well as in the southern districts and a corresponding reduction be made under 45-B. Civil Works.'

"In this resolution I ask that a sum of Rs. 25,000 may be allotted for experimental agricultural middle schools. So far as agricultural middle schools are concerned, there can be no difference of opinion. The Government of India have provided Rs. 25,000 for that purpose, and in the budget also that sum should have to be utilized for that very purpose—the assignment for experimental middle schools. I may at the same time invite the attention of the Government to the fact that they promised on more than one occasion to open an agricultural middle school at Anakapalle. I am not particular about the locality. They said that they would open one middle school at Anakapalle and one in the southern districts. I am not particular whether they open it at Anakapalle or any other place in the northern districts or in Coimbatore or anywhere else. I understand that to open one agricultural middle school something like Rs. 25,000 would be the least amount necessary. In that case to provide for both the schools I suggest that, when the Imperial Government have given Rs. 25,000, we can allot another Rs 25,000 more in order to provide two schools instead of one. If the Rs. 25,000 granted by the Imperial Government would suffice to start two schools, I do not want my proposition. I was under the impression, and I am so even now, that with this Rs 25,000 they can only open one school. With that object in view I press upon the attention of the Government that they should see their way to start two schools whether with this amount or with any additional amount which may be found from the provincial funds."

The Hon'ble Rao Bahadur V. K. RAMANUJA ACHARIYAR:—"Your Excellency, the Government are anxious to open agricultural middle schools in every district. At present they wish to open two schools; but the Director of Agriculture says that he has not got the men. Government will therefore open a school in the Malabar district and when men become available they will open schools in other districts. At present it is not possible to do more. That fact my friend does not know. If he knew, he would not have moved the resolution."

6TH FEBRUARY 1920.] (Mr. Venkatapati Raju; Mr. Swamikannu Pillai; Mr. Subba Rao.; Mr. Venkatppayya Pantulu.)

The Hon'ble Mr. B. VENKATAPATI RAJU:—"The Hon'ble Mr. Ramanuja Achariyar is evidently mistaken. There is no middle school opened as yet anywhere in the Presidency. He is referring to the teaching of maistries."

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur L. D. SWAMIKANNU PILLAI:—"Your Excellency, I think the Hon'ble Mr. V. K. Ramanuja Achariyar has explained the position correctly. Agricultural middle schools have not been actually opened; but I believe one will be opened very soon. I understand that the Director of Public Instruction is making the necessary arrangements. We had a formal proposal for opening one such school and therefore budget provision has been made. As regards other schools, I need not assure the Honourable Member that the promise made by the Government still stands; but they are not able to open more schools because it has taken all this time, nearly a year and more, to make arrangements for the school to be opened at Taliparamba, and it will take some time longer to open other schools. As the Hon'ble Mr. Ramanuja Achariyar has stated, there is a great difficulty at present to find teachers for these schools. The Director of Agriculture says that at least two agricultural officers are necessary for an agricultural middle school and we may not be able to find a number of such men for some time to come. A grant of Rs. 50,000 has been obtained from the Government of India towards the initial cost of two middle schools and one-half of this grant is still available. I think that the remarks of the Hon'ble Mr. Devadoss in the course of his speech on the resolution regarding a second agricultural college will be more applicable to agricultural middle schools. Honourable Members will now see what difficulty there is in opening agricultural middle school. Until we get several more agricultural officers, we shall not be able to open more agricultural middle schools."

The Hon'ble Rao Bahadur N. SUBBA RAO:—"I have a few words to say. In fact I would request the Honourable mover that we may lay stress on the word 'experimental',—experimental agricultural middle schools. I have talked on this question with some officers and expert agriculturists. A good number of these are themselves doubting whether this experiment will succeed. In these circumstances we have to wait and see how far this experimental agricultural school which will be started at Taliparamba will be a success. Then it will be time for us to see what we ought to do. My own idea is this. We must have some text-books and agricultural education should be given in all our village schools so that every boy may know something about agriculture. Then we want water and manure; and all agricultural facilities should be given by the Government for the benefit of ryots. We should wait and watch the experiment that will be tried at Taliparamba and see if it is a success. I hope therefore that the Honourable mover will see his way to withdraw the resolution."

The Hon'ble Mr. B. VENKATAPATI RAJU:—"Your Excellency, I am thankful to the Government. The Hon'ble Mr. Swamikannu Pillai says that the promise made by the Government will be kept up—the promise of opening a school. It is an extraordinary state of things. The Hon'ble Mr. Subba Rao doubts whether agricultural education would be beneficial in our Presidency. There may be difficulties in the matter of teaching, or there may be difficulties in securing attendance, but to doubt at this stage whether agricultural education is useful or not—I do not think that such a sort of sentiment would commend itself to the Council. It is useful and it must be useful, or it must be made useful to the country. I hope the Government have experts to suggest various methods of improving both the quantity and quality of agricultural education to the masses. In this connexion I mean to say that if agricultural schools have to be carried on in the vernacular there should be vernacular text-books prepared. The vernacular text-books prepared for the northern districts would not be useful for the southern districts. Therefore it would be enough if in various other directions the Government keep an eye that agricultural schools should be opened in the northern districts. The Hon'ble Mr. Swamikannu Pillai says that the money is available and the Government of India have sanctioned Rs. 50,000 for the building and we have received Rs. 25,000 for the maintenance. So I need not trouble this Council for any change of allotment in the budget, because according to the statement of the Hon'ble Mr. Swamikannu Pillai we have enough of money. Therefore I do not press this resolution."

With the permission of His Excellency the President the resolution was withdrawn.

The Hon'ble Mr. C. G. Todhunter introduced the heads XXI-B and 26-B. SCIENTIFIC AND MISCELLANEOUS DEPARTMENTS.

RESOLUTION RE GRANTS TO PUBLIC LIBRARIES.

The Hon'ble Mr. K. VENKATAPPAYYA PANTULU:—"The resolution that I have the honour to move runs as follows:—

XXXIII. This Council recommends to His Excellency the Governor in Council that a sum of Rs. 20,000 be provided in the budget under head 26-Be. SCIENTIFIC AND MISCELLANEOUS DEPARTMENTS—Donations to Scientific Societies for grants-in-aid of public libraries managed by private agency and the said amount may be met by a corresponding reduction under head 45. CIVIL WORKS.

(Mr. Venkatappayya Pantulu; Mr. Knapp; Mr. Narasimha Ayyar.) [8TH FEBRUARY 1920.

"Your Excellency, this resolution asks for a provision of Rs. 20,000 for grant-in-aid to public libraries. The library movement has been started in recent years. Several libraries of good standing have already been established and they are doing very good work. For example, the Ram Mohan Library at Bezwada, the Town Hall Library at Masulipatam, the Young Men's Literary Association at Guntur, and I may mention several other libraries of very great importance. The library at Ellore, which was started in 1900 contains about 6,000 volumes. The library at Rajahmundry started in 1908 contains about 8,000 volumes. So also the library at Nellore which was started in 1911 contains 3,000 volumes. There are about 500 libraries started and doing good work. These libraries not only help to spread literary knowledge in the country but also serve as a great instrument for the general awakening of the masses by creating and fostering public spirit in them. The example of the States of Baroda and Mysore may be followed by the British Government and that State aid for promoting the objects of these libraries may be granted. The great interest which Your Excellency has evinced and has been evincing since Your Excellency's arrival in this country has encouraged me to come forward with this proposition and I need not add any further grounds for commending the same for the acceptance of the Council."

The Hon'ble Mr. A. R. KNAPP:—"Your Excellency, I looked forward with a good deal of interest to the speech of the Honourable mover because I hoped that he was going to put before us definite proposals as to the manner in which we could assist public libraries. The question has been under consideration for some time and the difficulty has been that we have not been able so far to frame any definite scheme. Incidentally I may say that the analogy of Baroda is not altogether one we can follow. The population of Baroda is 2 millions against our 42 millions and the area of Baroda is 8,000 square miles against our 141,000 square miles. The problem here is therefore rather different. But though we have not settled any regular scheme we have come to the conclusion that State grants may be given for the encouragement of libraries. We are prepared as the Honourable mover suggests to provide Rs. 20,000 for this purpose in the coming year, but with this reservation that the money will not be disbursed direct but through local bodies. The matter is one which can most suitably be dealt with by local bodies. They are the people who are best qualified to see that if any money is expended from the public purse for this purpose it is properly spent. We shall await the receipt from local bodies of applications for grants from this Rs. 20,000 to enable them to assist in the formation and expansion of libraries in their areas, but the local bodies will of course have to come up with definite proposals as to how the money is to be utilized. I am therefore prepared to accept the Honourable Member's resolution if he will make a slight amendment in it so as to read as follows:—

'This Council recommends to His Excellency the Governor in Council that a sum of Rs. 20,000 be provided in the budget under the head 26-B, for the purpose of encouraging public libraries and that the said amount be met by a corresponding reduction under 32-E.'

The Hon'ble Mr. B. V. NARASIMHA AYYAR:—"Your Excellency, I am very glad to hear what has fallen from the lips of the Hon'ble Mr. Knapp. I am very much interested in this subject because in the southern districts the library movement has not sufficiently advanced. We had a conference of Imperial Libraries and I have been watching the work done in the northern districts. The Andhras whose proper representative we have here have got 500 libraries, whereas in the south I do not know whether we can count any single library. I may tell you I have started some eight libraries with the aid of public charities and Rao Bahadur Annamalai Chettiyar gave me his first subscription to start with. I feel the need for Government aid in this respect. There is also room for private efforts. That is an ideal thing. I should like the movement to spread rapidly because it is of the utmost importance in view of the coming changes. So I hope in accepting this resolution the Hon'ble Mr. Knapp will give a hint to the Publicity officer and the Director of Public Instruction to give the matter a push so that this may be accomplished at an early date."

The Hon'ble Mr. A. R. KNAPP:—"I take it that the Honourable gentleman accepts the amendment."

The Hon'ble Mr. K. VENKATAPPAYYA PANTULU:—"I thank the Honorable Mr. Knapp for the view he has taken and for resolving to set apart a sum for aiding public libraries. I hope these will be public libraries, open to the public and not Government libraries. On that understanding I accept the amendment and I am thankful to the Government."

The resolution as amended was put to the Council and agreed to.

The resolution as amended ran as follows:—

This Council recommends to His Excellency the Governor in Council that a sum of Rs. 20,000 be provided in the budget under head 26-Be. SCIENTIFIC AND MISCELLANEOUS DEPARTMENTS for the purpose of encouraging public libraries and that the said amount be met by a corresponding reduction under head 32-E.

At this stage the Council adjourned for the luncheon interval.

RESOLUTION RE APPOINTMENT OF PROTECTORS AND ADVISORS OF EMIGRANTS.

The Hon'ble Mr. B. V. NARASIMHA AYYAR :—"Your Excellency, the resolution I have the honour to move runs thus :—

XXXIV. This Council recommends to His Excellency in Council that the provision under 26-Bg. EMIGRATION of Rs. 12,500 be increased by Rs. 24,000 for the appointment of four full-time protectors and advisors of emigrants and that a corresponding deduction be made under 45. CIVIL.

"Your Excellency, in respect of this resolution which I sent in a fortnight back I have noticed that the Government were pleased to issue a Government Order, dated 2nd February which appears to touch the matter under discussion. The object of my resolution is to ensure for the large mass of the people in the country who are drafted into various channels of emigration to secure for themselves adequate protection and advice. At present we have only a single gentleman who will be said to be in charge of this work without any further assistance, i.e., the Collector of Madras in his capacity as a Protector of Emigrants. I notice the defect of such an arrangement has evidently struck the Government who in their desire to cope with the present requirements and to fit India for her place as an original member of the League of Nations and as a participator in the International Labour Conference have taken some further steps. It is in pursuance of these steps that the appointment of Mr. Paddison as Controller of Labour with a Deputy Controller and probably of Assistant officers of the grade of Deputy Collectors was ordered. The Government Order contains all the points and I wish only to withdraw. I however notice an omission. If the Hon'ble Mr. Todhunter will kindly look into the particular Government Order I find in referring to the work of the Assistant officers, they are asked to concern themselves about labour ; but the question of emigration has not been specifically included. It will greatly facilitate my work in moving a resolution if the Hon'ble Mr. Todhunter could help me. The question of emigration concerns not a particular part but I hope all the various places, and the function of Government must be that these officers should have some charge of training these emigrants. May I know from the Hon'ble Mr. Todhunter whether it is the intention of Government to make this work a part of the work of these officers in order to help Mr Paddison."

The Hon'ble Mr. C. G. TODHUNTER :—"The Honourable Member is correct in his supposition. We have only two Assistant Commissioners of Labour at present and they have hitherto been concerned specially with work connected with the depressed classes. But from the 1st April next, the staff will be increased to eight and the scope of the work will be expanded as opportunity arises to cover all matters connected with labour including emigration."

The Hon'ble Mr. B. V. NARASIMHA AYYAR :—"From now I hope it will be possible."

The Hon'ble Mr. C. G. TODHUNTER :—"The officers have not been appointed yet only two have been appointed. From the 1st April the full staff will be working."

The Hon'ble Mr B. V. NARASIMHA AYYAR :—"As soon as we get the full complement which the Government Order provides, this will cover the question of emigration also?"

The Hon'ble Mr C. G. TODHUNTER :—"Yes."

With the permission of His Excellency the President the resolution was withdrawn.

RESOLUTION RE PROVISION FOR CARRYING OUT THE RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION.

The Hon'ble Mr. P. SIVA RAO :—"Your Excellency, I beg to move—

XXXV. This Council recommends to His Excellency the Governor in Council that an increased provision of 5 lakhs may be made under the head 26-B. for carrying out the recommendations of the Industrial Commission and that a corresponding deduction may be made under the head of 45. CIVIL WORKS.

"In this resolution I ask that some lump provision should be made for carrying out the recommendations of the Industrial Commission. Honourable Members of the Council are aware that the Industrial Commission have made certain recommendations and the cardinal principles they have announced in that report have been accepted by the Secretary of State. There was reference in the recent speech by His Excellency the Viceroy to the lines on which progress should be made and the action to be taken. It is highly desirable that some provision should be made in the coming year for carrying out these recommendations. I need not detail what these recommendations are. They involve the establishment of chemical laboratories and so forth. I think it is almost imperative that we should have some allotment for the purpose. I think that in the coming year some of the schemes will be ready for immediate execution and then it should not be said that there is no allotment and the scheme should not fail on that account."

(Mr. Swamikannu Pillai; Mr. Siva Rao, the President; Mr. Narasimha Ayyar; Mr. Narasimha Raju; Mr. Venkatapati Raju) [6TH FEBRUARY 1920.

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur L. D. SWAMIKANNU PILLAI:—"The Hon'ble Mr. Siva Rao in moving the resolution, referred to the same matter which was referred to at the Finance Committee's meeting. He was then referred by the Honourable the Financial Member to the provision of 13·77 lakhs of rupees under the Minor head 'Development of Industries.' Of the 13·77 lakhs of rupees thus provided for, the Development of Industries will claim more than 2 lakhs of rupees and the remainder represents charges on account of Fisheries. The despatch from the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State on the Industrial Commission's Report was received only in November last and the Director of Industries will have to make proposals for expenditure hereafter. It is not expected that any proposals he may make will necessitate new expenditure in the year 1920-21 over and above the amount already provided for.

The Hon'ble Mr P. SIVA RAO:—"Your Excellency, this 13·77 lakhs is not the amount for carrying out the recommendations of the Industrial Commission. I should very much like that the Director of Industries should speak to this matter—if he has any scheme on hand and if he wants any more money. If he does not want it, I can withdraw the resolution."

His Excellency the PRESIDENT:—"Yesterday I made a similar remark, and I think there was some Honourable Member who said that a large development in industries is necessary. May I suggest my Honourable friend Mr. Siva Rao that it is rather unsatisfactory to put in a resolution for a lump provision of 5 lakhs for industrial development. The proposal is too general a character. The Director of Industries is working out a scheme of advance and I can assure my Honourable friend that we are determined to develop industries as far as we possibly can and if he will be satisfied with that, I trust he will see fit to withdraw the resolution."

The Hon'ble Mr. P. SIVA RAO:—"I wish to withdraw the resolution."

With the permission of His Excellency the President the resolution was withdrawn.

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur Sir P. Rajagopala Acharyar introduced the head XXII & 29. SUPERANNUATIONS.

The Hon'ble Mr. C. G. Todhunter introduced the head XXIII & 30. STATIONERY AND PRINTING.

RESOLUTION RE INCREASED PROVISION FOR COLLECTORATE PRESSES.

Under this head the Hon'ble Mr. B. V Narasimha Ayyar had given notice of the following resolution.

XXXVI. This Council recommends to His Excellency in Council that the provision of Rs. 5,000 for Collectorate presses under 30-C. be increased by Rs. 20,000 and that that sum be deducted from the head 45. CIVIL.

The Hon'ble Mr. B. V. NARASIMHA AYYAR:—"I do not propose to move the resolution." The resolution was not moved.

XXV. & 32. Miscellaneous.

The Hon'ble Mr. C. G. Todhunter introduced the head XXV & 32 MISCELLANEOUS.

RESOLUTION RE SPECIAL CONTRIBUTIONS TO VIZAGAPATAM MUNICIPALITY.

The Hon'ble Mr. C. V. S. NARASIMHA RAJU:—"Your Excellency, I formally move the resolution No. 37 which stands in my name. It runs as follows:—

XXXVII. This Council recommends to His Excellency the Governor in Council that the budget allotment under 32-D. MISCELLANEOUS—Contributions to Municipal funds may be raised by Rs. 30,000 for payment to the municipality of Vizagapatam as a contribution in aid of its balances and to make a corresponding deduction under head 45. CIVIL WORKS.

"I understand that the Hon'ble Sir P. Rajagopala Acharyar is going to make a statement regarding the help which the Government are likely to give to the Vizagapatam municipality. On account of the straitened condition of its finances owing to the expenditure on plague I wish to formally move this resolution."

The Hon'ble Mr. B. VENKATAPATI RAJU:—"I have given notice of the next resolution which is to the same effect. I wish to second Mr. Narasimha Raju's resolution."

The resolution No. 38 of which the Hon'ble Mr. B. Venkatapati Raju had given notice was as follows:—

XXXVIII. This Council recommends to His Excellency the Governor in Council that a sum of Rs. 20,000 be earmarked for payment to the Vizagapatam municipality to restore its financial equilibrium out of the reserve provision of 5 lakhs at the disposal of Government under 32-E, MISCELLANEOUS.

His Excellency the PRESIDENT:—"We shall take the two together."

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur Sir P. RAJAGOPALA ACHARIYAR:—"I may say that the Government are aware that the Vizagapatam municipality has suffered much on account of plague. During the years 1917-18 and 1918-19 the municipality spent Rs. 48,000 on account of plague. The year 1919-20 it is expected to close with a minus balance of Rs. 15,000. We recognise that this is a case in which help from Provincial funds is reasonable and we propose to grant Rs. 25,000 in the current year to enable the municipality to close with a plus balance. By giving the money immediately, the budget for the next year will not be disturbed."

The Hon'ble Mr. NARASIMHA RAJU:—"I thank the Hon'ble Member on behalf of the Vizagapatam municipality and I withdraw the resolution."

With the permission of His Excellency the President the resolutions were withdrawn.

33. Famine relief.

The Hon'ble Mr. C. G. TOTHUNTER:—"I beg to introduce the head 33. FAMINE RELIEF."

RESOLUTION RE GRANTS FOR INCREASED SALARIES FOR LOCAL FUND AND MUNICIPAL EMPLOYEES.

The Hon'ble Mr. V. MADHAVA RAJA:—"I wish to move my resolution No. XXXIX."

His Excellency the PRESIDENT:—"The Honourable gentleman has just missed his resolution owing to his absence but if he is anxious to move it I have no objection to his moving it now."

The Hon'ble Mr. V. MADHAVA RAJA:—"I am sorry I was a little late. I beg Your Excellency's pardon. The resolution that I wish to move runs as follows:—

'XXXIX. This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that a provision of 6 lakhs be made to supplement the resources of district boards and municipalities to meet additional expenditure for payment of increased salaries to employees on account of high prices and that a corresponding reduction be made under 45-B. CIVIL WORKS.'

"I request the Council to have some sympathy towards these poorly paid servants of local boards. During war time all Government servants who were getting Rs. 50 and below got war allowance. The local board servants did not get any. At that time the local board presidents and district board presidents were asked to give war allowance, and the Government suggested that they would give compensation for schoolmasters of all institutions run out of Provincial grants. Whether the local board presidents knew it correctly or not, the idea was that they would get a grant for teachers and other servants appointed out of Provincial grants. So they gave war allowance for two or three months; but after that period they were made to understand that Government was not prepared to give compensation for that, and so local boards had to abolish it. In that connexion, if I may be allowed to mention a particular case, take for instance, Palghat Taluk Board, I did not sanction war allowance at the same rate as that of Government servants. But I gave a general allowance of Rs. 2 to all subordinates. That alone came to about Rs. 16,000 a year. It would be indeed highly gratifying if a taluk board could afford to spend so much without affecting other works. First we gave war allowance and afterwards we had to abolish it; so the feeling about it became greater. Many vernacular papers in Malabar pointed out the very serious situation of the poor local board servants but I abolished the war allowance not because I did not want to give but because I had not enough funds to give. I know we will acquire about 12 lakhs of rupees. Why I ask for 6 lakhs is that something is better than nothing. I hope the Government will take pity on these poor low-paid servants. I think it is a hard case and that is why I move this resolution."

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur Sir P. RAJAGOPALA ACHARIYAR:—"Your Excellency, I quite see the hardship to which the Honourable Member refers. My point is that the Government cannot accept responsibility in a matter of this kind. Till now we have paid subsidies to local bodies for school buildings, medical buildings, minor sanitary works, water and drainage schemes. Sometimes a municipality may become insolvent as in the case of Vizagapatam and then we give it special help. We help the construction of bridges and causeways and we give special grants to the poorer districts. Then we give a grant equivalent to one-fourth of the land-cess for general purposes and so on. But it seems to me on principle that if local bodies should undertake to pay increased salaries to their employees on account of high prices the charge should legitimately fall on them. I think it is not correct for the Provincial Government to undertake to pay that. It is in this view that already several applications which have been received from individual local bodies for Provincial grants to enable them to give war allowances, have been rejected by the Government. I find on a rough calculation that the amount required would be not 6 lakhs as the Honourable Member seems to think but somewhere about 12 lakhs. While I recognize the hardship that the Honourable Member refers to, I submit to the Council that this will be an inconvenient precedent, that we should in view of rising prices take upon ourselves directly the responsibility for paying war allowances to all local bodies. Each local body must adjust its own finances. Under these circumstances I feel that the Government have no other alternative but to decline to accept this resolution."

The Hon'ble Mr. C. V. S. NARASIMHA RAJU:—"Your Excellency, I wish to place a few facts for the consideration of Government. After the issue of the Government Order the Vizagapatam District Board examined as to how much it could give from the current year's budget for the enhancement of salaries of local board servants. If I remember aright Rupees 84,000 was required to pay them fully according to the scale sanctioned by Government and by curtailing original works, the board was able to save Rs. 42,000 and give that amount for the enhancement of salaries of board servants. The board wanted to reconsider the question at the time of the revised budget and the question was considered and the board was not able to give any additional amount. The question is how the board can give that amount next year. The board cannot do that unless the original works are curtailed to a great extent. The construction of village roads and feeder roads are to be given up in order to find funds for this object. Under these circumstances it cannot be said that all avoidable expenditure is curtailed and no application can be made to Government with regard to the supplementing the balance. The curtailment of the original works can be made but as long as that is done it cannot give satisfaction to the tax-payer and unless it is done I do not see the board will be in a position to come to Government saying that they have avoided all expenditure that can be avoided and then apply for grants."

The Hon'ble Mr. V. MADHAVA RAJA:—"The balance will not be enough for the purpose. Moreover if we do not provide the requisite balance in the budget the district board will not accept it. No taluk board could forego the recurring expenditure. Why I asked for 6 lakhs of rupees is that at least some provision could be made which could be supplemented by local boards and municipalities. Without any help from Government I fear local boards will not be able to give any war allowance."

His Excellency THE PRESIDENT:—"This is really a matter of principle. The question of principle is this. Can the Government be prepared to pay extra wages to all district board, taluk board and municipal servants as well as their own servants. I may tell the Honourable Members that they will probably receive a shock when we put before them the exact cost of the increase of wages which we proposed to give to officers of various grades throughout the Presidency. And they will see what the amount is during the next few months. Further than that it is a fact that we have helped district boards to a large extent during last year with seven lakhs in the way of hospitals, 13 lakhs in the way of roads and a considerable amount in the way of expenses in regard to schools. Under these circumstances I feel very strongly and I hope the Council will agree that district and taluk board and municipalities must be responsible for the wages of their servants. Will the Honourable Member press his resolution?"

The Hon'ble Mr. V. MADHAVA RAJA:—"No."

With the permission of His Excellency the President the resolution was withdrawn.

XXIX and 42. Irrigation—Major Works.

The Hon'ble Mr. A. R. KNAPP:—"I beg to introduce head XXIX and 42. Irrigation —Major Works.

RESOLUTION RE PROVISION FOR DRAINAGE IN GODAVARI AND KISTNA DELTAS.

The Hon'ble Mr. B. VENKATAPATI RAJU:—"Your Excellency, the resolution which stands in my name runs thus:—

'XL. This Council recommends to His Excellency the Governor in Council that an additional sum of 5 lakhs be provided for drainage expenditure in Godavari and Kistna deltas under 42. IRRIGATION charges and a corresponding reduction be made under the head of 45-B.'

"I find in the budget there is a provision of Rs. 10,500 on page 14. This is a subject which has been discussed and which has engaged the attention of the Council as well as the Government for the last several years when on behalf of the Government the Hon'ble Mr. Hawley and his predecessor as well admitted that the drainage condition in Godavari and other deltaic systems is very defective and requires repairs which cost several lakhs. I understand from the previous discussion in this Council that proposals have even been sent up to the Government of India for a large expenditure of money to place the drainage conditions on a satisfactory basis. On behalf of the Government it is said that they will do their level best to place the drainage conditions of the two deltas on a satisfactory basis. We find for want of a satisfactory drainage there is also prevalence of disease in these parts; also there are water difficulties on account of flooding and in other ways. I do not see why such a small amount as Rs. 16,500 only was provided in the budget. I have not got the estimate which was sent up to the Government of India and whether they were returned by Government approved or not approved or whether they are still under consideration. I shall be very happy to learn from the Hon'ble Mr. Hawley what steps the Government have taken in this matter and why additional provision is not wanted or whether it is not possible for the Government to spend that amount. It is with that object, with a view to elicit all that information and if necessary to include the requisite amount in the budget I have brought forward this resolution which, I think, comes up for a fifth time before this Council within the last few years."

The Hon'ble Mr. W. J. J. HAWLEY:—"I think I can explain the difficulty referred to by the Honourable Member. He complains that although the Government have admitted that large improvements are necessary in the drainage systems of the Godavari and Kistna deltas provision for such improvements has been made in the budget to the extent of only Rs. 16,000. That is not quite correct. The resolution which he has moved relates to the head 42, Irrigation —Major Works, which includes only Extensions and Improvements and Maintenance and Repairs. The former head includes only petty works, costing as a rule not more than Rs. 1,000 for each item. The large schemes of improvement which were admitted to be required in the two deltas do not come under this head at all, but are financed from the Imperial head 48, Irrigation, which is not open to discussion in this Council. As a matter of fact, we have provided this year Rs. 21,500 in the Godavari delta under Extensions and Improvements, and Rs. 16,500 in the Kistna delta under the same head. Under repairs to drainage works we have provided for the Godavari delta Rs. 59,250 and for the Kistna delta Rs. 14,200 or a total, including establishment and tools and plant charges, of Rs. 91,078. This, it may be pointed out, is merely for maintenance and repairs and petty improvements. We have got under investigation which has been more or less completed and approved, large schemes in both these deltas, and in the current year's Imperial Budget allotment has been made to the extent of Rs. 1,10,426 under "49", in addition to the amounts I have referred to under the head 42 Major works. The Government, I may add, have allotted everything that the Superintending Engineers in charge of the two deltas have asked for under this latter head and any additional allotment now made would be liable to lapse. As, however, it is considered undesirable that expenditure on necessary repairs to drains should be in any way restricted, it is proposed to instruct the Superintending Engineers to comply in full with any demands for funds for petty improvements or repairs to drains by reappropriation from other provinces made under '42'. There is therefore not likely to be any restriction of work due to insufficient allotment under this head. With this assurance, Your Excellency, perhaps the Honourable Member will not require to press the resolution."

The Hon'ble Mr. B. VENKATAPATI RAJU:—"In the circumstances I do not press the resolution."

With the permission of His Excellency the President the resolution was withdrawn.

XXX & 43. Minor Works and Navigation.

The Hon'ble Mr. A. R. KNAPP introduced the heads XXX and 43. Minor works and Navigation.

RESOLUTION RE PROVISION FOR IMPROVING IRRIGATION IN VIZAGAPATAM.

The Hon'ble Mr. B. VENKATAPATI RAJU:—"Your Excellency this is a small matter. It runs thus:—

'XLI. This Council recommends to His Excellency the Governor in Council that an additional sum of Rs. 20,000 be provided under Irrigation—Minor Works 43, for improving the irrigation facilities in the Government taluks of Vizagapatam and a corresponding reduction be made under the head of 45-B.'

"I may at the same time state this is a very small matter which the department can very well be left to deal with, but as I have brought it for the consideration of the Council I may state so far as the Vizagapatam district is concerned in the Government taluks, at least in two taluks the Government are annually giving remissions on the average at about Rs. 20,000, in some years they are giving a remission of Rs. 32,000 or Rs. 34,000 and in one year Rs. 72,000 out of the very small income that they raise in these taluks. Even from a business point of view it is not at all advisable that the Government should forego that income which by engineering skill they could get by providing water in these taluks. For the last fifteen years in the District Conferences several resolutions were passed and submitted to the district authorities and to Government from time to time, that irrigation facilities can be provided apart from the major works of the Thandava project which was under consideration. There are other things, the Komaravolu project which is purely in a Government taluk and there is no difficulty of acquisition at all. There is also the Kondakarla ava in Anakapalli taluk which requires extension. It serves some villages of the Government but some portion in the bed of the tank should be acquired from the zamindar. There was also another scheme, which was under the discussion of the Government, namely, the Nagavalli reservoir. So far as the Komaravolu project is concerned, on behalf of Government it was once stated by the local officials that the cost was prohibitive But it was never suggested that these things are not practicable ; and with reference to these two the Kondakarla ava and the Nagavalli reservoir, when we take into consideration how much money year after year the Government are losing in the matter of remissions—if they calculate even on a business point of view how much amount they could invest once for all so that they may save this waste every year, I think the engineering authorities would come to the aid of the revenue authorities to see that they do not lose money by providing irrigation works in the Government taluks at least. With these observations I commend the resolution."

The Hon'ble Mr. W. J. J. HOWLEY :—" Your Excellency, as the Honourable Member has mentioned, the subject-matter of this resolution is really of no very great importance. He asks for Rs 20,000 for improving the irrigation facilities in the Government taluks in Vizagapatam district. He has referred in his remarks to three specific items. The first is the Komaravolu ava. This is a shallow tank or reservoir the storage capacity of which cannot be increased except by acquiring at a very high cost lands around the present waterspread of the ava. An extension of irrigation to the amount of 450 acres was however approved in 1917, and the Superintending Engineer was directed to submit proposals for bringing this extension under irrigation. Later data which have subsequently been collected have shown that this estimate of 450 acres was too sanguine, and we have asked the Superintending Engineer to investigate and report whether any lesser area can be brought under irrigation. His last report, in September 1919, was to the effect that the year 1918 was a phenomenally bad year as regards rainfall, and that it cannot be stated definitely without a systematic record of the inflow into, and the outflow from the ava for two or three years, what extension would be possible without affecting the existing irrigation. This record of inflow and outflow is being obtained, and it is at present impossible to come to any final decision in the matter.

The next item referred to was the Kondakarla ava. This is a somewhat similar case in which it was proposed to increase the storage capacity of the ava by raising its full supply level but it was in this case also found that the cost of this improvement would be prohibitive. There is also considerable doubt as to the amount of water-supply available. This ava is supplied from the Sarada river across which there are no less than 25 private anicuts above the Government anicut from which the ava is supplied. The result is that in times of scarcity there is very little water left below these 25 anicuts, for the supply of the ava It is also the case that the lands irrigated under this ava are comparatively low and it has on more than one occasion occurred that owing to bad rainfall, remissions have had to be given on account of defective supply, followed in the very next year by remissions on account of submergence of the lands. It is extremely doubtful whether it would be possible to make out any productive scheme in connexion with this ava. The Honourable Member has referred to the question of remissions and asked whether savings on this account are considered in examining schemes for new irrigation works. I may inform him that any saving in remissions is invariably taken into account in working out the financial aspect of such schemes.

"The third work referred to was the Thandava Project. This is a project for a storage reservoir on the Tuni river which forms the boundary between the districts of Vizagapatam and Godavari. This project, I may mention, would cost probably 60 or 70 lakhs and would have to be financed from Imperial Loan Funds under 48. Irrigation. The present position is that there are already about 12,000 acres of land under irrigation under this river, and the chief proprietors concerned, the Rani of Tuni, the Rani Sahiba of Wadhwan and other Agriculturists have all objected to the project. However investigations are still in progress and we are now taking observations at the last dam—there are five private dams or anicuts across the river—in order to see how much water remains surplus there. A report as to the readings taken last year is awaited from the Superintending Engineer. The data we have at present are insufficient to enable a final opinion to be formed, though it is highly unlikely that a productive scheme can be evolved The question will, however, be gone into carefully and a decision come to as soon as sufficient data are available. I think, Your Excellency, I have now replied to all the points raised by the Honourable Member, and I hope that with the information I have furnished, he will not find it necessary to press his resolution."

The Hon'ble Mr. B. VENKATAPATI RAJU :—"Your Excellency, from what I heard now I only understand that every possible step is being taken to improve the condition, but my complaint is there is no material improvement so far as facilities are concerned for the ryots. I earnestly appeal to the Government that either the Superintending Engineer of the locality or some other officer might be deputed to make a special study of the question as to whether they could not bring some relief or whether it is beyond the scope of Engineering skill to afford relief on practical lines. My request is that some such step might be taken—whether it is not possible to afford some help to them who are suffering irrespective of good condition days or bad days. With these observations I beg to withdraw the resolution.

With the permission of His Excellency the President the resolution was withdrawn.

XXXI, & 45. Civil Works.

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur Sir P. Rajagopala Acharyar introduced the heads XXXI and 45. Civil Works.

RESOLUTION RE GRANT TO LOCAL BODIES FOR THE MAINTENANCE OF TRUNK ROADS.

The Hon'ble Mr. V. Madhava Raja moved the following resolution of which he had given notice :—

'XLIII. This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that the provision of 22·11 lakhs allotted for expenditure by Civil officers under budget head 45 be raised to 38·11 lakhs by reducing the expenditure of 111·95 lakhs by Public Works officers to 95·95 lakhs, so as to leave the control and maintenance of trunk roads in the hands of local bodies themselves.'

In doing so he said :

"My Lord, We are on the eve of great and far-reaching changes. Larger powers are about to be transferred to popular control and we are anxiously looking forward to the enlargement of the spheres of popular administration.' It is rather unfortunate that at a time like this Your Excellency's Government should have proposed to take away the trunk roads from the control and management of the local bodies. Your Excellency's Government are aware of the recommendation of the Public Works Reorganization Committee that all branches of Public Works except irrigation might well be transferred to local bodies. The reason for curtailing the powers and activities of the local bodies is not apparent. As a matter of fact the local bodies of this Presidency have under them a very efficient staff and their Public Works Department is in as good and praiseworthy a condition as the resources at their disposal enable them to maintain. It is true, my Lord, that the district boards have often been heard to complain that with the limited funds at their command they are not in a position to keep the trunk roads in the best possible condition. The complaint is well-founded and ought to be soon remedied. The remedy proposed by Your Excellency's Government however is indeed very drastic. The proper way of dealing with the situation is to allot more money to the local bodies and ask them to improve the roads. If district board roads are in a state of disrepair the fault, I can assure the Council, is not entirely theirs.

"My Lord, the proposed transfer is open to serious objections. In the first place, the public will regard it as a reflection on these bodies and will draw their own inferences therefrom. A more important consideration which, I am sure, will have great weight with the Council is a question of cost. Those who are acquainted with local administration need not be told that the Public Works Department rates are generally higher than the local fund rates, though in point of materials and the quality of the work turned out, there is nothing to choose between the two. A great inconvenience results from this. The prevalence of two different rates in one and the same locality causes much trouble to the local bodies and stands in their way of getting good and efficient contractors.

"My Lord, my proposal does not entail any additional expenditure. I ask for no change but plead for the maintenance of a system which has hitherto worked very well. The proposed transfer will injure the prestige and usefulness of the local bodies.

"I may say at once that if the Government deem it desirable the local bodies may be directed to ear-mark the amount for the purposes of the trunk roads."

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur T. Denka Acharyar:—"Your Excellency, I strongly support this resolution. I do not think there is any sinister intention on the part of the Government to do anything which is calculated to diminish the prestige of the local boards but as a matter of practical politics and administrative convenience it is absolutely necessary that all the communications should be maintained by one agency in a district. Suppose we take 1,200 miles of road in a district and 1,000 miles are maintained by the local boards and the other 200 miles by the Public Works Department authorities, then it is certain this state of things will lead to a difficult situation. There must then arise for solution problems bearing on the allocation of the toll revenue from gates on the trunk roads passing through local and municipal areas, the schedule of rates relating to original works and maintenance and the finding of suitable contractors for district roads leading on to the trunk roads. I do not think there will be, on the other hand, any trouble at all in leaving the control and maintenance of trunk roads in the hands of the local bodies themselves. That trunk roads are efficiently managed by the local boards consistently with the means at their disposal will probably be testified to by the Hon'ble Sir P. Rajagopala Acharyar who has been touring in many of the districts. Having regard to the efficient and costly establishment attempted to be maintained by local boards I think it will be unnecessary to do anything more than leave the control entirely in their hands and place the funds intended for this purpose in their hands. I do not want to take up Your Excellency's time or the time of the Council any further and I don't believe that Your Excellency's Government will have any serious objection to permitting an arrangement which does not involve any extra expenditure, but needs only a readjustment of the heads under which the same may be shown, as a matter of administrative convenience."

(Mr. Subba Rao; Mr. Ahmad Tambi Marakkayar; Mr. Ramanuja Achariyar; Sir Rajagopala Achariyar.) [6TH FEBRUARY 1920.

The Hon'ble Rao Bahadur N. SUBBA RAO :—"I also support the resolution. Of course I do not do it on any sentimental or prestige grounds, but I do it on some practical grounds, which I wish to lay before Your Excellency's Government. The question of rates will come up which will be a knotty question for the boards to tackle with, because it is very well known that the rates that are paid by the Public Works Department are very high when compared with those given by the local boards. We shall also have to raise our rates. That means that our expenditure will be so much increased. In fact I may also say that the contractors will not be forthcoming for our boards' works when they can have better rates from the Public Works Department. It is well known that a school building or any other work that could be done by a local board for a thousand rupees, if undertaken by the Public Works Department would cost Rs 1,500 or even more. Of course, I welcome the idea of the trunk roads being taken by Government because that would be a great help to the boards, and we are also thankful to the Government for having taken over some of the hospitals, thus allowing the local boards to have more funds at their disposal for other works of utility. I therefore associate myself with the remarks made by my brother president and by the Hon'ble Mr. Madhava Raja, that we should have one agency to maintain these roads."

The Hon'ble Khan Bahadur A. T. G. M. AHMAD TAMBI MARAKKAYAR Sahib Bahadur :—"I wish to say a few words. I am sorry I have to dissociate myself with the honourable mover of this resolution. This Council is aware that some years ago I brought to the notice of the Council the disorderly manner in which the roads are kept in the districts. Local bodies are not in a position to maintain the trunk roads in proper order. Perhaps my honourable friend from Trichinopoly (the Hon'ble Mr. T. Desika Achariyar) might boast of his roads being kept in a proper condition because quarries are very close to him. With regard to the Tanjore district, I am sorry to tell you that they are in a very bad condition. The district board have taken up two of the roads belonging to the Negapatam Taluk Board saying that they are going to maintain them and they are still maintaining them. There are many roads in the Tanjore district leading from the east coast to the railway line, which are kept unattended and in a very bad condition. There are several metal roads which are not properly metalled. There are mud roads which have not yet been metalled. I was so very glad when the Government came forward to take over these trunk roads for keeping them in good condition. Instead of associating with the Government in the maintenance of these roads the honourable mover requests that these roads should again be handed over to the boards. I remember some years ago I moved a resolution that the Presidency should have the road in good order and condition so as to enable in need of emergency to use these roads when we had difficulty of communication by railway or by steamers. Only if we have good communication we will be able to carry on our trade and passenger traffic through roads. Owing to the bad condition in which the roads are kept in our Presidency we have to undergo a great difficulty in getting our traffic through the proper roadways and as I said some time ago in times of emergency when the enemy subjects are attacking us at one port, if the roads are kept in a good condition we will be able to move our troops easily from one place to another. Therefore it is better to keep the trunk roads in good order and that can be done only when Government come forward and spend a good deal of money and undertake to do it as early as possible.

"I agree on the point raised by the honourable mover because when the question of rates comes in, it will be a great complicated one, which can be best solved if the work is done only through one agency.

"The next problem is about the tolls. At present the district boards and municipalities have to adjust the income derived from these tolls. But if the Government take over all the trunk roads these questions regarding tolls will be decided by Government properly. I appreciate the goodwill of the Government in having come forward to undertake to keep the roads in good order and condition which I hope will be as early as possible unlike the various other Public Works Department works which are hanging for many years. I think this work should not be lying on in this way."

The Hon'ble Rao Bahadur V. K. RAMANUJA ACHARIYAR :—"I strongly support the resolution moved by the Hon'ble Mr. Madhava Raja. Many years ago I moved a resolution in this Council proposing the transfer of trunk roads from the local boards to Government, but the resolution was strongly opposed by Sir Harold Stuart, who gave what I then thought to be very good reasons why it should not be done. I do not know why these reasons have now been abandoned, and why these roads are to be taken up by Government. If the Government want to help the local bodies, the proper way would be to make the grant of 16 lakhs to them and ask them to utilize that amount."

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur Sir P. RAJAGOPALA ACHARIYAR :—"Our intention is to help the boards substantially in the maintenance of their roads, because many of the latter are in an utterly unsatisfactory condition and there is no chance of the boards being able to effect improvements with the funds at their disposal. In view of the opinions expressed now we will gladly transfer the funds to the boards, but of course it must be distinctly understood that the settlement of details in regard to the expenditure of these funds would vest with the Government. It is for the Government to decide what shall be considered trunk roads, what grants shall be given for their maintenance, and what procedure shall be observed to ensure that the Government grants are properly spent. Subject to these conditions I agree to accept the resolution."

6TH FEBRUARY 1920.] (Mr. Narasimha Raju; Mr Rajagopala Achariyar; Mr. Madhava Raja; Mr. Knapp.)

The Hon'ble Mr. C. V. S. NARASIMHA RAJU:—"Will the maintenance of roads be a provincial charge?"

The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur Sir P. RAJAGOPALA ACHARIYAR:—"Yes. It will be a provincial charge. We will give you the money and will insist that an adequate return for the money is forthcoming."

The Hon'ble Mr. MADHAVA RAJA:—"I thank the Honourable Members for accepting the resolution."

The resolution was put to the Council and agreed to.

RESOLUTION RE ALLOTMENT FOR VIZAGAPATAM ENGINEERING SCHOOL.

The Hon'ble Mr. C. V. S. NARASIMHA RAJU:—"Your Excellency, this resolution is intended to draw the attention of the Government to the slow manner in which the construction of the engineering school is proceeding. It runs thus:—

"XLIV. This Council recommends to His Excellency the Governor in Council that the budget allotment under "45 B. CIVIL WORKS—In charge of Public Works Officers" for constructing buildings for the Engineering school at Vizagapatam may be raised by Rs. 50,000 and to make a corresponding deduction under head "45. CIVIL WORKS—Police Buildings."

"The engineering school was established in Vizagapatam in 1918 and the school was started in a portion of the normal school or training school. It is a matter of inconvenience both to the engineering school and to the normal school. A provision of Rs. 20,000 was made in the current year's budget and the acquisition of land is not completed yet. I apprehend that this sum of Rs. 20,000 will be lapsed by the Public Works Department as well as the Revenue Department by not taking the necessary steps in time. A further sum of Rs. 20,000 is made in the next year's budget while the estimated cost of the buildings is Rs. 1·50 laths. Under these circumstances I thought the department was moving very slowly and great inconvenience is being caused both to the engineering school as well as to the training school. I drew the attention of Government with an interpellation that I put in November last and then the Government said that the estimates were being scrutinized. I only intended that the Government would be pleased to take steps to see that the building is finished at an early date. The boys in the engineering school are handicapped. They have to appear for the examination with the engineering boys in Madras and they have to be removed for the third year's course to Madras. And we cannot expect them to stand a good competition under these circumstances against the students of the engineering college which is well equipped and therefore some concession is to be shown to the students during this period by way of reservation of a number of seats in the Engineering school at Madras for third year's students. With these remarks I would draw the attention of the Government to the slow progress of the building."

The Hon'ble Mr. A. R. KNAPP:—"The Honourable Member was, I think, quite justified in calling the attention of the Government to the slow progress made in the building of the Engineering school at Vizagapatam. The execution of the work was ordered in April 1918, nearly two years ago. Unfortunately there seems to have been some difference of opinion as to the accommodation required and plans and estimates which had already been prepared had to be sent back again and are still under revision. I will undertake to see that everything possible is done to push through with the construction of this work.

"I may mention as regards the allotment of Rs. 20,000 for the current year's budget that this amount is intended for the acquisition of land and although unfortunately we have not yet acquired the land, I will see what can be done so that the money may not lapse."

The Hon'ble Mr. C. V. S. NARASIMHA RAJU:—"I withdraw the resolution."

With the permission of His Excellency the President, the resolution was withdrawn.

THE BILL TO VALIDATE THE MARRIAGE CELEBRATED BY THE REV. S. ISAAC BETWEEN WILLIAM JOSEPH PRESTON AND CATHERINE HENRIETTA IRELAND.

The Hon'ble Mr. A. R. KNAPP:—"I beg to introduce the Bill to validate the marriage celebrated by the Rev. S. Isaac between William Joseph Preston and Catherine Henrietta Ireland. I do not think I need trouble the Council with many remarks. The statement of objects and reasons gives a full account of the causes which led us to put this Bill forward. But the Council might perhaps like to be convinced of the bona fides of the parties who contracted the marriage and of the priest who celebrated the marriage. I may explain that the Rev. S. Isaac, the Indian pastor who performed this marriage, was granted a licence in the year 1873, under the Christian Marriage Act. He appears to have thought all along that the licence given covered sections 5 and 9 of the Act, and it was only in 1919 that on a scrutiny of the licences held by various missionaries in the Madura district it was found that the Rev. Mr. Isaac had never received a licence under section 9, though in fact he had one under section 6. It is quite clear that in performing this marriage the pastor acted bona fide. The same may be said of the parties to the marriage. The actual marriage took place in the American Mission Church at Cumbum in the Madura district and was witnessed among others by Mr. S. D. Peers, who was so well known in Madras. I think the Council may be quite satisfied with the bona fides of the whole transaction and will agree that we ought to do everything possible to rescue the offspring of this marriage from the unfortunate position in which they are placed. I therefore move that this Bill be read in Council."

The Hon'ble Mr. S. Srinivasa Ayyangar seconded the motion.

The Hon'ble Mr. B. V. NARASIMHA AYYAR:—"This is a non-contentious measure. But may I ask an information? The statement of objects and reasons does not furnish the information whether the parents who are both living are anxious to have this marriage validated. May I know whether there is any information on that subject, and whether the parents desire to have the marriage validated?"

The Hon'ble Mr. S. SRINIVASA AYYANGAR:—"Your Excellency, the real object of this legislation is to legitimatize the marriage so as not to bastardise the children. I think the Council ought to protect the children whether the parents like it or no. As a matter of fact, as the Hon'ble Mr. Knapp explained, there were bona fides throughout on the part of the pastor, on the part of the parties of the marriage, on the part of everybody concerned. It was only an error which was recently discovered and there was some doubt as to this and then they were advised to bring in this special legislation in order to validate the marriage. The only question was whether the parties were benefited by it. So long as there was even one child by the marriage which required the legitimatization it is competent for us to do so and it does not matter whether the parties require it or not. That is an unnecessary investigation. I am sure that the Hon'ble Mr. Narasimha Ayyar will be as much concerned with the validating of the marriage for the purpose of legitimatising the offspring as for the purpose of consoling the parents."

The Hon'ble Mr. B. V. NARASIMHA AYYAR:—"May I know whether the information is available? I understand the force of the Hon'ble the Advocate-General's argument but may I have the information as to whether the parents are desirous?"

The Hon'ble Mr. A. R. KNAPP:—"I do not think they were consulted. It is not the fact that they went through a form of marriage in the church estops them from objecting to the validation. They went through that form."

The Hon'ble Mr. B. V. NARASIMHA AYYAR:—"I find myself in a very difficult position. The object of this measure will have the whole-hearted support of every one in the assembly but I find myself placed in a difficult position because as a lawyer I cannot possibly conceive of validating a contract between two parties to the marriage contract when it is not known that the parties are anxious to have it validated. Is there any basis for it? Supposing the marriage has led to subsequent divorce, what is to happen? Are you now to validate something which has already terminated or been modified in a court of law with the consent of parties? I do not wish to put a spoke into the wheel but we must see that there are no legal difficulties and no points are omitted from consideration. Let us do it in accordance with the law, this is a Legislative assembly."

The Hon'ble Mr. S. SRINIVASA AYYANGAR:—"Your Excellency, I just want to explain one thing. The Bill does not in terms validate the marriage. What it says is that it shall not be deemed invalid. The marriage will not be valid if there was any other marriage or if there was some other objection for this. This Bill does not remove those defects. The only ground is on the ground that the minister who celebrated it has no licence under section 6. Therefore the only thing that the Bill seeks to do is to remove the doubt as to the validity of the marriage or the difficulty created in that respect by the fact that the minister did not hold a proper licence under the Act. It says that he shall be deemed to have held a licence under section 6. He did celebrate the marriage; the parties did go through the form of marriage and he thought he was authorized to celebrate it. He did hold a licence; the only thing was the licence was not of the kind which he ought to have held. The licence did entitle him to celebrate the marriage between other parties but it did not entitle him to celebrate marriages between Europeans and Anglo-Indians and that is the only reason why this Bill is necessary. I do not think the Bill has the effect of removing all doubts as to the validity of the marriage except this particular doubt, namely, the capacity of the minister to celebrate the marriage. That is a matter for the minister; I do not think it is a question of the consent of parties. Supposing that the parties who did ask the minister to celebrate the marriage went through the form of marriage and then afterwards turned round and said 'we do not want the marriage to be treated as good,' that does not release the Government from the necessity of validating the license capacity of the minister when that act done by him was regularly done. That is the only effect of the Bill. The act done by the minister does not result in validating the marriage on any other ground—those grounds still exist and are available to the husband and the wife and they can still dispute the marriage and my Honourable friend may dispute the marriage if he chooses. The only thing which the Bill does is to make the minister a proper minister for the purpose of celebrating the marriage which took place long ago. It is only a technical flaw. The minister thought that he was entitled to celebrate the marriage and the parties he was entitled. I do not see why there should be any objection."

The Hon'ble Mr. B. V. NARASIMHA AYYAR :—"I beg I may not be misunderstood. I was only thinking that there is a real flaw—a technical flaw—in fact, a technical error. This implies that their consent has not been taken. This reminds me of compulsory dissolution of childless marriages. I thought it was bad policy. I am in entire agreement with the Hon'ble the Advocate-General and I am not going to oppose it, but in view of the flaw I shall remain neutral."

The Hon'ble Rao Bahadur N. SUBBA RAO :—"Your Excellency, as a lawyer I think the point raised by the Hon'ble Mr. Narasimha Ayyar is not in order, because Your Excellency will find that the parties have gone through the marriage and we are not concerned with the consent of either of these parents. Suppose the parents had died in the meantime and the son is the only man interested and comes forward and wants to validate his marriage which was gone through solemnly and performed by the priest, I do not think this point will be of any avail."

His Excellency the PRESIDENT :—"I think very eminent lawyers have been trying to argue on either side. I think the best thing I shall do is to put it to the Council whether this Bill be read in Council."

The motion was put to the Council and agreed to.

The Hon'ble Mr. A. R. Knapp moved that the Bill be not referred to a select committee for report.

The Hon'ble Mr. S. Srinivasa Ayyangar seconded the motion.

The motion was put to the Council and agreed to.

The Hon'ble Mr. A. R. Knapp moved that the operation of Council rule 46 be suspended and that the Bill be passed into law.

The Hon'ble Mr. S. Srinivasa Ayyangar seconded the motion.

The motion was put to the Council and agreed to.

His Excellency the PRESIDENT :—"If my Honourable friend wants to talk about a certain circular that he referred to, he may do so."

The Hon'ble Mr. B. V NARASIMHA AYYAR :—"I first intended to do so, Your Excellency, and I must thank Your Excellency for your kindness in postponing it. This is the last meeting of that sort that is possible and therefore I will be taking up the valuable time of the Council by discussing it. It has now become purely academical."

His Excellency the PRESIDENT :—"I am afraid if he is returned again to the Council he will have to suffer from that circular as it is on this present occasion, if the Governor presides. It is interesting to me that while I had very great anxiety about 45. Civil Works when every Honourable Member moved resolutions asking reductions to be made from 45—it is interesting that during the discussion every Honourable Member has withdrawn his application to take the money required from 45. If I had known it before, it is possible that the circular may not have been drawn up. I hope the Honourable Member would be more fortunate under the reformed scheme. The Council will now adjourn."

The Council was then adjourned sine die.

R. A. GRAHAM,
Acting Chief Secretary.

3rd February 1920.

PART II

Memorandum by the Finance Member.

I beg to present to the Council the revised estimate for the year 1919–1920 and the budget estimate for the year 1920–1921.

General characteristics.

2. The year that is passing and the year that is to come will be remarkable in the annals of India. The year 1919–1920 opened, soon after the shadow of the great war had lifted, at a time when a large part of the resources of the Presidency had been diverted for nearly five years to purposes connected with the war, and all developments not connected with the war had been for the same period practically at a standstill. Almost all the services were depleted by the deputation of officers on military duty and by failure to recruit up to the sanctioned strength. The railways were short of locomotives and rolling-stock. Prices of food and clothing were nearly doubled, in other words, the purchasing power of the rupee was greatly reduced. With all this leeway to make up and all these difficulties in the way of making it up, the Presidency was faced with an unparalleled demand for development in every direction. Companies have been registered during the current year with an authorized capital exceeding that of those registered in the four previous years together; and the values of land and business premises in the capital city have gone up to rates that before the war would have been deemed altogether impossible.

Two redeeming features from the point of view of Provincial finance were the facts that the Province, in common with others, had in consequence of the financial restrictions on provincial expenditure accumulated large balances during the later years of the war, and that as a result of discussions arising out of the Reforms Report the Government of India had recognized the injustice of the present financial settlement to Madras. In view of the existence of a balance of about 2 crores in hand and of the prospect of a more favourable settlement at an early date the Government felt justified in budgeting for a deficit of 75 lakhs.

3. The season of 1918–1919 had been very unfavourable and had caused great anxiety in several districts. Towards the close, however, prospects were more favourable and at the time of the preparation of the budget for 1919–1920 the reports of Collectors anticipated some fear of famine in Ganjām, but none elsewhere. Certain Honourable Members of Council expressed a doubt as to the adequacy of the provision of 2 lakhs made for expenditure on famine relief, and the event has more than justified their anticipations. The situation in Ganjām continued to be unfavourable throughout 1919 and famine works were instituted in the month of January and were continued until the last day of the year. A liberal programme was put into execution both for the carrying out of works and for gratuitous relief and no less a sum than 38 lakhs was spent in the course of the year under these heads. Under the present provincial settlement, three-fourths of this are debitable to the Government of India. These funds were added to by private charities. The Ganjām Cloth Fund raised a sum of about Rs. 25,000, to which were added grants from the Indian People's Famine Trust amounting to Rs. 30,500.

Fortunately, other districts were spared a like visitation, but there was for a considerable period anxiety about the upland taluks of Kistna in which test works were opened and kept in operation from April to September. The total number of persons on relief, however, in this area never exceeded 2,000.

4. Though the remaining districts were spared the actual visitation of famine, the abnormally high prices of food-grains cannot but have caused considerable distress throughout the Presidency, and active measures to deal with these were accordingly instituted throughout the area. Action was taken to secure large supplies of rice from Burma, amounting in the year to 385,000 tons At the same time, the granary districts of Kistna and Tanjore were closed to export except under permit so that the Presidency might get the benefit of their surplus stock. Rice was distributed to licensed vendors under a system of district allotments and subject to conditions as to prices. These measures, coupled with the limitations imposed on transactions between provinces, though far from being completely satisfactory, did something to prevent the excessive rise of prices which would otherwise have resulted. At the same time, the Government did all they could to encourage the extension of cultivation, and the area cultivated from April to the end of November under first crop, dry and wet together, exceeded the average of the previous five years by 10 per cent and under second crop by 22 per cent. There is, however, vast room for further increase in this direction, most noticeably in the district of Malabar which with its great natural facilities produces less than two-thirds of the rice required by its population. The cost of the operations for the control of food supplies amounted in the year to 1·57 lakhs.

Another item which shows the effect of seasonal conditions is that relating to Land Improvement and Agricultural Loans. The figure budgeted for under this head was 8 lakhs. The actual disbursement will, however, be double that amount Revised Estimate for 1919-1920.

5. While seasonal conditions exercised so large an effect on the expenditure side, the revenue side was not adversely affected. On the other hand, the great improvement in trade was responsible for a very large increase in receipts under general stamps and registration fees, while the increase in litigation has contributed to enhanced receipts under court-fee stamps, the total receipts under Stamps and Registration amounting to 95 lakhs and 33 lakhs against 82·50 lakhs and 27·10 lakhs respectively budgeted for. Under Income-tax, it is expected that the budget figure of 38·95 lakhs will rise to 57·50 lakhs as a result of the collection of outstanding arrears and of increased commercial activities.

Another item which was largely affected was Excise. While prices of commodities doubled themselves and wages in many cases followed not far behind, the prices of excisable articles did not advance in the same ratio since the sale price consists of two variable parts, namely, the cost of manufacture and the auction fee, and one fixed part, being the duty. In spite, therefore, of a very high rate of duty, excisable articles did not during the year increase in price to the same extent as did food supplies, and this fact coupled with the trade boom may be regarded as largely responsible for an increase in the receipts of excise revenue from 234·08 lakhs to 266·80 lakhs. An increase in the duties on country spirit with effect from 1st April 1920 has since been ordered.

Another department which showed the effects of the war on both sides of the account is Forests. Until the war the efforts of this department were directed mainly to conservation. The demand for materials of all sorts brought about by the war led to the investigation of the resources of the forests and of ways of developing them; and the department shows a large increase of revenue under sale of tanning materials, timber, sandalwood, firewood, and charcoal. The forest expenditure also shows an increase of about 4 lakhs over that of the previous year.

6. These are only the main items. There is hardly an item in the revised estimate in respect of which the effects of the war and of the high prices of all sorts of commodities and of labour have not shown themselves. Thus under Public Works there is an increase in the cost of constructing buildings by 35 per cent: the cost of sanitary works is still larger on account of the cost of getting the materials from England, and this coupled with the difficulty of getting the materials has operated in several cases to postpone execution Under most of the services, both superior and subordinate, larger expenditure has been found necessary on account of changed conditions and increase in prices. The latter condition has enhanced the cost of maintenance of hospitals and jails Increase in railway freights has caused an excess under travelling allowances and increase in postal and telegraph rates has resulted in enhanced expenditure under service postage and telegram charges in all departments.

Budget Estimate, 1920–1921.

8. The prospects for 1920–1921 are more hopeful than those of the year that is passing. The season of 1919 was generally favourable and with the increase of cultivation there is reason to hope that foodstocks will be restored in many places. The increase in the revenue of the current year under the various heads already alluded to has resulted in the practical restoration of the overdraft of 75 lakhs on balances budgeted for in the current year. The coming year is thus expected to open with a balance of 206 lakhs. Before it closes, there will come into effect the reform of the Government together with a reform of the financial relations between the Local Government and the Government of India. Whatever may be the outcome of the negotiations in respect of the contributions from the various provinces to make good the anticipated deficit of the Imperial Government, it is clear that Madras can never be relegated to such an unfavourable position financially as it occupies under the present Provincial settlement. This circumstance coupled with the enormous demand on the public purse on account of long-delayed schemes and developments has been fully examined by the Finance Committee who have decided that they can in the ensuing year safely draw from the balances a total sum of 115 lakhs for expenditure in 1920–1921. The revenues are estimated at 974 lakhs. The two together give a sum of 1,089 lakhs which it is proposed to spend in the coming year, leaving a sum of 91 lakhs for the opening balance of the new Government.

9. The following table gives a bird's eyeview of the position :—

Revenue.

10. Under the heads of revenue, no very large departures from the revised estimates are anticipated.

Under Land Revenue including Irrigation, the revised estimate for 1919–1920 includes a large collection of arrears, and special receipts from the sale of waste lands in the Vizagapatam and Kistna districts. If these special items are excluded, the budget for the coming year provides for a small increase on account of the introduction of resettlement rates in portions of the South Arcot and Vizagapatam districts.

Under the head Stamps, a growth of 3 lakhs is provided for in anticipation of the continuance of the present expansion of trade and litigation.

The Excise revenue is always difficult to estimate. The toddy auctions for the year commencing with October 1919 have been marked by speculative bidding and it is not improbable that there may be a reaction during the latter part of the year. Under the head of Country spirits, increases in duty have been provided for, but it is hoped that these will be followed, as such increases generally are, by a reduction in consumption. On the whole, the budget takes credit for an increase in revenue of 15·70 lakhs.

Under Income-tax, there was a very large expansion in 1918–1920 for reasons which have been explained in dealing with the revised estimate. As one of these reasons, namely, large arrear collections, will not operate in 1920–1921, a reduction of 1·50 lakhs in the income has been allowed for.

Under Forests again a reduction in revenue is anticipated. One of the causes is the fact that the receipts in the current year under sandalwood are swollen by sales of the large stock left unsold in the previous year and by arrear collections on account of last year. Another cause is that in the current year abnormal amounts have been realized from the sale of tanning materials as a result of the removal of the restrictions imposed at the instance of the Munitions Board. Matters have now settled down and it is not expected that anything like the same prices will be realized hereafter. The budget has therefore been framed on a normal basis.

Under Registration, it is hardly expected that the abnormal expansion of the current year will continue and the budget estimate repeats the current year's revised figure

EXPENDITURE.

11. On the expenditure side, there are certain considerations that are common to all departments. The orders of the Secretary of State are now being received on the proposals of the Public Services Commission relating to all the superior services and the additional expenditure calculated on the cadres as at present employed is expected to amount to nearly 24 lakhs per annum. Parallel with this revision, it is hoped that this year will see the revision of the pay of the subordinate services on the basis of the recommendations of the Salaries Committee who have been appointed to inquire into and report on the question of the adequacy of the existing rates of pay of subordinate Government servants and menial establishments, including village officers. In the absence of their report, it is impossible to say what amount is likely to be required for this purpose. Tentatively, we have entered a provision of 53 lakhs, which will provide both for an increase of pay and for the absorption of the temporary war allowances at present granted.

12. Another general cause which, though it affects all departments, appears only under one head is the increase in the cost of buildings The budget for the Public Works Department shows an increase of 38·34 lakhs. Of this a large part is due to the taking up for execution of long-standing schemes some of which had been deferred since the commencement of the war. The total figure is swollen by the large increases in rates which have already been alluded to.

Another item that is included in this head is the provision of 16 lakhs for relieving local bodies of the cost of maintaining the main lines of communication. This is a matter that has long been under our consideration. Local self-government in Madras proceeded in the early days very much more rapidly than it did in any of the other provinces, and local self-governing bodies in this province undertook, as was done nowhere else in India, the maintenance of practically all the roads that exist. In view of the limited resources of local bodies and of the heavy strain imposed upon the roads while the railways have been unable to fulfil their normal functions, the task of maintaining the roads in proper order has proved to be one beyond the resources of local bodies, even though these are augmented by the retention of tolls, an antiquated form of taxation which has been abolished almost everywhere else in India. And the restoration and proper maintenance of the main lines of communication has become a matter of great urgency. Grants aggregating 26 lakhs were disbursed to local bodies in the years 1918–1919 and 1919–1920 to assist them in restoring these roads to a fit state. At the time these grants were made, proposals were already before the Government of India asking that the Provincial Government might be given an assignment from Imperial revenues for the purpose. The Government of India have undertaken to consider the request in connexion with the question of the financial relations under the Reforms Scheme. In view of the urgent necessity that exists for improving these main lines of communication the Government have decided to put the scheme in operation and have provided 16 lakhs for the purpose. Details of the scheme have not yet been worked out.

13 Another new item of expenditure which appears for the moment under 8. LAND REVENUE, but will later no doubt have a head in the budget for itself, is the expenditure to be incurred by the Commissioner of Labour. As the Council are aware, orders were issued for the placing of Mr. Paddison on special duty in March 1919 to work for the improvement of the condition of the depressed classes The shortage of officers resulting from the war prevented Mr. Paddison from giving his whole time to this work until near the end of the year since when his inquiries have resulted in showing that the scope of the work to be done goes far beyond what was originally contemplated. It is proposed that Mr. Paddison should now take up the creation of a Department of Labour which will deal with the following items. Emigration, Wage-census, Co-operative housing, Factories Act, Criminal Settlements, Organization of labour, Planters' Labour Act and Workman's Breach of Contract Act. The organization of this department will not be complete for some time to come. For the present a sum of 5 lakhs has been entered under the head 3. Land Revenue and another sum of 2 lakhs under 22. Education for the opening of elementary schools for the depressed classes

14. Education.—The following statement shows the expenditure on education including industries incurred in recent years from all public sources, i.e., Imperial, Provincial, local and municipal funds. It includes both recurring and non-recurring charges, but does not include expenditure on educational buildings incurred by local boards and municipalities from their own funds.

15. The next statement shows how much of the above expenditure was incurred on elementary education alone. This also includes both recurring and non-recurring charges, but excludes expenditure on educational buildings incurred by local boards and municipalities from their own funds.

16. The Government confidently anticipate a very large development in this department at an early date. But the foundations, which include the proper organisation of the department for an advance and the expansion of training facilities, must be well laid before the superstructure can be placed upon them. Though there have been great advances in recent years, the war has most regrettably delayed in some respects the taking of these preliminary measures, and the Director has found himself handicapped especially by want of trained teachers in making the large advances which are demanded. The expenditure incurred by Government on education has expanded from 18·54 lakhs in 1900–01 to 42·49 lakhs in 1910–11 and 154·50 lakhs in 1920–21. Throughout the greater part of this period, the Director has had the help of a single deputy and the work has become altogether too much for the two officers to control. It is now proposed to give him two additional Deputy Directors, one of whom will be a lady and will specially devote her time to the development of female education. The number of training schools in 1901, 1911 and 1919 was 74, 88 and 132 with a strength of 1,612, 2,939 and 6,423. The number of training colleges in 1911 which was 2 with 57 pupils has in 1919 risen to 8 with 188 pupils. The budget for next year provides 2·06 lakhs for opening additional training schools.

The outlay incurred by the Government for primary schools, which amounted to 26·03 lakhs in 1910–11, has been increased to 91·13 lakhs in 1920–21. There has also been an increase in expenditure on other branches of Education In 1918–19 it was decided to raise 18 of the incomplete secondary schools managed by local bodies to the grade of complete secondary schools and to open 49 new middle schools under the management of local bodies For the coming year we have entered a provision of 1·50 lakhs for opening additional schools of this class. The Government have also taken over in the current year four model high schools at Tellicherry, Coimbatore, Tiruvalur and Chittoor, thus giving further relief to local bodies. The budget provides for grants of 44·38 lakhs to local bodies including 3·50 lakhs for opening new elementary schools and 43·26 lakhs to aided institutions. In G.O. No. 659, Education, dated the 21st May 1919, it was announced that, with effect from the 1st April 1919, the minimum pay of trained teachers in elementary schools for boys and of women teachers in elementary schools for girls under public management would be raised to Rs 12 and Rs 18 per mensem, respectively. The budget includes the allotment of 1·27 lakhs provided for the purpose in the current year. The question of a further increase will be considered on receipt of the report of the Salaries Committee.

17. Medical.—The development under this head, though taken up later, has been hardly less rapid than that under Education. The expenditure, which stood at 16·77 lakhs in 1915–16, has risen to 44·54 lakhs in the coming year's budget. One of the causes for the large advance is the fact that the Government have during recent years taken under their control the Royapetta hospital and twenty mufassal head-quarter hospitals, involving an expenditure of nearly 7 lakhs, of which only 1 lakh approximately is contributed by local bodies. Again, medical schools have expanded from three in 1915–16 with accommodation for an annual admission of 120 pupils to five in 1919 with accommodation for 279 pupils Provision for building another school at Guntūr has been made in the next year's budget under 45. Civil Works. Development in this department has been and is still retarded by the dearth of officers as elsewhere, but in a greater degree. The cadre of the Indian Medical Service provides for 47 officers while there are now actually only 18 on duty. In spite of this shortage, the Surgeon General has made provision for sundry new departures including a tuberculosis hospital, an X-ray institute, instruction in dental surgery for civil assistant surgeons, improvements in the nursing arrangements of Madras, the institution of nursing arrangements up-country and the taking over of the Caste and Goshe hospital, Triplicane, as a step towards the institution of a Women's Medical College.

18. Under the head of Sanitation, against 23·19 lakhs in the current year's revised estimate, we have provided 34·52 lakhs in the next year's budget. The main items are grants to local bodies for minor sanitary works and for water-supply and drainage schemes, and a grant of 9 lakhs to the Madras Corporation. Here again, great lack of progress has to be admitted, largely due to lack of staff. Out of 75 municipalities only one has a completed drainage scheme and only 27 have protected schemes of water-supply. Water-supply or drainage schemes including schemes for the improvement of existing works are under execution in the case of 13; plans and estimates have been sanctioned in the case of six, while schemes are under investigation in the case of 37. The execution of these schemes has been delayed by the want of funds, want of officers, and difficulty in procuring materials. Under the first head, great stress has been laid by persons who can speak with authority on the desirability of concentrating funds on big schemes in preference to using them up for minor sanitary works, many of which have little result when completed. Under the head of staff, provision is made for an advance by the appointment of three more Deputy Sanitary Commissioners. The deficit in materials can only be made good in course of time. But the Government hope that by the time the reformed Government takes over, it will be possible to make a real advance in respect of the essential services of water-supply and drainage.

19. Industries.—This department dates practically from 1914–15, and while a great part of its energies has been taken up in the supply of munitions during the war, there can be no doubt that circumstances arising out of the war have given a great stimulus to its activities. The expenditure has advanced from 2·41 lakhs in 1916–17 to 8·59 lakhs in 1919–20. For 1920–21 the grant is 13·77 lakhs which includes larger provision for pisciculturat works, grants-in-aid to industrial schools, and miscellaneous experiments, and allotments for the reorganization of the Weaving Branch, the District Industrial Staff and the Madras Technical Institute (Leather Trades Institute and Madras Trades School).

20. Agriculture.—This is a department at the organization of which provision was made for an ultimate and an immediate scale of staff, and the object in view is to work up from the latter to the former as fast as funds can be provided and suitable officers employed. The following table compares the superior staff proposed to be employed in 1920–21 with that in 1914–15:—

Director of Agriculture	1	1
Principal of the Agricultural College	1	1

21. Co-operative societies.—In this case the expenditure is entirely in connexion with the staff. It has always been hoped that the time will come when it will be possible to dispense with official supervision and audit and hand over the bulk of the work to private enterprise. The Registrar, however, while proposing a very large development in the movement involving the formation of nearly 4,500 new societies in the next two years, has expressed his conviction that it is impossible for some years to come to dispense with official fostering and has submitted proposals for a large increase of staff, which is to be placed on a temporary basis for five years. Copies of these proposals were placed before the members of the Finance Committee for their scrutiny and they have unanimously decided that the Registrar's proposals are on the right lines and accordingly an increase of about two lakhs has been included in the budget.

22. Forests.—As already explained, there has been a recasting of forest policy, and attention is now being given to exploitation where formerly conservation only was done. Two exploitation schemes for which provision has been made are those of the sal forests in Goomsur and the Chanat Nayar forests in Coimbatore. It is hoped that both these schemes will be remunerative.

23. Police.—The increase in expenditure under this head amounts to about 5½ lakhs of which sum about a half may be put down to increase in the salaries, allowances and contingencies of the staff which has been found necessary from time to time. The remainder provides for the redemption of the undertaking given at the time of the introduction of the Police Commission's proposals to provide houses for the subordinate staff. Efforts have been made over a long series of years to push on with the scheme of building quarters which will suffice to provide accommodation for all constables, head constables and sub-inspectors. The total cost, however, was found even before the war to amount to no less than 72 lakhs and the present cost would be very much higher than that. The carrying out of a scheme of this magnitude cannot but take a very large number of years. The Government have therefore decided in the intervening period to rent houses for the officers and men concerned for whom no Government quarters are ready. A sum of 2·75 lakhs has been provided for this purpose. This of course will be reduced as fast as Government quarters are provided.

24. Courts of Law.—The total increase is about 5 lakhs, the bulk of which relates to the revision of pay of the several services. The cost of the executive branch of the Indian and Provincial Civil Services is debited to 3. Land Revenue and 19-A. Courts of Law in the proportion of seven to three. The budget also provides 1 lakh for carrying into effect the long deferred scheme of opening additional District and Sessions Courts at Tanjore, Anantapur and Vellore.

25. Lastly may be mentioned the provision of 5 lakhs under 18. General Administration for elections under the Reforms scheme. It is very difficult at present to estimate what sum will be required for this important matter. The preparation and printing of the registers, the taking of nominations, the arrangements for polling, the hearing of appeals will all involve considerable expenditure and a great deal of organization in advance. Mr. Evans has been put on special duty to make proposals for dealing with these questions and is likely to be in charge of the arrangements until the work is completed.

26. The following tables compare the figures of the budget and revised estimate for revenue and expenditure under the chief heads:—

27. The total expenditure for the year 1920–21 as thus evolved amounts to a sum of 1,089 lakhs, which is the largest amount ever yet set down for expenditure in the Presidency for a year. Large as the amount is, it is still very far short of the needs of the Presidency. As has been indicated under the various heads, progress has been delayed in almost every direction. Under the heads of Education, Medical, and Police the expenditure per head of population in Madras is less than half the expenditure in the sister province of Bombay. Similar comparisons might be made with other provinces in respect of the expenditure under other heads, notably that of General Administration. The increase of prices renders re-examination of salaries imperative. The need for more money to spend on sanitation is wellknown to every member of the Council. Jail reform is only delayed pending the report of the Jails Committee. With this leeway to be made up in the established departments, the new departments, such as Industries, Fisheries, Agriculture, Co-operation and Labour are all crying out for funds and will need more and more as time goes on. The Council must not therefore expect that the sum now set down for expenditure is anywhere near the maximum. On the contrary, it is the lowest sum which, after anxious discussion with the Finance Committee, the Government feel should be provided. In this connexion, it may be noted that the Members of the Finance Committee have been in touch with the Government throughout the preparation of this budget. Early in October, they were asked to suggest schemes which they desired to see included. In November, these schemes and those which were put forward by heads of departments were discussed and an order of priority arranged. A budget was then drawn up on this basis. This was discussed with and approved finally by the Finance Committee at its meeting of January last and the Government hope that it will be found acceptable to the Council at large.

PART III.

Detailed Memoranda explanatory of the figures under each Major Revenue head and under each Major Expenditure head of account.

Introductory.

The conditions of Provincial finance are determined by the terms of an administrative arrangement subsisting between the Government of India and the Local Government and known as the Provincial Settlement. The revenue and expenditure of the province as classified in the public accounts are divided between the two Governments in accordance with the terms of this settlement.

With effect from the 1st April 1911 this Provincial Settlement, which had hitherto been subject to change, was made permanent subject to the following conditions:—

(1) It shall not be subject to revision in the future, except by way of commuting fixed assignments into growing revenue;

(2) in case of serious famine the question of assistance from Imperial revenues will be duly considered by the Government of India;

(3) in special cases where the Local Government are unable to meet their requirements from their current revenues or by drawing on their balances, they should take the necessary amount as a short interest-bearing loan from the Government of India repayable in suitable instalments; and

(4) the Government of India reserve the right to call for assistance from Provincial revenues in case of serious embarrassment in their own finances.

At the same time Forest revenue and expenditure, which had hitherto been divided, were made wholly Provincial.

2. The present statement does not deal with the heads which are wholly Imperial. The following table shows the several heads of revenue and expenditure which are divided between Imperial and Provincial:—

Revenue.

3 Ordinary Revenue.—The budget estimate for the current year was framed on the basis of normal conditions. The decrease in the revised estimate is due to smaller collections of water-rate and miscellaneous revenue and larger remissions than were anticipated on account of the unfavourable conditions of last year in the districts of Ganjam, Gödävari, Guntür, Cuddapah, Kurnool, Chingleput, Chittoor, North Arcot, South Arcot and Salem. This has, however, been partly counter-balanced by collection of arrears outstanding from the previous year. The budget for 1920–1921 has been fixed on the assumption that the seasonal conditions in the ensuing year will be normal. The budget also takes credit for a small increase on account of the introduction of resettlement rates in two taluks of the South Arcot district and the Vizagapatam district.

4. Sale-proceeds of waste lands and redemption of land-tax and Miscellaneous.—The figures under these two minor heads are fluctuating and are based on actuals. Special receipts from the sale of waste lands in the Vizagapatam and Kistna districts which were not anticipated at the time of framing the budget account for the increase in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 under the former minor head. The receipts from 'fees charged for the time and labour of the Land Records staff' which were hitherto shown under 'Miscellaneous' are with effect from the current year being taken in reduction of charges under 8. LAND REVENUE—Land Records.

Expenditure.

5. Charges of district administration.—The increase in the revised estimate occurs mainly under 'Allowances' and 'Contingencies'. The excess under the former item is due partly to the incurring of larger expenditure on travelling allowances mainly as a consequence of the enhancement of the daily allowance of inferior servants from two to four annas and partly to the transfer to this minor head of a portion of the lump provision entered in the budget in the major head summary for enhanced war allowances; while the increase under the latter item, viz., Contingencies, is chiefly the result of larger postage and telegram charges, enhanced remuneration to copyists and examiners and increased charges on account of the Laccadive and Amindivi islands. The above excess has, however, been counterbalanced to some extent by savings in 'Salaries' attributable to the absence on long leave of a large number of officers in the higher grades.

The budget for 1920–1921 contains the following lump provisions (of which three-tenths are transferable to 19-A. Courts of Law):—

(i) Revision of pay of Indian Civil Service officers in pursuance of the recommendations of the Public Services Commission.	5·07
(ii) Revision of pay of Provincial Civil Service officers	·87
(iii) Additions to the contract contingent grant owing to increased postal and telegraph rates.	·99

The above additions, partly counterbalanced by a smaller provision under taluk establishments, account for the increase over the revised estimate for 1919–1920.

6. Survey and settlement.—As in 1918–1919, the budget for the current year provided for one party for estate surveys the cost of which is recoverable from the estates concerned.

The increase in the revised estimate is due mainly to the grant of enhanced war allowances provision for which appeared in the budget in the major head summary, and to smaller recoveries on account of estate surveys. The budget for 1920–1921 includes larger provision for temporary establishment in the Survey Controlling Office, for Settlement parties and also a lump provision of ·10 for the reorganization of the Survey Department in pursuance of the recommendations of the Public Services Commission.

7. Land Records.—In the budget for 1919–1920 credit was taken under the receipt head I. Land revenue for the 'fees charged for the time and labour of the Land Records staff'; but, as already stated, it has been decided that these receipts should hereafter be exhibited in the accounts as a deduction from charges. As a consequence of this change, the revised estimate for 1919–1920 shows a decrease as compared with the budget, but it has been reduced as a result of an increase under war allowances for the reason already alluded to.

The budget for 1920–1921, besides allowing for larger expenditure on establishments for preparing revenue and agricultural statistics and for smaller recoveries from fees charged for the time and labour of the Land Records staff, includes a lump provision of ·77 for increasing the number of revenue inspectors in this Presidency.

Reference to page in the Civil Budget Estimate.

8. Allowances to district and village officers.—To this minor head is debited the expenditure on account of village establishments other than karnams and assistant karnams. The decrease in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 as compared with the budget for that year occurs under payments on account of both ryotwari and proprietary village service establishments and under petty construction and repairs. The budget for next year besides allowing for larger expenditure on the above items includes lump provisions aggregating ·31 for the revision of village establishments. 39-40 43 44

9. The following lump sums have been provided in the budget for 1920–1921:—

(i) 12·30 for revision of pay of the subordinate services; and

(ii) 5·00 for promoting the welfare of the depressed classes 25

Item (i).—The question of the adequacy of the existing rates of pay of subordinate Government servants and menial establishments, including village officers, has been referred to a 'Salaries Committee.' The situation created by the increase in the prices of the necessaries of life which has been a marked feature since 1918 is now being met by a system of special war allowances to subordinates drawing Rs. 50 per mensem and less; but this form of relief cannot be continued indefinitely. The changed conditions will probably render a readjustment of salaries necessary. It is probable that the recommendations of the Salaries Committee will involve expenditure over and above the war allowances now granted to subordinates. A lump provision of 12·30 has accordingly been entered provisionally under this head. The expenditure will eventually be distributed among the several service heads affected.

Item (ii).—With a view to improving the condition of the depressed classes throughout this Presidency, a Special Officer has been appointed for the purpose of dealing with problems connected with the education of these classes and with the best means of raising their standard of living by providing them with house-sites and wells, by encouraging co-operation among them and by improving their labour conditions. It is also proposed that the Special Officer who will be known as the Commissioner of Labour should take up the creation of a Department of Labour to deal with emigration, wage-census, co-operative housing, Factories Act, criminal settlements, organization of labour, Planters' Labour Act and Workman's Breach of Contract Act. The charges on account of educational facilities to be given to the depressed classes have been shown under 22. EDUCATION, while a lump provision of 5·00 to meet the other items of expenditure has been entered under the present major head.

Revenue.

7 10. The receipts represent the share, credited to this major head, of the sale-proceeds of the unified postal and revenue stamps, the sale-proceeds of bills of exchange and other general stamps, of court-fee stamps, and of stamped papers for copies of documents, the duty for embossing one-anna receipt and cheque stamps, the fees levied under the Indian Stamp Act, 1899, in respect of documents brought for adjudication and documents unstamped or insufficiently stamped, and fines and penalties levied by Judicial and Revenue officers under the Stamp Act on insufficiently stamped instruments.

7 11. The revenue from the unified postal and revenue stamps is credited to the Imperial head Post Office. Out of this revenue, the Government of India have sanctioned the credit to the head Stamps of a sum of 3·50 per annum, the amount being included under the minor head sale of general stamps.

12. The budget for the current year provided for the normal growth of revenue under this head. The latest actuals however indicate that this anticipation will be largely exceeded as a result mainly of the revival of trade and litigation after the cessation of the war. The budget for the coming year allows for a further increase of 8·00.

Expenditure.

41 13. The expenditure under this major head relates to the Central Stamp Office, and to charges connected with the sale of general and court-fee stamps, and to the cost of stamp paper.

14. Superintendence.—The clerical establishments of the Stationery and Stamp offices at Madras are placed on a single list, and the total cost of the combined establishment was distributed between the heads 6. Stamps and 30. Stationery and Printing in the proportion of 10 to 17 up to the 1st March 1915. Since then owing to the revision of the establishment, the proportion has been altered to 13 to 25.

The revised estimate for 1919–1920 includes freight charges on supplies of post-cards indented for in 1918–1919 but received from the Controller of Stamps, Calcutta, and paid for in 1919–1920.

42 15. Charges for sale of general stamps.—The increase in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 as compared with the budget under this head is chiefly due to larger expenditure anticipated on account of discount on the sale of general stamps.

Revenue

16. Licence and distillery fees, etc.—Previous to the year 1914–1915 there was a steady increase in the revenue under this minor head consequent upon successive enhancements of the rates of excise duty on country spirits, larger collections under tree-tax, an increase in consumption of country spirits—notwithstanding successive reductions in the number of shops sold—and increased rentals from toddy, arrack and opium shops. This increase received a check in the year 1914–1915 from the disturbance of economic conditions caused by the war, and the actuals for that year showed a decline of ·74. The year 1915–1916 witnessed a further decline of 15·30. Since 1916–1917, however, there has been a marked recovery and the actuals for that year and the years following show advances of 21·33, 30·23 and 59·06, respectively, over those of the previous years. The budget estimate for the current year was framed on a conservative basis after taking into account the unfavourable agricultural situation in certain districts. The progress of actuals however indicates that the revenue will exceed budget anticipations, the increase occurring especially under 'Country spirits' and 'Toddy' due in the former case to larger consumption on account of high wages and in the latter to speculative biddings at auction sales of toddy shops.

The rates of excise duty on country spirits were raised from 1st April 1918 by 10 annas per proof gallon in most of the districts, by Re. 1–4–0 in the Ceded Districts, Kurnool, Ganjam, Vizagapatam, Madura and South Kanara and by Rs. 2–8–0 in Malabar. With effect from the 1st April 1920, the rates will be raised still further by 10 annas per proof gallon in the Ganjām and Vizagapatam districts, Madras City and Saidapet taluk, by Rs. 2-3-0 in the South Kanara district and by 15 annas in the rest of the Presidency. The rates of tree-tax were enhanced from 1st October 1918 by 25 per cent in the districts of Ganjām, Vizagapatam, South Kanara and Malabar, by 33⅓ per cent in the Ceded Districts and Kurnool and by 20 per cent in the rest of the Presidency except Ramnad and Tinnevelly.

The consumption of country spirits was actually smaller in 1916–1917 than in 1914–1915 and much lower than in 1913–1914 and 1912–1913. There was a trifling increase in consumption in 1917–1918, as compared with the previous year, but it still remained far below that of 1913–1914 and 1912–1913. There was a further increase in consumption in 1918–1919 though comparatively small, but the figures for 1919–1920 so far as they are available indicate that there will be an abnormal increase which can only be attributed to an abnormal increase in the earnings of the consuming classes.

The budget estimate for 1920–1921 allows for the average growth of revenue in recent years.

17. Gain on sale-proceeds of excise opium.—This Presidency is supplied with Ghazipur opium, free of cost in the first instance. Of the gross sale-proceeds, an amount calculated on the quantity actually sold at a fixed rate representing the estimated cost of production is credited to the Imperial head II. Opium, and the balance to the shared head V. Excise—Gain on sale-proceeds of excise opium. The rentals derived from opium shops are, however, shown under the minor head Licence and distillery fees, etc. The cost price of opium was raised from Rs. 11 to Rs. 13 per seer with effect from the 1st April 1918. The issue price of opium, which before stood at Rs. 45 per seer was, with effect from the 1st April 1919, raised to Rs. 50 per seer.

The revised estimate for the current year is based on the latest actuals available, and the budget estimate for the ensuing year practically follows the current year's revised estimate.

18. The duty on ganja which then stood at Rs. 5 per seer was raised to Rs. 7½ from 1st April 1911, to Rs. 10 from the 1st April 1914, to Rs. 12½ from the 1st April 1915, to Rs. 15 from the 1st April 1918, and to Rs. 17½ from the 1st April 1919.

The receipts from this source are credited to the third minor head, viz., Duty on ganja, while the rents from retail shops are shown, as in the case of opium shops, under the minor head Licence and distillery fees, etc.

Expenditure.

19. Under the head District Executive establishment are recorded the charges for registration of agreements of renters of vend areas, and of holders of independent shops the annual rental of which exceeds Rs. 1,000 and expenditure on rewards and contingencies.

20. Portion of the combined salt and excise establishment.—The expenditure on the combined establishments, which is arrived at after deducting the charges on account of Salt excise licensees' works, and salt purchase and freight, from the total cost of the combined departments of Salt and Excise, is apportioned between the heads 5. Salt (Imperial) and 7. Excise (shared equally between Imperial and Provincial) in the ratio of 1 to 2, this being approximately the ratio which the salt revenue bore to the excise revenue in 1907–1908. The increase in the actuals for 1918–1919, as compared with those of the preceding year, is chiefly due to (1) the revision of the scale of pay of subordinates of the Salt and Abkāri Department which was introduced from 1st April 1918; (2) the grant of war allowances and (3) increased expenditure on the construction of quarters and buildings in connexion with the new salt extensions.

The budget estimate for 1920–1921 includes a lump provision of ·18 debitable to this head on account of the revision of the pay of the officers of the Salt and Abkāri Department as a result of the recommendations of the Public Services Commission and contains larger provision under "petty construction and repairs" for the opening of new salt extensions.

21. With effect from the 1st April 1916, the Government of India have imposed additional taxation to meet Imperial needs. As the head VIII. Income-tax is shared equally between Imperial and Provincial, an assignment equal to one-half of the receipts accruing from the additional taxation is being made from Provincial to Imperial as explained in paragraph 158 infra. 9-10

22. The proceeds of the super-tax imposed under Act VIII of 1917 and of the excess profits duty which the Government of India have decided to levy during 1919–1920 are credited wholly to Imperial heads and are consequently not included in the figures given above which relate to the divided head Income-tax.

23. With effect from 1919–1920 the Government of India have exempted incomes below Rs. 2,000 per annum from assessment to income-tax and have given a compensatory assignment to Provincial funds for the loss entailed by such exemption as explained in paragraph 158 infra.

24. The increase in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 as compared with the budget for the year is attributed to the collection of arrears outstanding from the previous year. The budget estimate for 1920–1921 provides for smaller arrear collections, but takes account of the increase which may be expected as a result of the extension of trade and of the better administration of the tax. 9

25. In order to cope with the increased work arising out of the provisions of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1918, a special income-tax officer was appointed for the town of Madras temporarily for a period of two years from August 1918. The staff of inspectors and accountants employed in the city for income-tax work has also been enlarged, and their pay revised. These causes account mainly for the increase since 1918–1919. Additional income-tax establishments have also been sanctioned for mufussil districts in the current year. The budget estimate for the ensuing year, besides including provision for the above, contains a lump provision of ·50 for the employment of special income-tax officers to improve the methods of assessment and investigation.

26. Timber, etc., removed by Government agency.—The increase in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 as compared with the budget estimate occurs mainly under 'Timber' and 'Sandalwood', due in the latter case to the anticipated sale of the large stock of sandalwood left unsold in 1918–1919, to the extraction of a larger quantity in the current year and to arrear collections on account of last year. The budget estimate for 1920–1921 provides for more normal transactions.

27. Timber, etc., removed by consumers or purchasers.—The revised estimate for 1919–1920 shows an increase of 6·38 as compared with the budget for that year under 'Firewood and charcoal,' 'Grazing and fodder grass' and 'Other minor produce'. The bulk of this increase, which occurs under the last head, is due to the withdrawal of control over tanning materials by the Indian Munitions Board resulting in the realization of higher prices for them in the open market. The decrease in the budget estimate for 1920–1921 occurs mainly under—

(i) 'Firewood and charcoal' owing mainly to the discontinuance of the sale of fuel coupes in the Chenat Nayar Forest which will be worked departmentally for timber; and

(ii) 'Other minor produce' owing to the expectation that the prices of tanning materials will not remain at their present level in the ensuing year.

28. Miscellaneous.—The increase in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 as compared with the budget estimate occurs mainly under 'Other sources' and is due to the arrear collections of the purchase money in respect of certain estates on the Anamalais. The decrease in the budget for next year is due chiefly to the absence of this special item of receipt.

Expenditure.

29. To the minor head Conservancy and Works are debited (a) the outlay on the improvement, extension and protection of forests generally, (b) the outlay on communications and buildings under charge of the Forest department, (c) the cost of the extraction and transport to sale depots of timber and other forest produce exploited departmentally, (d) the cost of supervision of the removal of similar produce by private agency, (e) charges for the survey and demarcation of forests and (f) the cost of cattle, stores, tools and plant. The increase in the actuals for 1917-1918 and 1918-1919 is chiefly on account of charges for the preparation of hay for the Munitions Board. Timber operations also contribute to the increase in 1918-1919. The decrease in the revised estimate for 1919-1920 as compared with the budget estimate for that year is due mainly to a lapse in the provision for 'communications and buildings.' The increase in the coming year's budget is due almost wholly to the inclusion of lump provisions for two schemes, expected to be remunerative, for the exploitation of the Goomsur and the Chenat Nayar forests. 45

30. Establishment.—The increase in the budget estimate for 1920-1921, as compared with the current year's revised estimate, is due to the following causes:—

(i) Inclusion of a lump provision on account of the revision of the pay of Provincial service officers in pursuance of the recommendations of the Public Services Commission; 47

(ii) Employment of a Forest Utilization officer and staff, and of a special officer for the organization of forest panchayats; ..

(iii) Revision of the scale of pay of Imperial Forest Service officers (The scheme took effect in the course of the current year, but the revised estimate contains charges for a portion of the year only while the budget for 1920-1921 contains a full year's provision); 44

(iv) Re-organization of the subordinate executive and protective staff. (The scheme is being introduced gradually); 47

(v) Larger provision under 'travelling allowances' and 'contingencies.' 48

11 31. The large increase in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 as compared with the budget for the year is attributed to the prevailing high prices and the investment in land and in speculations due to the abnormal profits earned during the war. In view of the abnormal receipts in the current year, it has not been considered advisable to provide for any growth of revenue in the coming year.

Expenditure.

49 32. The minor head Superintendence comprises charges on account of the Inspector-General of Registration, his office establishment and contingencies, while District charges represent the salary of district registrars and sub-registrars and their establishment, and contingent charges.

50-52 33. District charges.—The figures from 1918–1919 include expenditure on account of (a) the grant of war allowances and (b) the introduction from the 1st April 1918, of a scheme for the reorganization of the clerical establishments in Registration offices.

52 The budget estimate for 1919–1920 included a lump provision of ·12 for the revision of pay of district registrars in pursuance of the recommendations of the Public Services Commission. The revised scale of pay was given effect to from the 2nd April 1919, and the present incumbents were permitted to count their service as district registrars for increments in the new scale of pay. The budget provision will accordingly be exceeded. Larger expenditure is also anticipated on section-writing and copying owing to an increase in the number of applications for encumbrance certificates, the production of which has been made compulsory in the case of sales of immovable property of the value of Rs. 100 and over against the former limit of Rs. 500.

52 The budget estimate for 1920–1921 besides providing for a further increase of ·21 under section-writing and copying, larger expenditure on travelling allowances, and for the revision of the cadre of Sub-Registrars includes lump provisions for the following objects :—

(a) Opening new offices	·14
(b) Probationary clerks	·08
(c) Revision of the pay of Sub-Registrars	·50
(d) Bifurcation of the registration districts of Tanjore and Tinnevelly	·14

85. The minor heads here are treated as wholly Imperial, wholly Provincial, or divided between Imperial and Provincial, according to the classification of the corresponding heads of revenue. The charges consist chiefly of pensions paid to landholders as compensation for lands resumed by Government, malikhana allowances and other special compensations. Excise compensations represent mainly the compensation paid by Government in lieu of abkári and opium privileges which have been either leased or resumed in Native States. The main items under this head are an annual payment to the Nawab of Banganapalle for the lease to Government of the abkari and opium revenue of that State, a compensation to the Travancore State for the suppression of ganja cultivation, and an annual refund to the French Government of the duty on opium and ganja supplied to French renters. The payment to the Banganapalle State which was hitherto a fixed amount will hereafter be made on the basis of the net collections of the revenue derived in the State.

36. The revenue represents mainly the interest received by the Local Government on advances and loans made from the Provincial advance and loan account. This account, the capital transactions of which are outside the current budget figures, provides for the grant of loans to agriculturists, local bodies, etc. The moneys required for the loans are furnished by the Government of India. The Local Government pay interest thereon and bear losses on account of bad debts. In order to cover risks and cost of management, the Local Government charge a higher rate of interest than that which they have to pay to the Government of India.

The revenue under this head also includes interest on Government securities belonging to institutions taken over by Government, along with the endowments for the upkeep of such institutions. In spite of the enhancements which are noticed below of the rate of interest charged by the Government of India to this Government no change has up to date been made in the rate charged by this Government on loans to agriculturists. The rate of interest charged on loans to local bodies made after the enhanced rates charged by the Government of India came into force has, however, been raised to 6 per cent.

Expenditure.

37. The interest which is paid to the Government of India by the Local Government on sums placed at the disposal of the latter for advances and loans to local bodies, agriculturists, etc., is shown as expenditure under this head, this interest being calculated on the mean between the outstanding balance of the Provincial advance and loan account at the beginning and at the end of each year. The rate of interest charged to the Local Government was 3½ per cent per annum, but with effect from the 1st October 1916 this rate was raised to 4½ per cent in respect of loans sanctioned by them on or after that date, and again with effect from 1st April 1917, to 5½ per cent in respect of loans sanctioned on or after that date.

38. Staff and household of the Governor.—The expenditure on the purchase and maintenance of furniture, carpets, and other equipment for Government houses, is shown under this minor head. The increase in the revised estimate for the current year as compared with the budget occurs mainly under 'Government House furniture' and is due to the payment of unspent balances of the war years and of the inauguration grant due on a change of Governors. 40-41

39. Executive Council.—The budget estimate for 1920-1921 includes a lump provision of 50 on account of Members and Ministers under the Reforms Scheme. 43

40. Civil Secretariats.—The increase since 1918-1919 is chiefly due to the formation of the Revenue (Special) Department for dealing with matters connected with the war and the development departments. The question of converting it into a development Secretariat to deal with the branches of administration concerned with the development of industries, agriculture, fisheries, forests and other resources of the Presidency is under consideration. The increase in the revised estimate, as compared with the budget for the current year, is due to the employment of officers on special duty in the Civil Secretariats 43-48

Revenue.

12-19 42. The principal source of revenue is General fees, fines and forfeitures. The revenue under this minor head is, however, liable to fluctuations as it depends largely on the amount of judicial fines inflicted. The receipts under the minor head Pleadership Examination fees are also liable to fluctuations, as they depend upon the number of candidates appearing.

20-26 Expenditure.

70-71 43. High Court.—Under this minor head are shown the salaries of the Judges and officers and establishments of the High Court, and the connected contingent expenditure.

70 The budget for 1920–1921 includes provision for the permanent retention of all the twelve Judges. The increase as compared with the revised estimate occurs

72 mainly under 'Printing and Translation Charges' where an addition of 50 per cent over the old rates has been allowed for.

73 44. Law Officers.—This minor head comprises the charges on account of the Advocate-General, the Government Solicitor, the Government Pleaders at Madras and in the mufassal, and the appointment of a separate Public Prosecutor in Madras to discharge duties formerly devolving on the Government Pleader. It also includes the fees paid by Government to pleaders in civil and criminal cases

74-76 45. Civil and Sessions Courts.—To this minor head are debited the charges in connexion with the City Civil Court, the Courts of District and Sessions Judges, Subordinate Judges and Munsifs, the judicial establishments of the Government Agents in Ganjām, Vizagapatam and Gōdāvari, and process-serving and copyist establishments. The gradual increase in expenditure is due mainly to the additional temporary courts which it has been found necessary to open in various districts.

The increase in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 as compared with the budget is due chiefly to the grant of enhanced war allowances, provision for which was originally entered as a lump provision under the major head. The budget for 1920–1921 includes provision for the permanent retention of 11 temporary Sub-

76-77 Courts and 15 temporary District Munsifs' Courts. Lump provisions aggregating

75 1·00 have also been entered for the creation of District and Sessions Courts at Anantapur (·40), Tanjore (·40) and Vellore (·20).

81-83 46. Criminal Courts.—Under this minor head, the variations in the figures follow the corresponding alterations under the minor head 5-A. Land Revenue—Charges of District Administration, a portion of which is transferred to this head. The provision in the budget for 1919–1920 for 'Charges of Stationary Sub-Magistrates' is expected to be exceeded owing to larger expenditure under establishment and diet and road money to prosecutors and witnesses. The expenditure on account of local allowance for high prices also shows an increase in consequence of the transfer to this minor head of a portion of the lump provision for enhanced war allowances entered in the budget in the summary.

70 47. The following lump provisions have been entered in the budget for 1920–1921:—

1·64 for the revision of the pay of the officers of the Provincial Judicial Service in pursuance of the recommendations of the Public Services Commission; and ·19 for increased contract contingent expenditure on service postage and telegrams as a consequence of the enhancement of postal and telegraph rates.

48. The main source of receipts under the major head Law and Justice—Jails is the sale-proceeds of articles manufactured in Jails and supplied to public departments.

49. Jail manufactures.—The decrease in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 is due to smaller orders from the Military department owing to the cessation of hostilities. The budget for the ensuing year allows for a further fall.

Expenditure.

50. Under this head are shown (a) the expenditure connected with the staff employed in the supervision of jails, (b) the charges for the maintenance of convicts, and (c) the cost of the purchase of raw materials for jail manufactures. Items (b) and (c) are fluctuating, being dependent on the strength of the jail population and on demands for jail industries. Variations in the prices of food-grains, and outbreaks of epidemic diseases in jails also affect the charges for maintenance of prisoners.

51. Jails.—The increase in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 as compared with the budget for that year occurs mainly under 'Dietary Charges'. Against the current year's budget estimate of 5·50 for this item, the revised estimate for 1919–1920 and the budget for 1920–1921 are placed at 11·83 and 10·17, respectively, owing to a rise in the prison population and the high prices of foodstuffs.

52. Jail manufactures.—The estimates have as usual been framed with reference to the probable demands for jail manufactures next year. The decrease in the estimates for 1919–1920 and 1920–1921 is due to a fall in the orders from the Military department owing to the cessation of hostilities.

53. The receipts under this head consist mainly of (a) fees and fines levied under the Cattle Trespass Act, 1871, (b) the recovery of the cost of the police supplied to public departments, private companies and persons, and (c) fees levied under the Madras Hackney Carriage Act, 1911, and the Indian Motor Vehicles Act, 1914.

Expenditure.

92–118

54. The cost of the establishments maintained in connexion with cattle-pounds is debited to this head, but the bulk of the expenditure relates to the Police department. The charges relating to the establishment and maintenance of settlements for the reclamation of criminal tribes and for the reception of prisoners are also recorded under the minor head Miscellaneous. The settlements for the reception of prisoners have, however, been abolished as such since July 1917 and have been re-constituted as reformatory settlements under the Criminal Tribes Act.

90–93

55. Presidency Police.—The increase in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 as compared with the budget is due to the revision of pay of Imperial Police officers and to enhanced war allowances, the provision for which appeared in the budget under the major head summary. The budget for 1920–1921 allows for an increase under 'Town and Suburban Police' and a lump provision of ·05 for the revision of pay of European Sub-Inspectors. It also includes the usual lump grant of ·22 for the renting of quarters for subordinate police officers in the Madras City. All subordinate officers of the City Police are entitled to free quarters, and residences are being constructed for them as funds are available. In the meanwhile the Inspector-General of Police has been empowered to rent houses for such of these officers as have not yet been provided with Government quarters.

91

93–94

56. Superintendence.—The salaries of the Inspector-General and of the Deputy Inspectors-General and of their establishments are accounted for under this minor head. Both the revised estimate for 1919–1920 and the budget for 1920–1921 include provision for the revised rates of pay sanctioned for officers of the Imperial Police Service The revised estimate contains in addition larger provision on account of the leave allowances of officers.

57. District Executive Force.—The salaries of District Superintendents, Assistant and Deputy Superintendents and of their establishments, and the cost of the District Police force, the Provincial Training School at Vellore and the recruit schools for constables are included under this minor head. 44-108

The larger expenditure in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 is accounted for partly by the revision of pay of the Imperial Police Service officers and partly by an increase under 'Allowances.' The latter excess occurs (i) under 'Local allowance for high prices' provision for which appeared in the budget as a lump sum in the summary and (ii) under 'Travelling allowance' due to the increased rate of daily allowance and the grant of family travelling allowance to constables for journeys on transfer. There is also an increase under 'Supplies and Services' in connexion with clothing and uniform and service postage and telegram charges. The lump provision of ·73 entered in the budget for 1919–1920 for the renting of quarters for the mufassal constabulary has been repeated in the ensuing year's budget. 100-101 101-102 102

58. The expenditure in connexion with police talaiyaris appears under the minor head Village Police 103

The small increase in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 over the budget for that year is due to the transfer to this minor head of a portion of the lump provision entered originally in the major head summary for enhanced war allowances counterbalanced by savings anticipated in the provision for the pay of talaiyaris. The budget for 1920–1921 includes larger provision for talaiyaris.

59. The charges of the Criminal Investigation Department, including the finger-print establishment, which forms part of this branch, are shown under the fifth minor head. The department is controlled by a Deputy Inspector-General who also supervises the Railway Police. 103-104

The revised estimate for 1919–1920 exceeds the budget for the year chiefly under 'Salaries'. This is due to leave allowances, to the discontinuance of the practice of debiting one-fourth of the salary of the Deputy Inspector-General to 'Railway Police' in accordance with the revised system of classifying Railway Police charges referred to in paragraph 60 infra and to the revision of the scale of pay of officers of the Imperial Police Service. The increase in the budget for 1920–1921 is attributable to the revision of pay of clerks in the Finger-print Bureau and the formation of a staff of 24 shorthand reporters with an allowance of Rs. 50 each per mensem, partly counterbalanced by savings under 'Salaries'. 104 103

60. Railway Police.—Prior to the year 1919–1920, this minor head included the cost of the police staff employed on railways, and one-fourth of the salary of the Deputy Inspector-General for Criminal Investigation and Railways, and of his office establishment. The cost of supervision and of the police executive staff was distributed among the railway companies concerned in proportion to mileage. Seven-tenths of the aggregate cost was recovered from the companies, the recoveries being shown as deductions from charges. The budget for 1919–1920 was framed on this basis. During the year, however, a change was introduced in the system of apportioning the cost between railway companies and Government. Under the revised system, the Government will meet the entire cost of the crime and order police, while the railway companies will bear that of the watch and ward police and pay to the Government of India in addition a fixed contribution to meet the obligations imposed on them by their contracts. This accounts for the increase in the revised estimate over the budget for 1919–1920. The budget for the ensuing year follows the current year's revised estimate. 104-110

61. Under the next minor head is shown the expenditure on account of cattle-pounds in the mufassal, the charges on account of the pounds in Madras being debited to the minor head Presidency Police. 109

62. Miscellaneous.—The increase in the revised estimate as compared with the budget for 1919–1920 occurs mainly in regard to the criminal settlements at Kalichedu, Sitanagaram, Bethapudi and Pallavaram, partly counterbalanced by savings in the provision entered for the Bhumanmaddi settlement and by the lapse of the amount 110-112 provided for the Madras depôt for the sale of goods manufactured in criminal settlements. The budget for 1920–1921 contains smaller provision especially in respect of the Bothapudi settlement and the industrial home for the children of criminals, but the reduction is to some extent set off by an increase in the charges of the Pallavaram settlement on account of the construction of additional huts.

63. The budget includes the following lump provisions :—

(i) ·25 towards the extra cost on account of the revision of pay of Provincial Service officers in pursuance of the recommendations of the Public Services Commission.

(ii) ·40 for additional contract contingent expenditure on account of enhanced postage and telegram charges, and

(iii) 2·75 for the renting of houses for all Sub-Inspectors, head constables and constables in the mufassal for whom houses have not yet been built or rented.

66. Fees—Government Colleges—General and Professional.—The figures under these two minor heads depend upon the strength of the Government Arts Colleges and the Law College. The revised estimate for 1919–1920 and the budget estimate for 1920–1921 under 'Government Colleges—General' include the fee income from the Victoria College, Palghat, Brennen College, Tellicherry, and Coimbatore College which were recently taken over by Government.

67. Fees—Schools—General.—The figures from 1919–1920 take credit for the fee income from the secondary schools at Tiruvālūr and Chittoor taken under Government management.

15

68. Miscellaneous.—The increase in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 as compared with the budget estimate for the year is due to the refund of the unspent amounts of Provincial contributions received in previous years by certain private institutions.

16

Expenditure.

213-218

69. University.—The figures for 1919–1920 include 1·00, being the last instalment of the promised grant of 5·00 for expenditure on the construction of the University library buildings.

218

The budget estimate of ·99 for 1920–1921 is made up of (a) ·65 being the recurring Imperial grant, (b) ·10 for expenses in connexion with the travelling allowances to Fellows, (c) ·13 as a grant towards the cost of publishing a Tamil lexicon thus completing the promised grant of 1·00, and (d) ·006 for the maintenance of the Johnston of Carnsalloch scholarship.

314 70. Direction.—A lump provision of ·20 is included in the budget for next year for the appointment of an Additional Deputy Director and a Deputy Directress to cope with the increasing work of the department.

114–116 316 71. Inspection.—The budget for 1919–1920 included a total provision of ·60 for (i) the appointment of an additional Inspectress of schools (·13), (ii) addition of four Inspectors' circles (·23), and (iii) the appointment of twelve additional Sub-Assistant Inspectors (·24). The decrease in the revised estimate is due mainly to the anticipated lapse of a portion of this sum.

310 The budget estimate for 1920–1921, besides providing for all the above schemes for a full year, includes lump provisions aggregating 1·09 for further augmenting the inspecting staff by the appointment of (a) an additional Inspectress of schools (·11), (b) eight additional Inspectors (·57), and (c) two additional Sub-Assistant Inspectors and four additional Sub-Assistant Inspectresses (·41).

115–118 72 Government Colleges—General.—The increase in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 as compared with the budget estimate for that year is due to the taking under Government management of the Brennen College, Tellicherry, and the Combatore College, for which a sum of ·64 was included in the lump provision of 1·32 entered in the budget in the summary under the major head. Larger allotments have been made in the budget for 1920–1921 under 'Supplies and services' and 'Contingencies' for the improvement of the colleges recently taken over by Government.

118–120 119 73. Government Colleges—Professional.—The budget estimate for 1920–1921 includes a lump provision of ·33 for the appointment of two additional Professors in the Indian Educational Service and for strengthening the subordinate staff in the College of Engineering.

121–124 74. Government Schools—General.—The details of the figures under this minor head are—

121–124 113 75. Government Schools—Proper.—The revised estimate for 1919–1920 includes expenditure on the Board Secondary Schools at Tiruvâlûr and Chittoor which were taken under Government management and for which provision was included in the lump allotment of 1·32 entered in the budget in the summary under the major head. 224 The budget for 1920–1921 contains larger provision under 'Salaries' and a lump provision of ·05 for the employment of music teachers in Government girls' schools.

76. Payments in support of local board and municipal schools.—It is under this sub-head and under the minor head 'Grants-in-aid' that the bulk of the expenditure in connexion with the expansion and improvement of elementary education occurs. The following statement shows the details of the charges under this sub-head :—

Item (ii).—Of the provision of 3·50 in the budget estimate for 1920–1921, a sum of ·50 is intended for the opening of schools for the depressed classes in sites to be selected by Collectors in consultation with Mr. G. F. Paddison, I.C.S., who is on special duty for promoting their welfare. On the recommendation of the Finance Committee, a further sum of 1·50 has been entered in the budget towards the buildings and equipment required for these schools—vide item (viii) infra.

Item (iii).—Out of the lump provision of 1·27 entered in the budget for the current year in order to raise the minimum pay of teachers to Rs. 12 in the case of boys' schools and to Rs. 13 in the case of girls' schools, a sum of ·08 represented the expenditure on account of Government schools, while ·94 was disbursed as subsidies to local bodies. These amounts appear under the appropriate heads both in the revised estimate for the current year and in the budget for next year. The balance of ·25 is entered as a lump provision to meet demands from local bodies with reference to the actual expenditure incurred by them.

Item (iv).—An additional provision of ·22 has been entered in the budget for next year for the opening of 100 night and continuation schools.

Item (vi).—With the object of providing additional facilities for secondary education and of relieving congestion in the existing secondary schools, it was decided in 1918–1919 to raise 18 of the incomplete secondary schools managed by local bodies to the grade of complete secondary schools by opening an additional form in each year and to start 49 new middle schools under the management of local bodies.

The budget estimate for 1920–1921 contains an allotment of 3·59 for the schools recently started and for opening additional schools.

Item (viii).—On the recommendation of the Finance Committee, a sum of 1·00 has been entered for grants to local bodies for elementary school buildings. The balance of 1·50 has been explained under item (ii) above.

77. Government Schools, Special.—The decrease in the revised estimate for the current year as compared with the budget is due in part to the lapse of sums entered in the budget for various objects, such as the opening of additional training schools for masters (1·07) and mistresses (·12), manual training centres (·30), and agricultural middle schools (·25). Smaller expenditure on contingencies in training schools and schools of arts and other technical schools, also contributes towards the decrease.

The budget estimate for 1920–1921, besides containing larger provision under 'Salaries' and 'Stipends' of training schools, includes lump allotments for opening additional training schools (2·06), employment of additional teachers in women's training schools (·11), and opening manual training centres (·14), agricultural middle schools (·25), a civil engineering school at Trichinopoly (·35), a reformatory school for girls (·10) and an industrial school for boys (·21).

78. Grants-in-aid.—The total figures under this minor head may be broadly classified as follows:—

Item (2).—Larger provision has been made in the budget for 1920–1921 for stipendiary grants in training schools and teaching grants in secondary schools.

Item (3).—The decrease in the revised estimate for the current year as compared with the budget is due mainly to the lapse of the greater portion of the provision for play grounds and for building grants in European schools.

79. Lump allotment for the medical inspection of schools.—Against the provision of ·14 entered for this item in the budget estimate for 1919–1920, a sum of ·06 is expected to be utilized in the current year and it is shown in the revised estimate under Government schools—General. The budget estimate for 1920–1921 contains a provision of ·70 for the purpose.

80. The budget figure under the Major head for 1919–1920 stood at 128·98, or excluding special grants for buildings and equipment amounting to 10·35, at 118·63. Excluding special items aggregating 5·50 entered on the recommendation of the Finance Committee, the budget estimate for 1920–1921 is placed at 133·54, or 14·91 over the current year's budget. Of this excess, a sum of 7·06 represents recurring charges for the improvement and expansion of elementary education, made up of 3·50 for subsidies to local bodies for opening new elementary schools, 2·06 for opening additional training schools and 1·50 for increased teaching grants in elementary schools and stipendiary grants in training schools.

Revenue.

81. Medical School and College fees.—The increase from 1917–1918 is due to the increased rate of fees levied from private pupils and students coming from other provinces and Native States, to the opening of additional medical schools at Calicut and Madura and to increases in the number of pupils. 15

82. Hospital receipts.—The actuals for 1918–1919 include a special credit of ·46 being the balance of the Vizagapatam hospital fund and of the fund of the King George's hospital at Madura which were transferred to Provincial revenues on the transfer of those hospitals to Government management.

83. The minor head Lunatic Asylum receipts comprises payments by private persons for the maintenance of lunatics, and the sale-proceeds of work executed by patients in lunatic asylums. 16

84. Contributions.—The figures from 1918–1919 under this minor head include (i) the contributions from local bodies in consequence of the transfer of headquarter hospitals to Government, and (ii) the contribution of ·29 from the Madras Corporation, towards the maintenance of Government hospitals and dispensaries in the city (·20) and of the Georgetown dispensary (·09). 18

The increase in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 as compared with the budget is accounted for by the refund of a contribution of ·20 originally made to the Mangalore Municipal Council towards the construction of an out-patient dispensary for the Wenlock hospital, which has since been taken over by Government. The budget for 1920–1921 excludes this special item, but takes credit for a total contribution of ·13 on account of the hospitals at Calicut and Trichinopoly which are to be taken under Government management with effect from 1920–1921.

Expenditure.

128–145

85. Medical establishment.—The increase in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 as compared with the budget for that year occurs mainly under 'Superintendence' and 'Reserve medical subordinates' The rates of pay of Indian Medical Service officers in civil employ have been revised with effect from the 1st December 1918. The budget for 1920–1921 contains provision for the revised scale of pay and allows also for the return of officers from military duty.

129–130

131–140

86. Hospitals and dispensaries.—The increase in the actuals for 1917–1918 as compared with the previous year represents mainly large non-recurring grants given to local bodies for medical buildings. The figures from 1918–1919, besides including provision for similar grants to local and private bodies, take account of charges in connexion with the transfer of the management of headquarter hospitals to Government.

131

The fall in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 as compared with the budget is due to the transfer to the head 45. Civil Works—Public Works Department of the provision entered towards the cost of the buildings and site of the Royapetta Hospital which has been taken under Government management with effect from the 1st October 1919. The saving is set off to some extent by the recurring expenditure on this hospital and increased charges under diet of patients in the various Government hospitals.

The increase in the budget for 1920–1921 is due mainly to the following causes:—

132

(c) Full year's provision on account of the maintenance of the Royapetta Hospital

134

(d) Increase under mufassal hospitals and dispensaries on account of additional provision for headquarter hospitals taken over by Government from local bodies.

135–139

(e) Lump provision for (i) the transfer of headquarter hospitals to Government (1·00); (ii) the reorganization of the establishments of mufassal headquarter hospitals and Presidency medical institutions (·32); (iii) purchase of an electrolyser for the use of State hospitals in Madras (·09); (iv) special equipment for headquarter hospitals taken over by Government (·50); (v) establishment of a tuberculosis hospital in Madras (·20); (vi) taking over the Caste and Gosha hospital under Government management (·50); and (vii) opening an X-ray Institute in Madras (·30).

131

Item (e).—The hospital at Bellary was taken under Government management from the 1st December 1917 and the headquarter hospitals at Coimbatore, Anantapur, Berhampur, Chingleput, Chittoor, Cocanada, Cuddapah, Guntur, Madura, Masulipatam, Ramnad, Tanjore and Vellore were taken under Government management with effect from the 1st April 1918. The hospitals at Cuddalore and Vizagapatam were taken over by Government with effect from 1st July 1918 and those at Kurnool and Mangalore from the 1st April 1919. It has been decided to take the hospitals at Trichinopoly and Calicut under Government management with effect from the 1st April 1920.

On the recommendation of the Finance Committee, a special provision of 1·00 has been entered for grants to local bodies for medical buildings. A provision of ·50 has also been included for petty improvements and repairs to Government district headquarter hospitals.

87. Grants for medical purposes.—The figures from 1918–1919 include expenditure on account of the investigation of indigenous drugs.

140–143

88. Medical College and Schools.—The revised estimate for 1919–1920 shows an excess over the budget for that year under 'Medical College, Madras,' mainly under 'Salaries' as a result of the revision of pay of the Indian Medical Service officers and of the debit to the College instead of to the respective hospitals of the pay of eleven Assistant Professors. The increase is partly set off by a drop in the expenditure relating to medical schools. The larger expenditure anticipated in the budget for 1920–1921 occurs partly under 'Medical Schools' and is also partly attributable to the lump provisions entered for the following objects:— 143-144

Equipment in medical schools	·10
Increasing the subordinate teaching staff in the Medical School, Rayapuram	·15
Reorganization of the mental establishment in medical schools ..	·04
Revision of the teaching staff in the Visagapatam, Tanjore and Calicut medical schools	·30
Total ..	·59

89. Lunatic Asylums.—The increase in the revised estimate over the budget for 1919–1920 occurs mainly under 'Diet of patients'. In the budget for 1920–1921 enhanced provision has been made under Contingencies to meet charges for the supply of water to the Madras Lunatic Asylum. 143-144

90. Chemical Examiner.—The saving in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 as compared with the budget is due chiefly to the absence of the permanent Chemical Examiner on leave, the officiating incumbent having drawn pay only as First Assistant Chemical Examiner with an acting allowance. 144-145

91. The budget estimate for 1919–1920 contained the following lump provisions:—

(i) Constitution of a women's subordinate medical service	·15
(ii) Post-graduate course for Civil Assistant Surgeons	·23
(iii) Medical school for women at Madras	·50

These amounts are not expected to be utilized during the current year and no provision has been entered for the ensuing year as the schemes have not yet materialized.

92. Fees for chemical analyses at the King Institute, and the sale-proceeds of calves, are credited to this major head

93. The actuals for 1918–1919 include a special credit of ·30 being unspent balances of Provincial contributions to the Kurnool municipality for water-works, which were refunded.

Expenditure.

144–151

146–151

94. Sanitation and Vaccination establishment.—The expenditure shown under this minor head relates mainly to the staff of deputy inspectors of vaccination and the Sanitary and Deputy Sanitary Commissioners and their establishments.

146

The slight fall in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 as compared with the current year's budget is the net result of savings in the provision for 'Salaries' in the General branch due chiefly to the appointment of one of the Deputy Sanitary Commissioners being vacant and the lapse of the provision of ·11 for popular health lectures, counterbalanced to some extent by larger expenditure in the Vaccination branch. The budget for 1920–1921, besides providing for the above items, contains in addition a lump sum of ·50 for the appointment of three additional Deputy Sanitary Commissioners.

147

14

95. Grants for sanitary purposes.—The main item of expenditure under this minor head is 'Contributions for sanitary purposes.' The details are—

96. Item (1).—On the recommendation of the Finance Committee, a special provision of 6·50 has been entered for grants to local bodies for minor sanitary works in 1920–1921.

Item (2).—The short expenditure in recent years was due to the heavy rise in the price of iron pipes and other materials obtained from Great Britain and to the extreme difficulty of getting supplies shipped to this country under war conditions. Now that the war is over it is expected that some of the indents already sent up will be complied with in the next year and it is also intended to send some further indents shortly.

Item (8).—Towards the cost of water-supply and drainage works in the Madras City estimated at 124·00, grants to the extent of 75·00 were made by Government prior to the year 1919–1920. A sum of 13·00 is required to complete the restricted programme of works and of this the Corporation have undertaken to meet 7·00, the balance of 12·00 being met from Provincial grants. A sum of 5·00 representing the first instalment of the above grant of 12·00 was accordingly paid to the Corporation in 1919–1920.

On the recommendation of the Finance Committee, a provision of 4·00 has been entered in the budget for 1920–1921 as a grant to the Madras Corporation for the above object. A further sum of 5·00 has also been included to meet the cost of extra filter-beds for the Madras water-works.

Item (6).—The provision has been transferred to the head '45. Civil Works—In charge of Civil Officers.'

97. Expenses in connexion with bubonic plague, etc.—The increase in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 over the budget for that year is mainly due to the employment in the course of the year of two cholera parties in addition to the six parties for which the budget provided. The budget for 1920–1921 besides containing a full year's provision for all the eight parties allows also for increased plague charges. 146–147 149

98. Bacteriological laboratories and Pasteur Vaccine institute.—The expenditure on the vaccine and the serum and bacteriological sections of the King Institute of Preventive Medicine, and the contribution of Government to the Pasteur Institute at Coonoor are shown under this minor head. 148–151

Larger expenditure was incurred during 1919–1920 on account of the manufacture of anti-influenza vaccine in the Serum and Bacteriological sections of the King Institute, but this was to some extent set off by a fall in the charges relating to the vaccine section due to the absence of the permanent Assistant Director on military duty and to larger recoveries from local bodies towards the working expenses of the institute. The budget for 1920–1921 provides for the pay of the permanent Assistant Director, but does not contain the special item of expenditure referred to above. 151 149–150 149

The charges in connexion with the Resident in Travancore and Cochin, the Paymaster of Carnatic Stipends, the Government Agent, Tanjore, the Stipend Pay offices, Kurnool and Vellore, and the Special Agent, South Arcot, are shown in full, but the expenditure connected with the Political establishments in Pudukkōttai and Sandur is recovered together with pensionary contributions from the Native States concerned, the recoveries being taken in abatement of charges. The increase in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 occurs mainly under 'Resident, Travancore and Cochin.'

100. Agricultural receipts are made up mainly of sale-proceeds of farm produce at the Central Farm at Coimbatore and at district farms and of cotton seed distributed by the Agricultural Department.

The increase in the actuals for 1918-1919 as compared with those of previous years occurs mainly under 'fees' and 'farm and other receipts' of the 'Central Teaching and Research Institute'. The figures from 1919-1920 take credit also for the sale-proceeds of manure in the Tanjore district and of fish manure from the depot opened on the West Coast.

101. The Veterinary receipts consist mainly of the fees levied for the treatment of horses and cattle at veterinary institutions under Government management.

Expenditure. 164-167

102. The Agricultural Department is one which is being largely expanded and at the same time reorganized under a scheme sanctioned by the Secretary of State in 1915. At present the senior staff consists of the following principal officers:—(a) a Director of Agriculture, (b) a Superintendent of the Central Farm and Principal of the Agricultural College, (c) an Assistant Principal, (d) an Agricultural Chemist, (e) an Economic Botanist, (f) an Entomologist, (g) a Mycologist, (h) a Lecturing and Systematic Botanist, (i) a Sugarcane Expert, (j) three gazetted assistants in Science, (k) seven Deputy Directors (excluding the officer appointed to charge of cattle-breeding and dairy operations) and six Assistant Directors, (l) a Deputy Director for the Planting districts, (m) an Agricultural Engineer and two Assistant Agricultural Engineers.

A scheme for the development of the planting industries involving the establishment of four—to be raised ultimately to six—experimental stations, the appointment of a Mycologist and the continued employment of the Deputy Director, Planting districts, has been recently sanctioned. Fixed annual contributions towards the cost of the scheme are obtained from the Mysore, Travancore and Cochin Darbars, the Administration of Coorg and the United Planters' Association of Southern India.

The appointment of Sugarcane Expert was originally sanctioned for a period of five years, and has been continued for a further period of five years from October 1917. In order to meet the cost of the sugarcane-breeding station, the Secretary of State has sanctioned the payment from Imperial funds of a recurring assignment of 44 per annum with effect from the 26th October 1917, instead of a non-recurring grant for the total expenditure as formerly.

It is proposed to appoint another Mycologist for the investigation of diseases affecting rubber, but the expenditure on account of this officer and his staff will be recovered from the United Planters' Association, Southern India. Sanction has also been sought to the appointment of two additional Deputy Directors, one for the proposed Eighth Circle and the other for the 'Northerns' Cotton work as recommended by the Cotton Committee, of a second Assistant Principal and of seven expert officers, viz., a second Chemist, an expert each for cotton, millet and pulses, an Agrostologist, a Bacteriologist and a Soil Physicist.

103. The budget estimate for 1919-1920 contained lump provision for the following schemes:— 145

(1) Cotton-seed farm at Nandyal	·82
(2) Fish manure depot on the West Coast	·70
(3) Development of silk industry	·10
(4) Kangayam cattle farm	·10
(5) Improvement of milk-supply—Madras breeding scheme (·14), experiments at the Military dairy farms in Bangalore (·10) and milk transport experiments (·01).	·25
(6) Development of the planting industries of Southern India	·27
	2·24

The provision for items (1) and (4) is expected to lapse while the amounts entered for items (3), (5) and (6) are not likely to be fully utilized. Savings also occur in the provision for Deputy Directors of Agriculture, Experimental Farms and Cultivation and improvement of cotton cultivation, but they are set off by larger expenditure on 'College and Central Farm' and District Experimental Cultivation, the latter due to the departmental sale of manure to ryots. The budget for next year provides for the Expert officers, Additional Deputy Directors, Assistant Principal, and the Mycologist already referred to, and also for increased expenditure on account of a larger number of farm managers, the purchase of additional live-stock and dead-stock for experimental farms and improvement of cotton cultivation.

The following lump provisions have been entered in the budget :—

(i)	Anamalai Cambodia Cotton farm	·15
(ii)	Kangayam Cattle-breeding farm	·27
(iii)	Improvement of milk-supply—Madras breeding scheme (·10), experiments at the Military dairy farms in Bangalore (·10).	·20
(iv)	Purchase of Seed-farm paddy	·14
(v)	Development of silk industry	·10
(vi)	Improvement of Botanical and other public gardens.	·10
(vii)	Revision of pay of Agricultural officers in pursuance of the recommendations of the Public Services Commission.	·80
	Total ..	1·76

104. Veterinary charges.—The decrease in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 as compared with the budget occurs partly under 'Superintendence' and 'Veterinary Instruction,' due to the appointments of a second superintendent and a second officer respectively being vacant, and partly under 'Hospitals and Dispensaries' as a consequence of the lapse of the lump provision of ·12 made for Veterinary hospitals to be opened during the year and of savings in the lump provision for Government contribution towards the maintenance of district board or private veterinary institutions. The budget for 1920–1921, besides providing for the two officers mentioned above, includes six months' charges on account of a third superintendent, and a larger provision for veterinary assistants together with the following lump provisions :—

·13 for additional veterinary assistants.

·26 for a Government contribution towards the maintenance of District Board or private veterinary institutions already in existence; and ·12 for veterinary hospitals likely to be opened during the year.

On the recommendation of the Finance Committee a lump provision of ·10 has also been entered in the budget for 1920–1921 for a Veterinary hospital at Negapatam.

105. Co-operative credit.—The increase of expenditure under this head is due to the growth of the operations of the department. The budget for 1920–1921 contains the following lump provisions :—

·13 on account of additional Honorary Assistant Registrars ; and

1·99 on account of strengthening the staff of the department so as to provide for the employment of additional Assistant Registrars and Inspectors for the more rapid development of co-operation, the object being to produce a sufficient number of societies in every taluk in this Presidency so as to permit of local unions being formed.

108 Under Cinchona plantations appear the sale-proceeds of febrifuge, quinine bark, seeds, plants and jalap whether obtained from the Government plantations on the Nilgiris or (in the case of quinine) manufactured from purchased cinchona bark. The increase in the actuals for 1916–1917 and 1917–1918 was due partly to the large demand for quinine from the Medical Stores but mainly to the greatly enhanced rates adopted in the valuation of stock issued consequent upon the rise in the market price of quinine. The fall since 1918–1919 as compared with 1917–1918 is due to a reduction in the supply of quinine and to shorter output in the factory owing to the comparatively poor quality of the bark left to be worked. The increase in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 as compared with the budget is due to a special credit of 1·30 being a refund of the unspent balance of money drawn in 1918–1919 for the purchase of cinchona bark.

107. Receipts from industrial operations.—This is a new minor head which has been opened with effect from 1st April 1918 to show the receipts of the Fisheries department, which were till then recorded under 'Fishery receipts,' and of other industrial concerns which were hitherto exhibited under the minor head 'Miscellaneous'. Since 1917–1918 receipts from the manufacture of soap have been shown under this minor head. The large decrease in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 as compared with the budget occurs under 'Oil and Soap industry'. When the budget for the current year was framed, it was anticipated that the new buildings for the factory would be completed early in 1919–1920 and that in consequence the manufacture of soaps could be carried on on an extensive scale. The buildings are not, however, likely to be completed before the end of the coming year and this accounts for the fall in the revised estimate. The budget for 1920–1921 follows the current year's revised estimate and includes a sum of ·13 being the anticipated receipts from fisheries in the Nellore and Chingleput districts which are to be taken over by the Fisheries department.

106. The charges of the Government Cinchona Plantations on the Nilgiris are recorded under the minor head Cinchona plantations. The bulk of the charges under this head relates to the purchase of cinchona bark. The budget for next year provides a sum of 2·00 for the purchase of bark.

109. Inspector of Factories.—The budget estimate for the ensuing year besides including provision for the reorganization of the inspection staff and establishment of the department contains a lump provision of ·07 for the revision of the pay of Inspectors in pursuance of the recommendations of the Public Services Commission

178

178-179 110. Examinations.—The rise in the expenditure in 1920–1921 is mainly under 'Special tests' and 'Secondary School-Leaving certificates' due to the larger number of candidates appearing and the consequent increase in the expenses connected with the examinations.

179-180 111. Development of industries.—Under this minor head are recorded the charges relating to the Department of Fisheries, to Pearl and Chank fisheries, experiments in soap-making and industrial operations. The fall in the revised estimate for the current year occurs mainly in the expenditure on the oil and soap industry due to the manufacture of soap being carried on on a less extensive scale than was anticipated to the reason given in paragraph 107 ante. There are also lapses in the provision for pastecultural works, grants-in-aid to industrial schools and miscellaneous experiments. The increase in the budget estimate for 1920–1921 is due to larger provision for the above objects and to the reorganization of the weaving branch of the Industries department, the District Industrial staff and the Madras Technical Institute.

184 112. Miscellaneous.—Under this minor head are recorded the charges relating to the Director of Civil Supplies. The expenditure on this account is covered by an assignment from Imperial revenues.

113. The receipts under this head consist chiefly of contributions for pensions and gratuities on account of officers of Government lent to foreign service for employment under the Court of Wards, municipalities and other local bodies, Native States and landholders.

114. The increase in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 represents chiefly arrears of recoveries from local bodies of contributions for leave allowances and pensions of civil assistant surgeons in their employ ordered to be made with effect from the 1st March 1916.

185 Expenditure.

115 This head comprises charges for pensions, gratuities and compassionate allowances, and for the commuted value of pensions to Government servants.

117. Stationery receipts.—The increase in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 as compared with the budget estimate for the year is due to larger demands from the Military department than was anticipated, while the decrease in the budget estimate for 1920–1921 allows partly for smaller demands owing to the cessation of the war and partly for a decrease in the sale-proceeds for waste paper.

Revenue.

119. The receipts recorded under the first minor head "Percentage on capital cost of furniture supplied to high officers" represent a 5 per cent charge recovered as rent from the Resident and the Assistant Resident in Travancore and Cochin on the capital value of furniture supplied at the cost of Government.

The other minor heads are for the most part self-explanatory.

120. The increase in the budget estimate for 1920–1921 as compared with the revised estimate for 1919–1920 under the minor head 'Contributions' is due to the anticipated refund by the District Board, Trichinopoly, of a temporary grant of ·11 made to it last year for the construction of a roadway across the Vellar and by the Municipal Council, Villupuram, of ·03 being the temporary grant made to it to cover the anticipated deficit on account of the working of the Council in the current year.

Expenditure. 191–194

121. The minor heads under this major head are for the most part self-explanatory.

122. Donations for charitable purposes.—The actuals for 1916–1917 include a special grant of ·22 paid to the Lawrence Memorial School, Ootacamund, out of a non-recurring assignment from Imperial resources sanctioned by the Government of India for the purpose. Similar non-recurring assignments of ·25 for each of the years 1917–1918 and 1918–1919 and a recurring assignment of ·50 from 1919–1920 onwards have also been sanctioned towards the opening of a training college for the members of the domiciled community and the corresponding charges appear under this head. Special non-recurring grants to the Lawrence Memorial School for provision of play grounds and for meeting the deficit in the working of the school during 1919–1920 and to the Young Men's Christian Association towards the cost of a building for a hostel for Anglo-Indian young men and for equipment thereof, contribute mainly to the increase in the revised estimate for the current year. 193

123. Special Commissions of Inquiry.—The figure of ·20 entered in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 under this item, relates to the charges of the Salaries Committee appointed to examine generally the adequacy of the rates of pay of Government subordinate and menial establishments including village officers. 191 and 194

124. Contributions.—The chief items of expenditure under this minor head are (i) contributions to municipalities which are given for general purposes, as, for instance, to cover deficits and (ii) contributions to local funds. The grants in aid of municipalities for general purposes amounted to ·19 in 1916–1917, ·30 in 1917–1918 and ·42 in 1918–1919. In the budget estimate for 1919–1920 a provision of ·50 was entered for this purpose on the recommendation of the Finance Committee and it is expected that it will be utilized. A similar provision of ·50 has been entered in the budget estimate for 1920–1921. 194

Under contributions to local funds the chief items are the usual annual grants to the District Boards of The Nilgiris and Koraput. The grant to the Nilgiri District Board, which now stands at 1·38, is made in consideration of the small income which it derives from general sources. The grant to Koraput, which now stands at ·24, is given because the revenue of that district board falls short of the expenditure on the services to be maintained by it. A contribution of ·55 is also paid to other district boards as compensation for the resumption by Government of certain fishery rentals formerly credited to those local bodies, the chief item being ·29 per annum given to the District Boards of Trichinopoly and Tanjore. 194

125. Miscellaneous and unforeseen charges.—Collectors of districts have been empowered, with reference to the recommendations of the Decentralization Commission, to make discretionary grants for general purposes of a public nature calculated to be of benefit to their districts up to Rs. 200 per annum for recurring charges and Rs. 1,000 for non-recurring charges in each individual case. The total grant to be distributed among the Collectors of the several districts has been fixed at 1·25 per annum. The expenditure so incurred is budgeted for under this head in the first instance and the actual charges incurred are subsequently adjusted to the appropriate heads of account. A provision of 1·25 has accordingly been entered for this purpose in the budget estimate for 1920–1921. The budget estimate for 1919–1920 included a reserve provision of 9·82 for unforeseen expenditure. The amount has been reappropriated to other heads. The budget estimate for 1920–1921 includes a provision of 5·00 on this account. 194

194 The charges on account of the Publicity Bureau are debited to this head.

126. War boards.—The charges on account of the local Labour and Employment
194 Bureau established in connexion with the war are shown under this minor head. No provision has been made in the budget for 1920–1921 as the board is not likely to continue after March 1920.

191 & 196 127. The revised estimate for the current year includes a provision of 1·10 on account of 'Peace celebration charges' incurred in July and the payment of the debts of Civil debtors released on the occasion of the signing of Peace.

129. For purposes of classification in the accounts, irrigation works are divided into (a) Productive works, (b) Protective works, and (c) Minor works and navigation.

130. Productive works are works of a remunerative character undertaken for the improvement of the country, the capital expenditure on which is usually met from borrowed money; the interest and the cost of maintenance and working are provided out of current revenues, the income being credited thereto. Capital outlay on such irrigation works is recorded under the major head 49. IRRIGATION WORKS—a wholly Imperial head. The revenue is credited under XXIX. IRRIGATION—MAJOR WORKS and the interest and working expenses are debited to the head 42. IRRIGATION—MAJOR WORKS.

131 Protective works are those which are calculated to diminish future expenditure on famine relief. The cost of the construction of protective irrigation projects is paid out of the annual grants under famine relief and insurance, and is chargeable to the major head 35. CONSTRUCTION OF PROTECTIVE IRRIGATION WORKS—a wholly Imperial head. The receipts and the interest and working expenses are, as in the case of productive works, classed under the heads XXIX. & 42. IRRIGATION—MAJOR WORKS.

132. The head Minor works and navigation includes all classes of irrigation works other than the above and is subdivided into

(b) works for which neither capital nor revenue accounts are kept; and

(c) agricultural works, consisting of the conservancy of rivers or training of river-beds, and the maintenance of their embankments.

Revenue.

133. The receipts from Major irrigation works are classified into Direct receipts and Indirect receipts.

134. The Direct receipts are realized in the Public Works Department and are derived from the following sources: (a) sale-proceeds of water supplied for purposes other than irrigation or town consumption, (b) sale-proceeds of water supplied to towns, (c) sale-proceeds of produce from canal plantations, (d) sale-proceeds of wood and grass from canal banks other than regular plantations, (e) charges for water supplied to mills, etc., (f) receipts from navigation and (g) rent of buildings, etc.

The revised estimate for 1919–1920 is based on the latest actuals available, and the budget estimate for 1920–1921 follows the revised estimate in the main.

135. The Indirect receipts consist of land revenue due to, or dependent on, major productive and protective works for which capital and revenue accounts are maintained.

136. The increase in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 as compared with the budget for that year occurs chiefly under the Gōdāvari delta and the Periyar systems.

Expenditure.

137. Working expenses.—The working expenses of each system are classified under the four sub-heads—(a) Extensions and improvements, (b) Maintenance and repairs, (c) Establishment charges and (d) Tools and plant.

The expenditure under 'Extensions and improvements' relates mainly to minor works costing less than Rs. 1,000, such as the construction of dams across channels and excavation of small distributaries, while the sub-head 'Maintenance and repairs' relates to head works, main canals and branches, distributaries and drainage, and includes works of the nature of repairing and strengthening canal banks, clearing silt in canals, repairing locks, lock weirs and masonry works.

138. The decrease in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 and the budget estimate for 1920–1921 as compared with the actuals of previous years is due chiefly to a change introduced by the Government of India in the system of distributing the charges for Public Works establishment among the several Public Works major heads.

The budget for 1920–1921 is based on ascertained demands.

139. Interest on debt.—Interest on the irrigation debt is calculated at the average rate of interest paid during the year on the total public debt of the Government of India, and the capital outlay upon which interest is calculated in 1920–1921 is that incurred up to the end of 1919–1920 plus half the estimated outlay in 1920–1921.

140. The rate of interest, which is the average rate paid on the total public debt of the Government of India, has risen from 3·47 to 3·48 per cent.

Revenue.

141. Civil officers.—The receipts, which consist chiefly of fines under section 6 of the Madras Compulsory Labour Act, 1858, are fluctuating in character.

142. Public Works officers.—The revenue comprises receipts from sale of water, canal produce, navigation, and rent of buildings, and is derived mainly from the Madras water-supply and irrigation system and the Buckingham canal, and from ordinary and agricultural works.

143. The revised estimate is based on the latest actuals available and the budget for 1920–1921 in the main follows the revised estimate.

186–188

Expenditure.

188

144. Civil officers.—The expenditure represents the cost of minor irrigation works, chiefly repairs to tanks, costing not more than Rs. 2,500 each, which are executed under the supervision of the Revenue Department. Voluntary contributions towards repairs received from private persons and bodies are taken in abatement of the charges. The outlay depends to a large extent on the character of the season, since it is impossible to carry out repairs when heavy rains cause the tanks to be full for longer periods than usual.

145. The revised estimate for 1919–1920 is based on the latest actuals. The budget for 1920–1921 is 1·62 more than the current year's revised estimate and provides fully for the demands made by Collectors.

146. Public Works officers.—Expenditure on minor irrigation works other than those mentioned under Civil officers is shown under this head under the following subdivisions:— 144

(a) 'Minor Works, Revenue Department' relating to works under control of the Revenue Department, the execution of which requires technical skill and which are entrusted to the Public Works Department;

(b) 'Works in charge of Civil officers acting as Public Works disbursers' under which is recorded the expenditure on works costing more than Rs. 2,500 each executed by the officers of the Revenue Department; and

(c) 'Works in charge of the Public Works Department.'

147. The decrease in the revised estimate for 1919–1920 and in the budget for 1920–1921, as compared with the budget for the current year, is due mainly to a change in the method of calculating the proportion of the charges for Public Works establishment debitable to this head.

For Tank Restoration Scheme works, the budget for 1920–1921 provides a sum of 4·07 (exclusive of charges for establishment and tools and plant) against a grant of 4·91 in the current year's budget. The only important work in the course of construction is the Kanoiumpalayam anicut project for which a grant of ·20 has been provided for next year. The probable outlay on this work up to the end of 1919–1920 is ·74.

148. Civil officers.—The receipts represent the sale-proceeds of grass and fruit in Government cemeteries, and tolls levied under the Indian Tolls Act, 1851, in the Agency tracts of Ganjām.

The actuals from 1916-1917 to 1918–1919 include special credits mostly on account of refunds by local bodies of unspent balances of Provincial contributions. The budget for 1920–1921 follows the revised estimate for the current year.

149. Public Works officers.—The receipts are derived mainly from rents of buildings in charge of the Public Works Department, sale-proceeds of buildings and materials, tolls on roads, the net profits in the Public Works Workshops, and fines levied from contractors for failure in the execution of works.

The revised estimate for 1919–1920 is based on the latest actuals available, and includes special receipts from the sale of buildings in Trichinopoly and the transfer of tools from the Kurnool division to the Indian Munitions Board. The budget for 1920–1921 follows the revised estimate for the current year after excluding the special items provided for in the latter.

Expenditure.

91-126

150. Civil officers.—The expenditure under this minor head relates chiefly to (i) grants to local bodies in aid of roads and bridges and other miscellaneous public improvements, and (ii) public works in the Agency tracts of Ganjām, Vizagapatam and Gōdāvari costing not more than Rs 2,500 each, and executed by officers other than those of the Public Works Department

127-136

151. The following are the principal items of expenditure during the three years 1918–1919 to 1920–1921 :—

Number.	Particulars.	Accounts, 1918–1919.	Budget estimate, 1919–1920	Revised estimate, 1919–1920.	Budget estimate, 1920–1921.
(a)	Grants to district boards to supplement their resources, of which a sum of 14 lakhs has been specially provided by the Government of India	17·28	17·28	17·28	17·28
(b)	Grants to poorer district boards for communications	5·00	5·00	5·00	5·00
(c)	Grants to district boards for improvement of important roads	20·00	6·00	3·00	..
(d)	Special grants to local bodies for roads and bridges	4·69	6·20	6·27	7·21
(e)	Grants to local bodies for the acquisition of house-sites for depressed classes	..	..	1·00	..
	Total ..	46·97	34·48	35·55	29·49

137

Item (a).—In order to enable district boards to frame their budgets on a permanent basis, it was decided to stereotype this grant on the basis of the grants made to them in 1917–1918. The details are furnished in the Annexure to this Part. In the last three years additional subsidies have been given to a few of the poorest district boards—see item (b).

Item (b).—A special grant of 5·00 for the improvement of communications was distributed during each of the years 1917–1918 to 1919–1920 among the district boards of Anantapur, Bellary, Kurnool, Cuddapah, Chittoor, Salem, Nellore and Chingleput

In accordance with the recommendation of the Finance Committee of January 1920 a similar grant of 5·00 has been entered in the budget for 1920–1921 for distribution among the district boards of Anantapur (·80), Bellary (·90) Chingleput (·40), Chittoor (·40), Cuddapah (·80), Kurnool (·90), Nellore (·40) and Salem (·40).

Reference to page in the Civil Budget Estimates.

Item (c).—The amounts represent special grants to local bodies for carrying out special repairs to certain trunk roads in the Presidency which were burdened with increased traffic as a result of the restrictions on railway traffic and also for the construction of bridges and causeways on some of the more important roads. From the year 1920–1921, it is proposed that Government shall relieve local bodies of the cost of maintaining the trunk roads throughout the Presidency and a provision of 16·00 has been made in the budget as mentioned below. 257

Item (d).—The budget estimate for 1920–1921 provides for grants to the District Boards of Vizagapatam (·52), Koraput (·96) and Gōdāvari (·45) for the development of the agency tracts. On the recommendation of the Finance Committee of January 1920, an allotment of 4·90 has been entered for grants to local bodies for bridges and causeways. 196 197

Item (e).—As already explained in paragraph 96, the amount was provided in the budget under 24-B. Sanitation and subsequently transferred to this head.

152. Public Works officers.—This minor head comprises two sub-heads—

(i) Works in charge of Civil officers acting as Public Works disbursers; and

(ii) Works in charge of the Public Works Department.

153. Works in charge of Civil officers acting as Public Works disbursers.—Under this sub-head is recorded the expenditure on works costing more than Rs. 2,500 each carried out by officers of the Civil department acting in the capacity of Public Works disbursers. Works costing not more than Rs. 2,500 each which are executed by officers of the Civil department are debited as contingent charges of the department concerned. In the case, however, of the Salt, Excise and Forest departments all works executed by Civil officers, irrespective of their cost, are adjusted not to the Public Works Department head but to the contingencies of the department concerned.

The main items under this sub-head relate to works in the Jail department executed by Superintendents of Jails as Public Works disbursers and to works in the agency tracts. The budget estimate for 1920–1921 includes a provision of 1·32 for the purchase and erection of a power-house plant for the new Engineering College, Guindy.

154. Works in charge of the Public Works Department.—The revised estimate for 1919–1920 provides for the increased scale of pay sanctioned for Imperial and Provincial Engineers in pursuance of the recommendations of the Public Services Commission, but the increase on this account is more than counterbalanced by a change in the method of calculating the establishment charges debitable to the Irrigation heads '42' and '43'. The items contributing to the increase are a transfer to this head from 24-A. Medical of 3·50 on account of the payment to the Madras Corporation for the building and site of the Royapetta hospital which has been taken under Government management and larger expenditure under 'Stock and Suspense' and on repairs to civil buildings. 198

The budget estimate for 1920–1921 includes a lump provision of 16·00 in order to relieve local bodies with effect from 1st April next of the charges for the maintenance of important roads. It also includes larger provision for works in progress, new works and establishment.

155. The scheme for the redistribution of district, subdivisional and other charges which was drawn up by Sir William Meyer involved a total outlay of about 42·00 on new buildings, towards which the Government of India sanctioned assignments aggregating 25·00 from Imperial revenues. The total expenditure up to the end of 1918–1919 amounted to 23·12 and the probable outlay in 1919–1920 is about ·10 and in 1920–1921 about ·15.

156. The following is a list of important works (a) which were completed in 1918–1919, (b) which are in progress in the current year and (c) which it is proposed to commence in 1920–1921 :—

Item 25.—An assignment of 6·05 in favour of Provincial revenues was entered in the budget estimate for 1919–1920 to compensate them for their share of the loss of income-tax revenue as the result of the raising of the assessable limit of income from Rs. 1,000 to Rs. 2,000 per annum and the imposition of an Excess Profits duty. This is only a rough estimate, and pending information as regards the actual figures, the current year's figure has been repeated in the budget for 1920–1921.

Item 36.—The Government of India imposed additional taxation with effect from 1916–1917 solely to meet Imperial needs, and the heads under which the proceeds of the additional taxation accrue are III. SALT, VII. CUSTOMS, V. EXCISE and VIII. INCOME-TAX. The heads SALT and CUSTOMS are purely Imperial, while the heads EXCISE and INCOME-TAX are shared equally between Imperial and Provincial. To enable Imperial resources to receive the full increment due to the new taxation, it is necessary to pay from Provincial revenues a recurring compensatory assignment equivalent to the estimated amount accruing as the Provincial share of the new taxation. The Provincial share of the additional taxation was provisionally fixed at 6·43, being made up of ·18 under V. EXCISE and 6·25 under VIII. INCOME-TAX. The original forecast of 6·25 under Income-tax will be exceeded by 15·25 in 1919–1920 and by 13·75 in 1920–1921.

The remaining items are self-explanatory.

Provincial Advance and Loan Account.

159. Four statements are annexed showing the transactions under Provincial loans and advances. Statement I exhibits the transactions relating to loans sanctioned prior to the 1st October 1916, statement II those relating to loans sanctioned subsequent to that date but before 1st April 1917, statement III those relating to loans sanctioned on or after the 1st April 1917 and statement IV exhibits in one view the total transactions under each class of loans.

160. Class I Loans include advances to cultivators made under the Land Improvement Loans Act and the Agriculturists' Loans Act and advances to co-operative credit societies. The advances to cultivators in the current year are estimated at 16·09 as against the budget estimate of 8·50. The budget estimate for 1920–1921 has been fixed at 10·50.

161. Class IV Loans. These represent loans to district boards and municipalities in connexion with drainage and water-supply schemes, the construction of markets and other public works, and plague preventive measures.

The allotment for 1920–1921 is intended for works which are actually in progress, or which will be taken up for execution at an early date.

162. Class V Loans. The transactions under this head relate to the following miscellaneous loans :—

(1) Loans to pearl fishers for the purchase of canoes.

(2) Loans to Chenchus for the purchase of bulls and agricultural implements.

(3) Loans to co-operative societies in connexion with the acquisition of house-sites for Panchamas.

(4) A loan which it is proposed to give to the Housing Association of Madras.

Item (3).—Under this scheme a co-operative society is organized whenever a fairly large number of Panchamas either in one hamlet or in a group of hamlets make an application for house-sites. The lands are acquired by Government and handed over to the society on payment of 25 per cent of the purchase money, the remaining 75 per cent being lent to the society at 6¼ per cent per annum. The society executes a security bond undertaking to repay the balance of the cost of the lands conveyed to it. The maximum period for repayment is twenty years, it being left to the societies to discharge their obligations at an earlier date if they so desire. The maximum borrowing power of a society has been fixed at one-eighth of the total of the net assets of the members and provision has been made in the bye-laws of the societies for the due discharge of their indebtedness to Government. The Government of India have sanctioned a loan of 1·00 for the acquisition of house-sites for Panchamas in the Tanjore district in the current year. The budget estimate for 1920–1921 includes a provision of 2·75 for the grant of loans to the societies in Tanjore and for the extension of the scheme to seven other districts, viz., South Arcot, Chingleput, Gödävari, Malabar, Salem, Anantapur and South Kanara.

Item (4).—The object of the Madras Central Housing Association is stated to be the improvement of the housing conditions of the poor and the starting or financing of associations and co-operative societies for the housing of the working classes in the city of Madras. Details of the scheme are not yet before Government. The budget estimate for 1920–1921 contains a provision of 2·00 for a loan to this Association.

1. Refunds and Drawbacks (+ 1·11).—The increase occurs under Land Revenue and Income-tax Refunds.

3. Land Revenue (+ 1·12).—The increase is mainly due to the probable expenditure involved in giving effect to certain advance recommendations of the Salaries Committee during the current year.

22. Education (— 1·10).—This is due to a lapse of 2·10 under grants-in-aid, counterbalanced by an increase of 1·00 under subsidies to local bodies for opening Board High and Middle Schools.

26-B. Scientific and Miscellaneous Departments (+ 1·00).—The increase occurs under "purchase of cinchona bark".

42. Irrigation—Major Works—Working Expenses. + ·95
43. Minor Works and Navigation—Public Works Department. + 3·38
45. Civil Works—Public Works Department. — 6·46

The variations are due chiefly to the adoption in the present statement of the system of pro rata distribution in respect of establishment and tools and plant charges.

I. Land Revenue (+ ·30)
XXI-A. Agriculture (+ ·70) } The increases are based on later information.

XXV. Miscellaneous.—The decrease is due mainly to the omission of the sum of 6·00 for which credit was originally taken on account of a contribution from Messrs. Tata Sons, Limited, for the concession of working a hydro-electric scheme on the Nilgiris.
